EDITORIAL ETCHINGS.—Rev. S. E. Babcock, for several years pastor of the M. E. congregation at Johnstown, has removed to Pittsburgh—the late conference having assigned him the charge of the Wesley Chapel, at that place.—The Alleghenian of last week gives an account of how a strolling dancing master, named Dunham, "dressed" the good citizens of that place recently. Being a man of fine appearance and pleasing address, he succeeded in forming a class for instruction in his art, pocketed the proceeds arising therefrom, ran up several bills on the strength thereof, and concluded the performance by "leaving between two days." The Tribune suggests that he change his name from Dunham to Duntham.—We were favored with quite a storm of rain, accompanied with thunder and lightning, on Sunday morning last.—Some talk is already being had among the juveniles of this place, with regard to the propriety of having a big "May party" on the first of the coming month.—Our young friend, John E. Connell, formerly of Chest Springs, has opened a Saddlery and Harness shop on High street, one door east of Davis & Jones' store.—Several of our merchants are in the eastern cities, making their Spring purchases of goods.—Last Sabbath was Easter Sunday—the close of the Lenten season.—Read chapter VII of the History of Cambria County. It will supply a perusal.—The newly elected officers of the Highland Division of Sons of Temperance were duly installed on Saturday night last.—Hon. H. Kinkead, Justice of the Peace for the borough of Ebensburg, has removed his office to Center street, one door north of Colonnade Row.—The youngsters of this place have assumed a new schedule. "Hop-otch" has been given the go-by, and "marbles" is now the prevailing amusement. How curious it is to watch the rotation of the sports of the boys, extending as they do with so much regularity over the different seasons of the year!—If the chirpings of the robins and bluebirds, and the croaking of the frogs can be taken as signs of the times, we think we are safe in saying that summer is coming.—The Democrat & Sentinel, last week, said it had then received the May number of Godey's magazine. We always knew Godey to be up to time—and sometimes slightly ahead—but we are still inclined to think that the Dem. & Sent. was only joking; for we, regular readers of the "Book," have for some time been "weary waiting for the May," and it hasn't come yet.—Some time in the early part of the Spring, we suggested to our citizens the propriety of planting trees along the sidewalks of our streets; but, fearing that we were not then sufficiently explicit, we would here state, that no material odds will be allowed as to whether the tree you plant be a locust, maple or poplar. Persons anticipating large crops, will do well not to put out fruit trees—boys are boys, all the world over.—The editors of the Holidaysburg Standard and the Lewistown Gazette have entered upon their annual controversy regarding piscatorial matters and things. If you wish to catch trout, gentlemen,—trout as is trout,—and plenty of them,—in the name of the whole ichthyological fraternity of this place, we tender you an affectionate invitation to call around and drop a line in our mountain streams. Will this be suf-fish-ent?—The attention of the literary portion of our community is directed to the article on our outside, entitled "Public Libraries." A very good plan for raising a library at a small expense to each citizen, is therein set forth.—The attention of the members of the Cambria County Agricultural Society is directed to the advertisement of their Secretary, in another column.—The muddiness of our streets for some time past has been the cause of a great display of agility and ncles on the part of persons fond of running around.—The fruit crop of this county is said to look promising.—The Blacklick township, was entirely destroyed by fire recently.—Newton Jones, a convict in the penitentiary from this county, died in that institution lately.

IMPORTANT TO OVERSEERS AND SUPERVISORS.—A bill has passed both houses, and received the Executive signature, that interests, more or less, every township in the State. It requires overseers of the poor, and supervisors of roads each to give bail in double the amount of money which is likely to come into his hands during his term of office; and in case such security is not given within thirty days after his election, the office is declared vacant and the Court is to appoint a person in his place. These were the only county officers heretofore who have not been required to give bail.

There is scarcely a township in the Commonwealth that has not suffered at some time or other from a delinquent supervisor of roads, nor a county that has not on its books a defaulting overseer of the poor.—Improper men are elected, who are not required to give bail. They do not pay over the moneys in their hands, but for this there is no remedy. Now that such officers are required to give security for the funds entrusted to them, a better class of men will be elected, and a large amount of money saved.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—The April number of this widely-known and valuable monthly has been received. It is almost unnecessary for us here to say that it is full to overflowing with entertaining and instructive reading matter and choice poetry, and that its engravings and colored fashion plates are second to none in the country, for everybody knows that such could not but be the case; but it might be in order to merely remark, that, for the accommodation of those unfortunate ones who have heretofore failed to become subscribers, the Editor has consented to receive a few more additions to his already plethora list. So, to become a reader of a magazine having ten times the circulation of any similar priced monthly, send two dollars to Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—On Monday morning last, during the continuance of a thunder-storm, the Town Hall, on Julian street, was struck by lightning. The electric fluid hit the top of the chimney, which course it followed throughout the entire length of the building, upsetting and breaking stoves, clocks, and other articles, and tearing up the bricks during its passage in a frightful manner. It eventually terminated its career by running into the ground. The building, which is four stories high, is occupied by the Sons of Temperance, Masons, &c., and is owned by James Meyers, Esq. The damage done was not considerable.

HEENAN AND SAYERS.—The "great mill" which is to come off between the Champion of England and the American bruiser, Heenan, on the 16th inst., in England, is creating great excitement among the pugilistic population of both countries. The general impression at present seems to be, that one of the combatants will get pretty badly licked in the encounter. But be that as it may, it is a fixed fact that the place to buy your boots, shoes, hats, caps, trunks, notions and ready-made clothing, is at the cheap store of Clinton R. Jones, on High street, one door below Thompson's Mountain House.

LYCEUM.—On Friday night last, the quarterly election for officers for the Ebensburg Literary Association was held, with the following result:—President, Hugh Jones; Vice President, R. A. McCoy; Recording Secretary, Robert Singer; Corresponding Secretary, John Lloyd; Treasurer, Daniel O. Evans; Executive Committee, Hon. Richard Jones, James C. Noon; Librarian, G. W. Oatman; Editor of Flag, Dr. George R. Lewis; Editor of Banner, Edward I. Evans. This society is in a flourishing condition.

DIED.—At his residence, on Saturday, the 7th inst., Mr. JACOB KAYLOR, a much esteemed citizen of Allegheny township, aged about 70 years.

MARRIED.—On Thursday, the 5th inst., by the Rev. Llewellyn Powell, Mr. THOMAS DAVIS, of this place, to Miss ELIZABETH JONES, of Cambria township.

THE GAME OF BILLIARDS.—A reportorial cotemporary speaks practically of billiards. He says: It is a game consisting of two men in their shirt sleeves, punching balls about on a table, and presenting the keeper with twenty cents, or as is most commonly the case, telling him to "just mark it down." This last mentioned custom has given them the title of billiard markers. If you have a decided genius for the game, you will make a superior player at an expense of about $5,000. Blacksmiths, carpenters, &c., play it for exercise. It was invented by a shrewd saloon-keeper, who was not satisfied with the profits on whiskey, and was too much opposed to temperance to water it.

MARRIED.—On Thursday, the 5th inst., by the Rev. L. Powell, Mr. DAVID ABRAMS to Miss SARAH DAVIS.
