

Miscellaneous.

A VERY BASHFUL INDIVIDUAL.—Day before yesterday, says a late Cincinnati paper, a trio of newly wedded couplets from the interior of Kentucky arrived at the Burnet House, and took apartments for the night in that well ordered hotel.

"Couldn't you make me a bed in the parlor?" said the disconsolate-looking individual. "In the parlor," echoed the clerk. "I am afraid not."

"POWERFUL" MEAN.—The steamer Sultana, commanded by Captain S., exploded several years ago with terrible effect, and burned to the water's edge.

INGENUOUS LOGIC.—It happened in a school room one day, while a class of very small boys and girls were reciting a lesson in arithmetic.

An old preacher once took for his text—"Adam, where art thou?" and divided his subject into three parts: "First, all men are born somewhere; second, some men are where they ought not to be; and third, unless they take care, they would find themselves where they would rather not be."

Dr. Johnson once said, "A man is in general better pleased when he has a good dinner upon his table than when his wife talks Greek."

"Arrah, Barney, if that jibbet had its dues, where the mischief would you be?" "Dad Pat, I'd be walkin' to Dub alone by myself."

Why is a schoolmistress like a first class soprano singer? Because she is a primer donna!

In 1850, the population of Iowa was 190,000. It is now 650,000.

In 1850, the American coal trade reached 50,000,000 tons.

A good key is necessary to enter Paradise.
