Tickets! Tickets!

A good supply of the paper bullets, to be shot on next Tuesday, are now ready at this office. Our friends from districts not supplied by the Cambria Tribune, are affectionately invited to bob round and fill their pockets.

The Senatorial Question.

If there is one subject which should more than any other claim the serious attention of every voter in the counties of Cambria, Blair and Clearfield, it is the Senatorial question. The office of Senator is one of great magnitude and importance. Every man in the district must feel a deep interest in having its functions properly exercised; and in having it filled by one who is honest—who is capable—who is worthy. And not only are the People of the district affected in this matter: the People of the whole State have a common interest in the Law-making power, and it is to them that we are responsible when we come to select our representatives for our Legislative Councils.

We have two candidates in the field for this important position. Louis W. Hall, of Blair county, is the nominee of the PEOPLE; and Augustin Durbin, of Cambria, is the nominee of the Loco-Focos. We have been called upon to choose between these men; and we have chosen

Hall. Our selection has not been influenced by mere party predilection; it is based upon the settled conviction that Hall, as a man, as a citizen, as a moralist, is quite the equal of his Loco-Foco opponent; and that he possesses qualifications for a Senator, to which Mr. Durbin dare not pretend. Against the private character of Mr. Durbin we have not said one word, nor do we intend to do so. In this respect, we believe we present a remarkable contrast when considered with some of our Loco-Foco contemporaries, whose abuse and vilification of Col. Hall have been unjustifiable and without limit.

But as to qualifications: no sane man who knows the Senatorial candidates, will pretend that Durbin is the equal of Hall. It is not merely "a good, clever fellow" that the People desire to select as their representative in the Senate. They look higher than this. They desire a man of ability to be placed in that station. They would have a man who can take part in the debates that are there carried on,—a man who can not only vote for their interests, but who can talk for them,—a man who knows something about the laws and institutions of our State,—and a man who knows exactly what legislation is required for the public good, and what is unnecessary and hurtful. Now, these are qualifications which we claim for Hall, and deny to Durbin. If we are correct in so doing, then is it not the duty of every good citizen to vote for Hall?

The Branch Road.

On Thursday last we passed along a considerable portion of the line of the Ebensburg and Cresson Railroad. We were really astonished to find that so much work had been done. About three miles of the road are now graded, and we are informed that over one sixth of the entire work is accomplished. In what has been done, we have the best evidence that the idea entertained by our citizens, of connecting Ebensburg with the Pennsylvania Railroad, will soon be realized. All that is necessary to bring about this most desirable result, will be for our citizens to persevere in the good work; to give "a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether." It will be a proud, a glorious day for us all, when the Iron-Horse shall pass without let or hindrance to and from the limits of our goodly little borough. It is this which will make Ebensburg what she ought to be. It is this which should induce every subscriber to pay his stock promptly, and every one of our citizens who has not subscribed, to subscribe all that he is able.

Important.

A number of the citizens of Cambria and Blair counties, without distinction of Party, have addressed a letter to each of the Senatorial candidates, propounding the following interrogatories:

- 1st. If elected to the Senate, will you vote against any repeal of the law of this Commonwealth, passed in 1794, for the suppression of Wordly Employment on "the Lord's Day," commonly called Sunday?
2d. Will you vote and use your influence to prevent any such legislation as will remove the legal restraints now imposed upon Sabbath-breaking?
3d. Will you make all lawful and honorable exertions to prevent such legislation as will open the way for the desecration of that holy day, either in city or country?
We have not room to publish the correspondence between the parties, but it gives us much pleasure to state that Messrs. Hall and Durbin have both answered these questions in the affirmative.

CONFIDENTIAL.—The Fair is now on us, and, as a matter of course, quite a crowd is collected in town to see the sights. A majority of them, doubtless, will take occasion, during their sojourn here, to buy their Fall and Winter stock of Groceries, Provisions, &c. To all such we would say, patronize those who advertise in The Alleghanian. You'll find it will pay.

CONCERTS.—We are informed that the Choral Society, of Johnstown, will give a concert in the Independent Church, of this place, this (Thursday) evening, to be followed by another to-morrow evening. We have reason to believe that they are entitled to a full house.

TO THE POLLS! FREEMEN OF CAMBRIA COUNTY! TO THE POLLS!

One day for your Country, for your Country's Sake.

