The Alleghanian.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT .--- We notice hat in several of our neighboring towns. hoxes have been opened at the Post office, for the purpose of giving to all who may desire it, an opportunity to contribute omething towards the erection of the Washington Monument. The idea is cer tainly a good one, and the object for which contributions are thus sought eminently oralseworthy. We are not aware that a imilar box has yet been opened at our Ebensburg Post Office. Would it not be well for our enterprising and gentlemanly Post Master to try the experiment? Hard is the times may be, we doubt not there are many of our citizens who will be ready and willing to contribute something owards erecting a monument to the man who was "first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

AUTUMN .- The season of the "sere nd yellow leaf" is upon us;

-The melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year."

The surrounding forest has doffed its ray green garb, and in its stead now wears the "coat of many colors." A few more short days, a few more nipping frosts, a few more chilly winds, and the trees will bare their branches to the blasts of winer. We cannot witness these remarkable changes in Nature without feeling the impress of a solemn truth. Every leaf that alls, every flower that fades, tells man that he must die. But-happy thought ! -when the leaf falls, we have hope that he tree shall bud again. And the fading ower !--- in its presence we feel that "when he body shall drop as a withered calyx, the soul shall go forth as a winged seed."

LARGE APPLE .--- Our friend, William itzinger, Esq., of Loretto, seems to be uite an adept in the business of raising e apples. He exhibited to us on Thursday last, a quarter section of a fall pippin grown in his garden, which was of most delicious flavor, and in size extraordinary. Mr. Litzinger informed us that the whole apple measured fourteen inches in circumference, and weighed a pound and three ounces; and that it was but a fair specimen many more grown upon the same tree. Unfortunately the sample shown us was the last piece of the last apple of the lot. and was somewhat decayed : a fact which causes us to regret sorely that we did not visit Loretto a few days sooner.

ACCIDENT .--- Our friend and fellow citizen, Joseph H. Campbell, Esq., whilst on a visit to Indiana last week, met with an accident which resulted in fracturing three of the bones in his right hand .----He was about leaving that place on Wednesday morning, it appears, to come home, when the horse which he was riding became restive, and began to rear and kick in a most wicked manner. In his efforts to curb his steed, Mr. C., by some means or other, brought his hand down with such violence upon the horn of the saddle, as to break three of the bones. The injured member was properly attended to by Drs. Stewart, of Indiana, and M'Farland, of Saltsburg. Mr Campbell is now at home, and hopes to regain the use of his hand in a few weeks.

EBENSBURG LYCEUM .- The question for discussion by the Ebensburg Lyceum, on next Friday night, is :

Resolved, That the principles of the Republican party, as promulgated by its platforms and advocated by its leaders, are inconsistent with the fundamental principles of our Government.

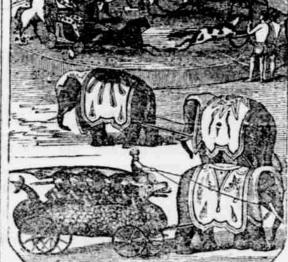

There will also be a lecture delivered by William Tibbott, Esq., on "Self Culture." Mr. Tibbott is eminently qualified for a lecturer, and we have no doubt his lecture upon this occasion will be fraught with useful and instructive matter for all.

EBENSBURG BAND .- We are pleased to chronicle the fact that Professor Smiththe renowned master of music-who has done perhaps as much as any man living to soften stony hearts-has arrived in town and purposes sojourning a few days in our midst. As the Ebensburg Band has been under his tutorage, and is engaged for the Fair, it is said that the Professor will as sume their leadership on that occasion .--We may safely look out therefore for a rare musical treat.

A GOOD IDEA .-- Our enterprising friends, Lewis Rodgers and Newton I. Roberts, have erected a goodly number of seats on the Fair-ground for the accommodation of spectators. The spot upon which they are placed is well selected, and commands a full view of everything going on in the ring. All who take their wives or children to the Fair should not fail to procure seats. The prices are liberal.

