MISSIONARY MEETING .- On Wednes-IV of last week, quite a large and apeciative audience assembled in the Pressterian church of this place, for the on the occasion of the departure of the Rev. R. J. Evans and his youthful bride, for their adopted home on the coast of the Peaceful Ocean." After the usual inroductory services, Mr. Evans delivered in a most impressive and eloquent manper, a sermon based upon the last two verses of the last chapter of St. Matthew: "Go ye therefore and teach all ations," &c. To give even an imperfect sketch of the masterly style in which he handled his subject, would lead us beyond our limits; for the present it is unnecesary that we should say more than that he speaker seemed to feel that his theme | John Thomson vs. Rev. John Burns. ras one that deserved the attention of all; shile this thought gave grace to his dicon and elegance to his delivery,-all howing how deeply his own soul had een made to feel that the work was of the Lord. Rev. Mr. Powell then made ome interesting remarks, in which he poke favorably of the great cause of Misad closed by bidding Mr. E. farewell in all which she neglects to retain." he name of all present, wishing him a are journey to his new home, and God's biessing on his labors while there. Rev. Ir. Evans replied by thanking the audiace for their kindness to him, and asked hat their prayers might follow him whither went, as without help from on High, is labor must be in vain. The audience semed much affected during the services. and in coming away, we could not but feel at "the Lord was in his holy temple." e may add that the exercises were frenently interspersed with pieces of sacred sic, under the direction of our friend

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE WASHINGTON ONUMENT .- All who have visited our ost Office recently, have seen the elet contribution box which has been eed there for the receipt of donations the completion of the Washington onument. If there are any who have t seen it, they should at once avail themves of this opportunity; and aid in the oble work of perpetuating the memory the Father of his Country by the comletion of this long-neglected monument. mongst the donations received, we learn hat the Sons of Temperance have genously contributed $5-an example which e hope to see copied by the other Socies in our town, according to their eans; and we trust all our citizens will st in their mite, and not have it said elch Independent.

CELLAR THIEVES ABOUT .- On last londay night, the cellar of H. C. Devine, sq, of this place, was entered by some ungry or evil disposed person or persons, ad the eatables therein, consisting of read, butter, meat, &c., carried off and espoiled. Is it possible that there are adividuals in this community so destitute even the necessaries of life as to be empelled to resort to this underground ethod of obtaining them?-or is it the asequence of an undue amount of tane perpetrators? That's the question.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- On Friay last, as a train going west, on the ansylvania Railroad, was passing a deep at of sixty or seventy feet, near Carpener's Station, Westmoreland county, a age mass of rock became detatched om the bank, crushing the engine to agments, and instantly killing the engieer, Nathan Berger. The conductor and me, escaped unbarmed.

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY.-We clip the following from one of our exchanges. It affords a nice chance for some of the young men of this place to "pitch in :"

A HUSBAND WANTED!

This being leap year, I hope your readers will pardon me for this bold intrusion. As it has become fashionable in the Eastern as well as the Western cities for young ladies as well as gentlemen, to make known their wants through the columns of a public journal; and as this is the year when ladies can make free to do so, I take this method of seeking by this means, a partner for life, believing it to be as fair and honorable as by any other stratagem I wish one that can share my sweets or my bitters, which ever our lot may be, with cheerfulness and a good will.

I will now give a brief description of myself, as follows: Height five feet; dark hair and eves; and as young gentlemen say, rather prepossessing in appearance. I am not what the world calls rich, but what I prize more highly than gold-a character without or the place, for the a stain. Can either play on the piano or washboard, and am willing to do either according to circumstances. All I ask, that he shall bear an unimpeachable record-one that will bear strict investigation. Riches no object, if otherwise agreeable. "Sincerity" is my motto. Address in confidence,

KATE DARSIE. Latrobe, Westmoreland Co., Pa.

> FATAL ACCIDENT .- We are pained to learn that a child aged about two years, daughter of M. J. Smith, of Gallitzen, was so severely scalded on Saturday of last week, as to result in her death. In playing about a table, she accidentally upset a bucket of boiling water upon her head, scalding her so severely as to result in almost instantaneous death. The bereaved parents have our sympathy.

GOLDEN MARRIAGE. - On Tuesday last, Mr. Anthony Synyder, of Carrolltown, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his wed-John Roberts, of the Presbyterian ded life, by being again, after the lapse of poir, and Mr. Hugh H. Hughes, of the a half a century, united to the sharer of his joys and sorrows. The occasion was one of happiness and pleasure to all present. May the newly-wedded couple live to celebrate another similar anniversary, is

> New Goods .- By reference to an adertisement in another column, it will be perceived that the enterprising firm of D. J. Evans & Son have received at their rooms another large and superior stock of goods, to which they invite the attention of purchasers. The tailoring business in all its branches is also extensively carried on. Give them a call.

ACCIDENT.-A rather singular acci dent occurred one day last week, to our friend, Mr. Robert Rowland, who lives about two miles south of this place. During the performance of some labor with his team, one of the horses slipped and hat Ebensburg was behind in so good a fell, crushing him to the ground, and severely injuring him. We are happy to learn that that he is rapidly recovering
