COOL IMPUDENCE .- A scene occurred at a Western depot not long since, which for cool impudence has seldom been paralleled. The particulars are given by a bystander:

I was standing at the depot on the arrival of the St. Louis packet, when a gentleman came up and addressed a man standing close by me, evidently a stranger to him, with the common Western question-

"Do you use tobacco?"

"Yes, sir," he graciously replied, and producing a plug of the largest dimensions, he handed it to the applicant, who, taking out his knife, cut off about onefifth, with the common observation-"There's tobacco enough for any man, ain't there ?"

"Well, I should think there was." "Very well-take it, then!" he coolly replied, and handing the small piece to him, he put the plug in his pocket and walked away.

ser In one of the courts at Hartford, Conn., recently a woman was testifying in behalf of her son, and swore that he "worked on a farm ever since he was born." The lawyer who cross examined her, said. "You assert that your son has worked on a farm ever since he was born?" "I do." "What did he do the first year?" "He valked," she replied. The whole court laughed heartily, and the witness was questioned no further.

It is little troubles that wear the heart out. It is easier to throw a bombshell a mile than a feather-even with artillery. Forty little debts of a dollar each, will cause you more trouble and dunning than one big one of a thousand.

Liberty will not descend to a people; a people must raise themselves to liberty; it is a blessing that must be earned, before it can be enjoyed.

The last new wrinkle is "cable punch," at which intemperate youths take a "long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether.'

Honesty is always the best policy.