MEN OF CAMBRIA! Ye who would oppose the sham Democracy of the day! Ye who would rebuke the ungodly administration of James Buchanan! Ye who would have Retrenchment and Reform in our State and National Governments! Ye who would protect the Sovereign People from the encroachments of Executive Power! Are you ready to meet your enemy at the ballot-box? Are you armed and equipped, and are your forces mustered for the great conflict of next Tuesday?—Remember that

DELAY IS DANGEROUS!

The crisis demands that every friend of the PEOPLE, and of the PEOPLE'S PARTY should be at his post. This is no time for idleness. This is no time to loiter by the wayside. Let it be remembered that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." If we would win, we must labor for the prize.

TO WORK! TO WORK!

Canvass your districts! Let the notes of preparation be sounded in every nook and corner! Visit the lukewarm, the careless and the indifferent! Tell them of the importance of the coming contest, and urge them to the performance of their duty as American citizens! Make arrangements to bring out the aged and the infirm! See that not a single vote be lost! A single vote may change the result! A single vote may tell the story of our success or of our defeat!

VOICE EARLY AND VOTE RIGHT.

False tickets may be circulated by the enemy. See that none be deceived by them. Do all that "doth become a man" for the success of the PEOPLE'S STATE TICKET.

Let THOMAS E. COCHRAN and WILLIAM H. KEIM be well supported. Their election will be a State Triumph—a Triumph of the Right against the Wrong—Guard well too the interests of LOUIS W. HALL.

The People's Candidate for Senator.—Upon his election much depends. Make every honorable effort to swell the glorious majority which he will receive, and thus show to the People of this Senatorial District that you go for a man who can represent you, and who will represent you truly in the Councils of your State.

PEOPLE'S COUNTY TICKET.

Every man on it is entitled to your support. Vote for them all without scratching a name. Let no inducement swerve you from your duty. But work! work! rally! rally! for

- PROUDFOOT, ROBERTS, CAMPBELL, JONES, M' MULLEN, STRAYER, KAYLOR, LITTLE, VICKROY, and PURSE.

Be at the Polls early; and do not leave the ground until the ballottings are over. Go well supplied with Tickets, and be sure that they are of the right stamp. See that they contain the names of the People's Candidates and none other.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS!

Heed not idle stories. Scrutinize every movement of the enemy. Be watchful; be vigilant; be unceasing in your efforts to promote

A RIGHTEOUS CAUSE.

If you seek to advance the cause of FREEDOM: If you would bring our government back to its original purity: If you wish to expel corruption from high official stations: If you desire to fill your offices with men of the People, and men for the People: Now is the time to begin the good work!

STRIKE NOW!

Strike—till the last armed foe expires; Strike—for your altars and your fires; Strike—for the green graves of your sires; God—and your native land!

The Tyrone encampment seems to have been quite a success, eleven companies and a great number of outsiders being in attendance.
The Standard says muddled brains are abundant in the Alleghanian sanctum.
Thank you. It is doubtful whether there are any brains at all in the Standard sanctum.
The company of our friend Bell, of the Star, is said to have taken the premium at the Tyrone Encampment. It must be a Star company.

Alex. De Armit, of Gaysport, was stabbed in the hip a few days since, by a cookmaker named White. The wound is not considered dangerous. White has fled.
Three great aids—material aid, serenade and lemonade. The first may be taken raw; the second is a rare treat; and the third—well, we suppose it is better with a fly in it.
If Bitters attends the circus in the afternoon, and Damphool in the evening, (as now seems to be the arrangement between them,) we are afraid our chances for seeing the elephant will be rather slim.
Three great institutions.—The dance, the circus, and slavery.—The dance and the circus come in for an occasional big lick, but it seems that slavery is permitted to go on its way rejoicing. Why?
A decided improvement.—The new ticket system, inaugurated by the Penn'a R. R. Co., on the 1st inst. It is much more convenient than the old style, and a saving of a great deal of labor.
The Altoona Tribune suggests that the best way to get rid of the old-fashioned cents, will be to drop them into the Washington Monument contribution-box.
A very sensible suggestion!
U. J. Jones, Esq., has just published a pamphlet entitled "The Rights of Railway Travelers and the Rights of Railway Companies in their various capacities as Common Carriers." It is said to be a very useful work.
A long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether.—Standard.
Be very careful, neighbor, that the string don't break, as in that event you may land in the mud.
We learn from the Globe, that a Mr. Reese, of Millin, will exhibit flying horses at the Huntingdon County Fair.
We don't expect to see a flying horse on our Fair, but we might possibly see a horse-fly.
Dr. Piatt, of Cherrytree borough, has been nominated by the Loco-Focos of Indiana county, for Assembly; and A. W. Taylor, Esq., has been re-nominated by the People's Party, for the same office.
The Dr. will most likely be Taylored.
A cricket match was recently played in Kittanning, between ten of the Olympic club of Pittsburg, and twenty of the Kittanning club, which resulted in favor of the latter.
When will our Ebensburg club give a challenge to some of these parties?

