EDITORIAL ETCHINGS.—Through the kindness of our friend, John P. Jones, Esq., we have been favored with a copy of a newspaper entitled the "Cambria Gazette," published in this town, in the year 1825, by Messrs. Murray & McFarland.—It is quite a small paper—not being more than half the size of The Alleghanian—and its typographical execution is of the old-fashioned style. Its market report exhibits a marked difference from that of the present day—oats at that time selling for 12½ and 13 cents per bushel, with flattering indications of a speedy fall. It is certainly an old residenter.——The Johnstown "Ingleside Circle" an association lately formed for the purpose of regenerating the dilapidated condition into which the social interests of the young of both sexes of that place had fallen, has, after an existence of about three months, during which time an infinite amount of good was accomplished by it, been dissolved.——From the Presbyterian Banner, we learn that Rev. Richard Evans, formerly of this place, and lately a student of the Western Theological Seminary, who was sent to Washington Territory by the Board of Domestic Missions, had arrived safely at San Francisco, according to latest advice, and would leave by the next steamer for his future field of labor.——Last Saturday was a dreadfully mixed up sort of day.—The sun shone for a time, and then it rained, snowed, blowed, froze and thawed, in delightful succession, throughout the entire day.——Mr. Thomas Devine is still engaged in the Tailoring business, at his old stand, in the rear of his Drug store, and holds himself prepared to accommodate his friends and customers with the most approved fits at short notice.——The contributions of our citizens, during the present month, towards the completion of the Washington Monument, amount to the enormous sum of seven cents! Verily patriotism must be below par in the Mountain Village.——Mr. Lewis, the new Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has entered upon the discharge of the duties incumbent upon his office.——Andrew G. Curtin, the nominee for Governor, had a public reception and made a speech in Huntingdon, on Tuesday, of last week.——A serious drawback towards the successful performance of business or pleasure engagements could be very desirably overcome by the establishing of a livery stable in this place. Horses and buggies are scarcely to be had for either "love or money"—especially for the former.——Chapter VIII of the History of Cambria County gives a truthful account of the various acts of Assembly which gave to the Mountain County a local habitation and a name and defined her boundaries. Read it.——By reference to another column, our readers will perceive that a change has been made in the time of the arrival of trains at Wilmore station. We will hereafter receive our eastern mail at 11.30 A. M., and our western, at 11.00 P. M. The eastern mail departs at 6.00 A. M., and the western, at 4.30 P. M.——A couple of M. D.s, from Carrolltown, were lodged in jail on Saturday night last, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill.——Particular attention is directed to the new advertisement of our energetic friend, Cham Roberts, in another column. Cham has just returned from the eastern cities with an entirely new stock of clocks, watches, jewelry, musical instruments, etc., and the crowds that daily visit his establishment and carry off (after paying for them) specimens of his stock in trade, argue well for the ultimate prosperity of the enterprise.——Mrs. Doctor Forester, a lady of considerable professional reputation, is holding forth to the good people of Johnstown. We very seldom have occasion to chronicle the arrival of strange doctors in our midst, on professional visits, from the fact that, in consequence of the extreme purity of our air, water and whiskey, but little call would be had for their services.——Three individuals from Allegheny Furnace, who evidently "travel on their muscle," lately made a short stop at the hotel of John B. Myers, in Loretto; called for supper; called for bill; dissatisfaction; grand set-to; three to one; knock down proprietor; smash furniture; take several "smashes" all round; exit. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the rascals, but the constable was unable to execute it, in consequence of the belligerent propensities of the trio.——Godey for May—welcome as the sweet young flowers of early spring—has arrived. It would be only a reiteration of what we have already said, and what everybody already knows, to state that the "Book" is one of the best fashion magazines now published; that it contains more and better reading matter, choicer poetry, and more valuable recipes at present than it ever did before, needs only a perusal to convince the most skeptic. So, the best thing for a person to do under the circumstances, is—to subscribe. Single copies for sale at the Post Office.——George Huntley, at the "Ebensburg Tin Shop," has just received and is opening another extensive assortment of hardware, stoves, etc. George understands the art of pleasing, which is the true secret of success.——John E. Connell this week informs the public that he has opened out a Saddlery and Harness shop in ye ancient borough, and invites customers to roll in.——Very little, if anything, in the garden-making line has yet been attempted in this place.——In spite of rain and cold, the juveniles have already commenced trying their luck with rod and line, but with very little success in a piscatorial point of view.——E. Shoemaker, Esq., is having some very much needed stepping-stones laid across the street, opposite his store.

