CELEBRATION .- We are happy to be enabled to state that the anniversary of our great natal day-the "Fourth"-will not be permitted to pass altogether unobserved in ye ancient village; but on the contrary, that it will be observed in a meet and becoming manuer. As has for some time been customary, the several Sabbath schools will be consolidated into one body, and parade through town ; after which, if the weather permits, they will march to the Fair-ground, where they will be regaled with speeches, &c. In the afternoon, a grand parade of the Sons and Daughters of Temperance-of whom we have indeed a goodly number-will take place. This body has also made arrangements to have a number of eloquent speakers on hand. There will, doubtless, be other public and private displays of and we hope our citizens will make it convenient to enjoy themselves as much ATTENTION SCRIVENERS!-We publish below a copy of an "article" handed us last week by a friend. We vouch for the authenticity of the original. It may be useful to the legal profession, squires, and sich like, as the form is not to be found ither in Dunlap or Graydon :

To a Friend. ON BECEIPT OF A GIFT.

[The following lines, written several years ago, and originally intended only for the person to whom they were addressed, have been furnished us for publication in The Alleghanian. They possess peculiar merit.]

Yesterday, quite unexpected, Was handed me (which I accepted) A something rolled in paper stained :-Anxious to know what it contained, I opened it to take a look At the fair roll without a crook-Out peeped a cushion, bright and new, Of snow white silk, bedecked with blue. A thousand thanks and more to thee,

For such a handsome gift to me; I long will recollect the time When I received this gift of thine, I'll put it by ; for it might soil, If it should lay around the while. Some future time to you I'll make A present, too, for friendship's sake.

If fate should place us far apart, I'll still remember from my heart The giver and the gift so kind-I'll ever keep both in my mind. Yes, in my mind, you may depend, Till earthly things with us shall end ; Then in a bright, a happy sphere, Oh, may we meet as friends so dear!

No presents in that place we'll need, For, in that Book we love to read, We learn that in that happy place, We'll meet each other, face to face ;-No presents then, but mutual love, If we but gain that place above : A boon Christ Jesus will bestow On all who serve him here below. EBENSBURG, January 16, 1890.

NARROW ESCAPE .- A most providential escape from death by drowning was made a couple of weeks ago in Johnsstown, by three little girls, two of them daughters of Smith, of the Echo, and the other a niece of Peter Masterson. In attempting to walk a footway across the Conemaugh, they became dizzy and fell into the stream, and would have almost inevitably perished, had not two noble young men, named John Meloy and Nicholas Priestley, plunged into the stream and rescued them from a watery grave. All honor to the gallant fellows who periled their lives in behalf of others !

A N APERIENT and stomachic prepa-ration of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innovious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz: In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhawa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Screpulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Miemenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, elc.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute diseases, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, on trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bodridden as to have become forgotten in their carried on in all its branches. All work will own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant hand. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus; sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name. In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinute cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms

FISHING PARTY .-- A very pleasant fishing party, composed of numerous lads and lassies of this place, came off the other day, at Williams' dam, a short distance below town. The participants succeeded in enjoying themselves admirably, and returned in the evening well pleased with this new mode of passing an agreeable afternoon. The spoils after the manner of fish was reported to be thirteen dozen-six dozen that were caught, and seven that CAMBRIA COUNTY .- With last week's chapter was concluded the republication from another journal of the series of interesting papers entitled "Cambria County." This week the author gives a brief resume, and will proceed to take up the thread of his subject from where it was so suddenly broken off, and carry it uninterruptedly through. Mr. Oldbuck is abundantly able for the task, and our readers may anticipate some interesting matter.

LEGAL .- Attention is directed to the professional card in another column of our friend, Robert A. M'Coy, Esq. He is a young man of fine attainments, and, we doubt not, will attain a high position in the ranks of the fraternity. Without bearing any ill-will to the public, we wish Bob plenty of clients- no one is more deserving of them.

> EXECUTION OF PRITTS .- Henry Pritts, who was convicted at the February Quarter Sessions of Somerset county, for the murder of Eli Weimer, was legally choked to death at Somerset, on Friday, the 22d inst. A short time previous to his execution, he made a confession, in which he acknowledged to the killing of the unfortunate Weimer.

a single box of these Chalvbeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness. In unchecked Diarrhaa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough and remittent hectic which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis this medicated fron has had far more than the good effect of the most cantiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflamatory-in the latter, however, more decidedlyit has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness. No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole bistory of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise immediately follow its use.