Bitters says the word "lie" occurs three times in one page of the last Standard. He would therefore affectionately suggest, that, in future, the paper be called the Lie-hard.
Shrewd and pungent is Bitters!
The Standard advises the "Democracy" of Blair to "pray to God for success." It is hardly probable that the prayer will be answered. By the way, it is said that everybody on board prays, just before the shipwreck.
Unless a private party is intended, Bitters would like to have notice of the time and place that the "Democracy" of Blair will "pray for success." He avers his readiness to travel a considerable distance (if not more) just to hear Brother Traugh make the opening.
Healy, the artist, has just completed a full length portrait of President Buchanan.—Standard.
As the President is not more than half a man, Damphool thinks his portrait should be only half length.
George W. Storm painted the scenery for the German Dramatic Association of Johnstown. George is a native of our county, and is an artist of much promise. It gives us pleasure to note that our Johnstown friends appreciate his talents and skill.
Not hard to take.—Col. Jackson's m-shannoc potatoes.—Standard.
You should take a good many, then. Bitters suggests that, as you are very small potatoes, you might thus increase your magnificent proportions.
Mr. Durbin, our nominee for Senator spent several days in this place and county last week.—Standard.
Judging from the way you plaster him, he must have spent "something else." "How d'ye like the deduction?"
Dr. Chas. Mackay, who came to America a few years ago, received the hospitalities of our countrymen, and then went home to ridicule our institutions, has recently made an attack on Tennyson's "Idyls," whereupon Punch punches the Dr. in the ribs as follows: "The Idyls a rhymester asperes— O, public rejoice and be glad! If he were not abusing good verses, He'd be busily writing some bad."
Some of the Agricultural Societies have introduced a new class in the programmes of their exhibitions. It is to be regretted that the arrangements for our present Fair do not embrace it:
CLASS EXTRA.—There will be a pig on the ground with his tail shaved and greased, to be awarded to the person who raises it from the ground with one hand by the tail. Quite a large crowd will be considered Judges in this class.
N. B.—If the tail breaks or pulls out, why, then the contestant gets what he gets, and so does the pig.

EDENSBURG.

EDENSBURG, Sept. 30th, 1859.

To the EDITOR of the ALLEGHANIAN.—Presuming some account of Edensburgh and its Academy would not be without interest to your readers, and the time and circumstances being propitious, I herewith "propel" Know ye, then, Edensburgh is situated thirteen miles North-West of Blairsville, and sixteen South-West of Indiana, in Indiana county, Penn'a. In soil, it is not excelled in Western Penn'a., being limestone land, and per consequens, has for its inhabitants a number of wealthy and intelligent farmers. The prevailing inhabitants being of the name of Elder, hence its name. The people are remarkable for their hospitality and intelligence; the latter being in a great measure attributable to the labors of Rev. Alex. Donaldson, D. D., the worthy Principal and Proprietor of the Academy located there. On the twenty-eighth inst. the Alumni of the institution had a re-union, when a history of the institution was read by that venerable individual "known and read of among men" as "Pap" Caruthers. It was written in that graceful style so peculiarly "Pap's," and with that classic and plastic mastery of language that marks the gentleman and scholar. The Alumni were then addressed by the Rev. J. Y. McCartney of Mount Washington, Pa., and all who know him will agree with me, that in lofty intellectual tone, in severity of diction, touching pathos and splendid imagery it was worthy of a far older head; while all who heard him know that it was spoken with earnestness of feeling and true eloquence. His subject was "Model Manliness," and the dandyism and foppery of the present age, were given their proper level. On the 29th inst., the regular annual exhibition of the two very flourishing literary societies, connected with the institution, was held. The performances were generally very creditable, and evinced decided progress in oratory and literature. It is the design of the old members of the Academy to meet tri-ennially, and when they next meet I hope you may again hear from
