pointed to one Matilda Colbert (not Owens) as the guilty parent. She was immediately arrested, and subsequently admitted that she was the mother of the child, but says that it was born under circumstances which prevented her from knowing whether it was living or not at the time of its birth. She is now in jail, to await her trial at the next term of our county court. -The cellar of Wm. Davis, Esq., in on Friday night, and a quantity of bread said to have been a complete success .-

the eastern end of town, was broken into butter, pies, and other eatables, extracted therefrom .- Miss Louise E. Vickroy, a former resident of Johnstown, and a poetess not altogether unknown to fame, recently delivered a lecture on "the Poets and Poetry of America," before a large audience in Richmond, Indiana. It is Potatoes are both plenty and cheap in our market this spring-orders being filled for any quantity at thirty-seven and a half cents per bushel .- The whole number of schools in Cambria county at present is 150 .- A bank is about being established in Clearfield, under the Free Banking Law. -The editor of the Standard, in provisionally accepting our ichthylogical invitation, wishes to be considered as being in for two chances-one at the trout, and tother at Bitters. With regard to the first chance, he may count himself perfectly safe; but should he attempt to serve our friend Bitters any scaly trick, he will mest likely only get himself into "a pretty kettle of fish." Apropos: several very respectable sized "strings" of the speckled beauties were admiringly displayed in our streets last week by some of tho. e stronglyconstitutioned disciples of Ike Walton, Esquire, who are not deterred from welldoing by high water or low, muddy roads or dry .--- The editor of the Clearfield Journal, commenting on the singularity of the fact of there being female Sons of Temperance in Ebensburg, expresses a desire to see a specimen of the lusus naturæ. As it is altogether probable that the permitting, quite a turn-out is anticipated in another column. on the occasion .--- A number of the young men of this place, who were for a short time away on an experimental rafting expedition down the river, returned last week, and report themselves highly pleased anticipated that five hundred visitors will spend the coming summer at Cresson, in this county. - The Cambria County Agricultural Society held its annual election for officers on Saturday last. For particulars see another column. -- Our merchants generally have returned from the tastern cities, whither they have been purchasing spring goods. A busy time is being had by the clerks in opening out and marking the documents --- The rains of Saturday and Sunday caused a material rise in the waters again, and several of our citizens left for "the river," with the market-a thing which many had failed to accomplish during the other freshet, because of the sudden subsiding of the water .- We see by the Tribune, that had about the same time. The more the merrier .- Our friend, Clinton R. Jones, has displayed his peculiar generosity by presenting us with an elaborate pair of scissors, in lieu of the pair that was lately spirited away from our sanctum by some person or means unknown. -- Tuesday was a very cold day for the time of the year, and minute flakes of snow drifted occasionally through the air, but not in sufficient quantities to make good sleighing .- Through the efforts of some of our influential citizens, a large number of shares in the stock of the Ebensburg & Cresson Railroad have been taken during the past few weeks, and its early comple-EDITORIAL ETCHINGS .- By the Johns- tion is confidently looked for .- Those of town papers, we have fuller particulars of our readers who have any dealings in Wilthe infanticide case we mentioned last more should call at the store of S. > TOMATOES .-- Here is a paragraph about tomatoes which looks as if it might be worth something. At all events, it would be no great matter to give the hint therein contained a fair shake:-About the middle of April take a few large turnips and cut out the hearts of them to form a sort of cup. Fill the cavities with earth and plant two or three tomato seeds in each. When the seeds have well sprouted, pull up all but the healthiest plant in each turnip, and let those that remain stand where they will have the benefit of the sun; the plant will grow very thriftily-the decaying turnip furnishing its food. When the weather becomes sufficiently warm, set the turnips in a well prepared soil, not less than three feet apart, make lath frames to keep the vines from the ground, and keep the soil well hilled up around them and you will have a crop that will astonish the natives. The advantage consists in getting the plants started early without setting them back by transplanting.

HE "COULDN'T STAND THAT."-A young gentleman of our acquaintance, who had been "paying his devours" (as Mrs. Partington would say) to a young lady for some time, suddenly left her. We asked him the reason, and he told us in the following words: "I had been with her, you know, for a good while, and noticed that she was rather cool in her remarks, and hinted she would rather go home alone than have me for company. I asked her the reason, and she said that it was because nearly all the young gents about town had rigged themselves up in fashionable suits of clothing, nice hats and beautiful fitting boots or shoes, from C. R. Jones' Cheap Store, and that unless I would go and do likewise I couldn't shine."

SHADE TREES .- We are much gratified to see that quite an interest is being taken in the matter of planting shade and ornamental trees. A large number have been mountain will not go to Row, would it not already set out along the streets, and it is be a good dodge for Row to come to the but fair to presume that the example will mountain, then? --- Chapter IX of the be speedily followed by the rest of our History of Cambria county is a continuation citizens. Persons wishing to purchase of the various acts of Assembly which either fruit, shade or ornamental trees, will gave the Mountain County a name among save money by sending their orders to men .- The preparations for the juvenile | Taylor & Cremer, at the Huntingdon Nur-May-party go bravely on. PERSONAL .- We are indebted to R. J. Hughes, Esq., for a copy of the thirteenth annual report of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company .with the trip. We are informed by one Mr. Hughes now discharges with great who ought to know, that it is confidently acceptance the duties of a responsible office in the Auditor's Department. His qualifications peculiarly adapt him to the position, and as a Cambria county man we congratulate him upon his preferment. He has our thanks, and our best wishes.

> THE LECTURE.-Master George W. Plummer, the boy orator, delivered a lecture on the subject of "Temperance," in the Town Hall, on Thursday evening last. He handled his subject quite ably, and was listened to with marked attention by a large number of our citizens.

Our Town .- A friend of ours, who is some on statistics, says he has reduced it to a dead certainty that the total population of the borough of Ebensburg, as will be shown by the next census returns, will not fall short of 1500. When it is considered that in 1850, when the last census was taken, the population was only about 900, it will be seen that this is a very considerable gain. Add to this the fact that we have a healthier climate and more productive soil, purer water and more invigorating breezes, bigger men and prettier girls, faster horses and better drives, more strawberries and blackberries and fewer snakes, more newspapers and better paying subscribers thereto, than any town in the State, and where's the person or paper that will say that Ebensburg is a one-

HEARD FROM .- Rev. T. L. Keesey, the celebrated United Brethren Minister who absquatulated from Greensburg with Miss Minnie Lusk alias Sarver in last November, has been heard from. A letter from a gentleman in Canada to Mrs. K. states that the reverend gentleman was teaching school at Toronto. It is said that shortly after leaving his home he became disgusted with his companion, and abandoned her, and that he has been much distressed in mind in consequence of the disgraceful part he had acted. Verily, the way of the superseding all others. transgressor is hard.