New Goops .--- John M'Colgan, of Wilmore, has returned from the city, and is now opening a large stock of Fall and Winter Goods. He has been so busy attending to the wants of his many customers, that he has not had time to prepare an advertisement for our paper this week, but he has promised to do so in time for our next issue. In the meantime, we would advise all in want of goods at very low rates to give him a call.

BAILEY & CO.'S

Gigantic Circus and Managerie, COMBINED WITH THE EXHIBITION OF

SANDS, NATHANS & CO.'S Performing Elephants, Antony and Cleopatra. THIS unique and mammoth establishment combines a greater number of attractions han were ever before offered to the public. The Performing Elephants, Antony and Cleopatra, are the same which, for months, creaed the greatest furore in London or Paris, while more recently their performances were the theme of universal admiration for months at the Broadway Theatre, New York. Their wonderful docility, and the perfection of their raining, make them the most interesting speimens of the animal creation that the world has ever seen. All their faculties have been developed to the greatest extent, and they stand for SUI GENERIS, the most remarkable of their kind. They stand upon their head, play upon Musical instruments, ascend Inclined Planes, and go through all the positions of the most accomplished acrobats.

In addition, Bailey's & Co. Circus and Maageric comprises a collection of WILD ANI-MALS, including Lions, Tigers, Bears, Leopards, Hyenas, Panthers, Ostriches, etc., beside a large and varied collection of the Monkey ribe, and a rare variety of the most beautiful Tropical Birds.

The troupe of Riders, Vaulters, Lady Equestriennes, etc., is the largest and most thoroughly artistic now traveling in the United States, and comprises the following distinguished names : Mdme. LOUISE BUBOIS, from the Cirque Parisian M. SANDS, the great Principal Rider.

E. W. PERRY, the best Four Horse Rider n the World. S. BURT, the Wonderful Protean Equestrian.

LA BELLA ISABELLA, the Sylph of the lircle. J. BOOKER, the great Buffo Singer.

G. SLOMAN & BEDEAU, the World-renownd Contortionists.

SILE WADE, the Comic Negro Delineator. THORNE & DONALDSON, the thoroughly accomplished Gymnasts; besides a crowd of Auxiliaries and Vaulters; LA JUNE BURT, the greatest rider in the World. J. CONRAD, the great scene rider.

NOTICE. T a meeting of the Officers and Managers of the Cambria County Agricultural Society, among other things, it was Resolved, That at the Fifth Annual Exhibition, (to be held at Ebensburg, on the 5th, 6th and 7th days of October, next,) a Premium of $25 be awarded to the owner of the fastest trotting horse or mare-to go in harness, best 3 in 5, mile heats.

G. SLOMAN, in his great Globe Act, upon horseback, will execute a variety of extraordinary Feats of Equilibrium. THE CLOWNS, WARD & BOOKER, are the very embodiment of Fun and Jocularity. Their jokes are numerous, fresh, spicy, and piquant, full of hits at the times and follies of the day, yet entirely free from anything which the most delicately constituted mind could take the slightest exception to. Bailey & Co.'s Exhibition, therefore, comprises Elegant Horsemanship, a splendid Managerie, Slack Rope Performance, new Singing, Comic and Classic Dancing, Wonderful Posturing, Grand Spectacular Effects, Character Equestrianism, and a more novel and interesting programme than was ever before offered to the public. Each entertainment will conclude with a Comic AFTEEPIECE, introducing all the comic talent in the company. THE AMERICAN BRASS BAND, composed of picked musicians accompanies the exhibition, and will precede the Grand Cavalcade on its entrance to each town, drawn by ELEPHANTS IN HANNESS, attached to the magnificent CHARLOT OF APOLLO.

The Pavillion is large and commodious, fitted up with due regard to the comfort and onvenience of the visitors, and the Proprieors pledge themselves that nothing shall be found wanting to make this the most elegant, cautiful and satisfactory exhibition that ever visited this place.

The Grand Entree into the town will take ace on THURSDAY, the 6th day of OC-OBER at 10 o'clock, A. M. Doors open at