A GRAND TIME ANTICIPATED.—It is currently reported that very extensive arrangements are being made for the holding of a grand celebration on the coming 4th of July, in this place. A magnificent dinner is to be gotten up at the expense of some of our patriotic citizens, which will be served in true mountain style.—Some of the managers have also made arrangements with Clinton R. Jones, (one door below Thompson's Mountain House,) by which they will be enabled to appear on the occasion in entire new suits of his fashionable clothing, together with new boots and elegant hats. Several ladies have also left orders for nicely fitting shoes. Notwithstanding the rush on his establishment, he can still accommodate them, as well as other customers, "cheaper than the cheapest." He keeps constantly on hand a large assortment of Children's Shoes

RAIN! RAIN!—We think the "oldest inhabitant" has no recollection of more rain falling in the same length of time, than has fallen for the last ten days. The streams in this County, particularly those in the South, were higher than they have been known to be for a long time. The saw-mill of F. K. Herlinger, of Summerhill, was swept away, together with a considerable quantity of lumber. Other damage has no doubt been done to dams throughout the County.

NEW SCHEDULE.—On and after Monday, the 16th inst., the various trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad will depart from Wilmore station as follows:

West—	Expres Train,	leaves at	8.55 A. M.
"	Mail Train,	"	8.07 P. M.
East—	Express Train,	"	7.18 P. M.
"	Fast Line,	"	12.12 P. M.
"	Mail Train,	"	6.08 A. M.

The Express trains carry the mails, and according to the above arrangement, we will have our mails at separate times, instead of together, as heretofore.

NEW GOODS.—John McColgan of Wilmore, has recently returned from the east, with a very large and varied stock of Spring and Summer goods. As John always presents the same smiling countenance, and sells as low as the lowest, we doubt not his goods are going off rapidly.

ENIGMA.—I am composed of 13 letters.
My 1 13 6 2 3, is a country in Europe.
My 2 11 7, is what we all do.
My 3 5 6 7, is useful to housekeepers.
My 4 8 12, is a plaything.
My 5 4 6 13 3, is used in school.
My 6 13 3 7, is used by shoemakers.
My 7 8 10, is a weight.
My 8 13 7 3, is a kind of grain.
My 9 10, is a preposition.
My 10 2 1, is what composing enigmas is to the author
My 11 12 2, is a kind of animal.
My 12 2 1, is found in church.
My 13 10, is an adjective.
My whole is the residence of the author
[Answer next week.] FUN.

Answer to last week's enigma—"Make his enigmas shorter and more difficult."

REBUS.—I am composed of 3 letters.
Place my 3 between my 1 and 2, and you have a member of the body.
Place my 2 before my 1, and you have a person's name.
Transpose me, and you have a French measure.
Take me as I am, and you have a point of time. LU.

DIED—At his residence, in Munster, on Saturday, 14th inst., CHARLES FARREN, aged about 40 years.

ANOTHER INFANTICIDE CASE.—A young woman, named Owens, was brought to jail on Saturday last, from Johnstown, charged with the horrible crime of child-murder. We have not heard the particulars of the case, but report says they are of an aggravated nature. Crimes of this kind are becoming altogether too plenty throughout the country.

LECTURE.—Master George W. Plummer, the boy orator, of Tyrone, will deliver a lecture on the subject of "Temperance," at the Town Hall, this evening.—Go and hear him—everybody.
