INFANTICIDE.—We learn from the Johnstown papers, that a young woman, named Ann Maria Riffe, a native of Somerset county, was recently arrested in that place, upon the charge of child-murder, suspicion being founded by the discovery of the remains of an infant in a carpet-bag belonging to her. She admitted that she was the mother of the child, but alleges that it was born dead. She charges one James M'Nulty as having been the author of her troubles, and both have been held in bail for their appearance at Court.

ENIGMAS.—We have received quite a number of enigmas for insertion in our paper, all of which will appear in their proper time. We would suggest to the authors the propriety of making their productions as concise as possible—short and to the point. Annexed is a Geographical Enigma, by Gow:

I am composed of 26 letters. My 14 6 3 16 17 2 15 8 17, is a village in England. My 19 15 14 20 9, is a town of Italy. My 8 17 14 10 16 19, is a rich town of Egypt. My 11 10 1 8 17 4 13, is a small river of Greece, in the Morea. My 18 5 8 17 7 1, is a city of Naples, and capital of an island. My 12 8 1 3 19, is a town of Hudsonian. My whole was a Greek poet, a native of Antioch, who wrote a verse History of the Cimbrian war. Answer next week. [Answer to last week's enigma—"The Alleghenian"—sent us by "Henlock," "G. A. K.," "Juniper," and others.]

DIED.—In this borough, on Monday afternoon, 26th inst., Mrs. MARGARET, consort of Richard Griffith, aged 86 years.
