THANKSGIVING DAY.—The Gubernatorial Sabbath was well observed in this place. The shops, stores, and places of business generally were closed throughout the day, and in the forenoon, services were had at the various churches. The afternoon was mainly devoted to mirth and innocent amusements, the juvenile portion of the community paying visits to each other, and luxuriating highly upon good things provided by kind parents; whilst those of more advanced years "put in time" and enjoyed themselves in more ways than we could enumerate. The weather was delightful; the sun shone resplendently; and the air was "balmy as the breath of a maiden of sixteen summers. On the streets we noticed numerous pretty bonnets, and occasionally our naughty eyes lit upon a pair of very nice gaiters—"and all that sort of thing." Where these bonnets and gaiters came from, or wherethey went, was of course none of our business; but the smiling countenances of their owners told us they were enjoying Thanksgiving hugely. The young men about town—and their name is legion—seemed to have a high old time of it. Many of them were to be seen along with the bonnets and gaiters, whilst those who were members of the "Mountain Club," for a time indulged their sporting propensities in a spirited game of Cricket. Meantime many a prime Habanero and rare Tobias were reduced to ashes, and many a plate of the delicious bivalves, yecept oysters, was subjected to the process of digestion. Meantime, both old and young, without distinction of party or sect, seemed to make it a point to do ample justice to everything hailing from the culinary department. Some of the more fortunate are said to have dined sumptuously on such rarities as beef and pork, and other kindred dishes, whilst a few who were less favored, were glad even of the opportunity to sit down to a dry repast of chickens and turkeys. During the day, lager, tanglefoot, and all such choice beverages, seemed at a discount but as night drew her sable curtains, the stock in this line went up—or rather down—with amazing rapidity, and we might add with amazing effect upon some of those who invested in it. But—thanks to Dame Fortune—they who, like Buchanan's Administration, were very weak in the knees, were few and far between; and still more thankful are we that not one connected with this establishment was of the number.

Thus passed Thanksgiving Day in Ebensburg. That we enjoyed it we know; that all our citizens enjoyed it we believe. Now that the day is over, let us hope that in the coming year, our crops may be as abundant, our favors numerous, and our prosperity as great, as in the year past. Then indeed, may we have in next November, another season of rejoicing—another day upon which to return Thanks to the "Giver of every good and perfect gift."

IMPORTANT.—We have been requested by the President of the Ebensburg and Cresson Railroad Company, to publish the following for the information and benefit of stock subscribers who have neglected to pay their instalments. It is part of the 8th. section of the General Railroad Act, to the provisions of which the Company is subject, and which, it is almost needless to state, will be rigidly enforced against all delinquents:

If any stockholder shall neglect to pay such proportion or instalment so called for at the time and place appointed, he, she or they shall be liable to pay, in addition to the proportion or instalment so called for, at the rate of one per cent. per month for the delay of such payment; and if the same and the additional penalty, or any part thereof, shall remain unpaid for the period of six months, he, she or they shall, at the discretion of the directors, forfeit to the use of the company all right, title and interest in and to every and all share or shares, on account of which such default in payment may be made as aforesaid, or the directors may, at their option, cause suit to be brought before any competent tribunal, for the recovery of the amount due on such shares, together with the penalty of one per cent. per month as aforesaid; and in the event of a forfeiture, the share or shares so forfeited may be disposed of at the discretion of the president and directors, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the by laws. No stockholder shall be entitled to vote at any election, nor at any general or special meeting of the company, on whose share or shares any instalment or arrearages may be due more than thirty days next preceding said election or meeting; Provided, That no forfeiture of stock shall release or discharge the owner thereof from any liabilities or penalties incurred prior to the time of such forfeiture.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Blain, the major-domo of the Saloon down street, has added a Restaurant to his list of attractions and conveniences for the public, and is now prepared to accommodate the hungry portion of the community with such edibles as do most tickle the palate. Individuals attending Court will please recollect that he can be consulted during all hours at the Saloon, directly opposite the Post Office.

