THE COUNTY PRINTING .- The present oard of Commissioners seem to have incurated a new system in the manageent and control of the finances of our ttle Mountain County. They manifest a etermination to pay off old scores; to put en end to compound interest; and in short, settle up generally and get the county at of debt. They have dispensed with he services of such officials as they deemuncalled for; they have reduced the ompensation of others to the lowest posble standard; and they have done many ther things too numerous to mention ;-I to curtail expenses ;-all to get the ounty out of debt. For all this, the Young vs Malze ommissioners deserve credit : for all this, ery taxpayer in the county ought to be aly thankful.

But a report is current in these parts, hat the Commissioners might have done little more than this, and still have done heir duty. An opportunity to lessen excases still further, recently presented itelf to them; but for some reason or othbest known to themselves perhaps, they id not embrace it. On the contrary, they ermitted that opportunity to slip quietly brough their fingers and effect its escape. The matter is simply this: The county rinting has hitherto been given to the Democrat & Sentinel office, at the rates harged by the publishers of that estabshment. The Commissioners, it seems, cently concluded it might be done cheapby letting it to the lowest bidder. They esolved upon that plan, therefore, and ave notice of the time and place for reeiving proposals. The several printing stablishments in the county put in their ids; and on Friday last, they were openand compared, and the contract awardd to the publishers of the Cambria Trime. Now, understanding that the bid om the Alleghanian office was the lowest id put in, we are really at a loss to know be principle upon which the Commissiona declared the letting. If they can exlain it, they ought to do so. If they ody think?

TURNED UP .- Adam Kemerer, the ssing constable of Millville Borough, as been heard from. Some two or three eeks ago he returned to the home of his rents in Westmoreland county, and imediately wrote to his wife, who resides Johnstown, to meet him there, stating at he was the victim of misplaced confience. His story is to the effect that, hile serving a warrant in Blair county, e met with several Englishmen, who inuced him to accompany them on a pleasre excursion to Canada. After their arival in that romantic region, they further revailed on him to take a hand at a game f cards. Not being an expert in the systeries of "euchre," "all fours" or "poer," in a very short time he succeeded in ransferring all the money he had with im, into the pockets of his whilome riends, leaving himself scarcely enough to bay his way home. Truly, a sad picture of the heartlessness of man!

our weeks, though he has called at his ost Office regularly and made inquiries or it. Now we repeat and reiterate the ssurance heretofore made in these columns, that, if there is any fault in the matter, it does not rest with us. We conider it indispensable to the success of our ournal that all who have subscribed for t shall receive it, and receive it regularly. We have done all in our power to promote his end, and will so continue. If, in the heantime, we can discover any Adminisration Official-and we think we canthe makes it a point to work against our ournal because of its politics, we shall hake it a point to point that Official out. and we shall do so in terms so plain that can fail to understand it.

LIST OF CAUSES .- We last week published the list of causes for the first week of March Court, 1860. We now present the entire list for the second week: Statler vs Hoffman : Fronheiser et al. vs Fend; Paul vs Riddle et al ; Hoffman vs Swires ; Newkirk et al. vs King et al ; White vs Piper; Boyles vs Byrne et al; Cohn & Co. vs Roberts; Piper for use vs White; Noel vs Fultz; Stewart vs Hawes et al: Sheehan vs West Branch Insurance Company Glass vs Shields et al; Howley vs M'Coy; Stineman vs Pennsylvania Railroad Co.; Fronheiser vs Oram; Krouse vs Murray; M'Gonigle vs Tiley; Forsyth vs Bartlebaugh; Meneles vs Given; M'Gonigle vs Tiley Williams vs Rheys Richardson et al. vs Hohman; Darby vs Houston; O'Neil vs Riddle; Nutter vs Linton ; Fronheiser vs Kooken; Paden vs Lycoming Insurance Company; White for use vs Conway; Wilmarth vs Kean & Palmer; Evans vs Jones: Flick vs Boslit; Zern vs Dicks

SALE OF COAL LANDS.-We are informed, upon what we consider good authority, that, on Monday last, Mr. Joseph Burkhardt, of Jackson township, sold about twenty-five acres off his farm, for the snug little sum of ten thousand dollars. The purchasers are said to be responsible gentlemen from New York; a part of the consideration money has been paid; the contract has been "signed, sealed and delivered;" and the whole affair may therefore be considered a bona fide transaction. The land purchased is rich in mineral substances, containing a vast deposit of superior cannel coal. We understand it is the intention of the purchasers, to proceed at once to the erection and construction of the buildings, machinery, &c., necessary for mining purposes, and for the manufacture of coal oil, on an extensive scale. A Rail Road from the mincs, to connect with the Ebensburg and Cresson Rail Road, is also in contemplation.

TREATMENT OF FROSTED FEET .- To cure the intolerable itching that follows frost-bitten toes, it is necessary to totally exclude the air from the affected part .-If it is not accompanied with swelling, gum shellae, dissolved in alchohol, applied so as to form a complete coat, is the easiest remedy that we know of. It dries m't explain it, what will we think? what soon and does not adhere to the stockings, ill the taxpayers think? what will every and generally lasts until the toes are well. If the flesh becomes swollen and painful, plasters of good sticking salves are of great service; but if highly inflamed, any mild poultice that will exclude the oxygen of the air from the diseased part, and keep it moist, allowing the recuperative powers of nature to do the rest. Burns and scalds may be treated succesfully in the same

> THE CAMPAIGN OPENED .-- The Republicans of the borough of Ebensburg met at the Court House, on Monday evening, last, and put in nomination the following excellent ticket:

> Justice of the Peace, D. H. Roberts, Esq. Constable, Wm. D. Davis; School Directors Thomas J. Davis, Morris J. Evans; Judge of Election, Isnac Evans; Inspector, John J. Evans; Burgess, Evan E. Evans; Town Council, Thomas M. Jones, Stephen Lloyd, Esq., G. Alexander Kinkead, Edward Shoemaker, Charles Owens; Assessor, T. P. Davis.

A NICE CHANCE. - Those of our readers who are engaged in the business of hotelkeeping, or who wish to engage in it, are requested to read the advertisement in another column, proposing a lease of the A MERE HINT .- Within the past week, Cambria House, at Wilmore. The stand complaints, verbal and written, have is universally admitted to be one of the eached us from about half a dozen of our best in the county; the buildings, and all country subscribers, to the effect that they | the appurtenances are ample and well arare not regularly in receipt of their pa- ranged, and every thing in good order .ers. One of our friends informs us that Call on Messrs. Lloyd & Hill, Hollidays. he has not received The Alleghanian for burg, or W. H. Gardner, Esq., Wilmore who will doubtless make terms satisfactory

> JUST RECEIVED .- We notice that our friend, A. A. Barker, Esq., has just received from the eastern cities a large and extensive assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, &c. The extensive patronage he receives is a flattering indication of the merit in which his mode of doing business is held by the public. His major-domo, Mr. D. J. Jones, is a gentleman with whom it is a pleasure to deal.

TO THE PUBLIC.-Attention is directed to the advertisement in another column of Isaac C. Singer, Esq., who, it will be perceived, is extensively engaged in the "patent right" business. Individuals in need obody—no, not even the most ignorant of any of the inventions for which he is the far-off State of California, whither he upon said fund.
