INFANTICIDE. - We learn from the Johnstown papers, that a young woman, named Ann Maria Riffle, a native of Somerset county, was recently arrested in that place, upon the charge of child-murder, suspicion being founded by the discovery of the remains of an infant in a carpet-bag belonging to her. She admitted that she was the mother of the child, but alleges that it was born dead. She charges one James M'Nulty as having been the author of her troubles, and both have been held in bail for their appearance at Court.

ENIGMAS .- We have received quite a number of enigmas for insertion in our paper, all of which will appear in their proper time.