OUR THANKS.—"Mine host," of the Arcade, and his estimable lady, have the thanks of every member of our household for a delicious dish of Sauer Kraut sent us on Monday last. As to ourself, our readers well know that we have not hitherto expressed any particular liking for that article, and they will no doubt be agreeably surprised when they learn that this little incident has done much towards correcting our taste. To make a long story short, we think, with a little practice, we might soon make Kraut a part of our diet. We have already acquired quite an attachment for it, and after Foster serves us a few more tricks like the above, (as we doubt not he will,) we may learn to like it. We shouldn't wonder.

OUR FRIEND, R. Litzinger, Esq., Publisher of the Mountaineer, has our thanks for the loan of the type contained in the list of the members of Congress, published in this week's paper. We shall be happy to reciprocate the favor should occasion offer.

THE DOLLAR MONTHLY.—Under this head, the well known author, Emerson Bennett, has effected arrangements for the publication of a monthly magazine, the first number to make its appearance on January 1, 1860. Associated with Mr. Bennett in the enterprise is John L. Hamelin, A. M., a gentleman of marked ability as a writer. The leading story, to be commenced in the first issue, will be entitled "The Mountain Lily; or, Adventures in the Wilderness," from the pen of Mr. Bennett. It will be the aim of the editors to make it the best Periodical for the price ever published. Address your orders to Bennett & Hamelin, 144 South Third st., Philadelphia.

THE LITTLE PILGRIM.—The December number of this interesting little journal is on our table. We have examined it, and feel like saying that, for a family where there are children growing up, no better paper could be taken into a house. It is edited by the world-renowned Grace Greenwood—a name sufficient to bespeak for it a high place among the literature of the day. Those wishing to subscribe will send their orders to Leander K. Lippincott, 132 South Third st., Phila. Terms, 50 cents per annum. Specimen numbers sent free of charge.

IMPORTANT.—Although the "Great Eastern" is not coming to America this season, the public being therefore debarred the pleasure of examining its vast proportions, still we are glad to be able to lay before our readers the fact that the proprietor of the Ebensburg Shoe Store has made arrangements by which he will be enabled to sell at public sale, during the entire week of Court, his large stock of Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, &c., at prices which will astonish the natives. Remember, this will be no Peter Funk concern.

T. B. PETERSON & SONS.—This enterprising firm is still engaged in publishing in pamphlet form the works of Charles Dickens. Those whose libraries do not contain the series should embrace this opportunity of purchasing it, as the price has been reduced to the small consideration of Five Dollars. Persons wishing the books must address T. B. Peterson & Bros., 306 Chestnut st., Phila.

ALMOST A FIRE.—On Wednesday evening of last week, the pine-oil lamp used for lighting the store of Messrs. Davis & Jones, exploded, scattering the burning contents promiscuously around. The flames were soon subdued, however, by the efforts of those present, with no other damage resulting from the accident but the charring of the counter and a big scare to those who were in the store at the time.

LYCEUM.—The question for discussion by the Ebensburg Lyceum on next Friday evening, is: Resolved.—That no person should be excluded from testifying on account of being a Plaintiff or Defendant. A free Lecture will be delivered the same evening, in the Hall, by Wm. Tibbot, Esq. The public are invited to be present.

IN TOWN AGAIN.—Our ever-welcome friend, Dr. D. W. Lewis, formerly of this place, but latterly of East Liberty, was in town several days during the beginning of the present week. He was accompanied by Dr. A. J. Davis, of the same place.—They are both gentlemen and scholars, and we hope they will make it suit to visit us often.

MARRIED.—At this place, on Thursday last, by Rev. M. J. Mitchell, PETER J. MCKENZIE, of Chest Springs, to Miss SUSAN, daughter of William Douglass, of Carrol township.

MARRIED.—At Johnstown, on Wednesday, the 24th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Edwards, Mr. BENJAMIN LLOYD to Miss MARY JANE ROBERTS, both of Cambria township.
