A ZOUAVE MILITARY COMPANY .- We see it stated that a Zonave Military Company has been organized in Johnstown, with forty-one members already on the roll-forty-five being the full complement.

We presume that most of our readers are aware that a terrible enthusiasm has lately been engendered throughout the land by a warlike body called the Chicago Zouaves, whose skilful drilling and manœnvering under an entirely new system of military tactics drew down encomiums of merited praise on their devoted heads wherever they appeared, and struck cold chills of consternation and amazement into the hearts of ye soldier men of ye ancient regime. Some of the distinguishing features about these Zouaves are: the celerity and entire harmony with which they move through the intricate evolutions of the drill; the rapidity with which they Exhibition. load; and the accuracy with which they shoot. Under pressing necessity, they can also load and fire while lying flat on their backs, or on their sides, or standing on their heads. They can moreover dodge bullets without half an effort. In addition to all this, they are total abstinence men, and never indulge in games of chance, or in any other of the debilitating amusements so peculiar to this degenerate

Well, the Johnstown Zouaves are to be subject to the military discipline of the Chicago Zouaves. They are to meet privately four nights per week to drill. But a public appearance need not be expected until Christmas. In the meantime, those who take an interest in such matters can console themselves with the reflection that the J. Z.s are developing the fact that the fires of military ambition burn as brightly away up here on the tip-top of the Alleghenies as in any place else. The case, as it now stands, is: Cambria County vs.

Vive la Zouave !- (pronounced Zwave.)

A CHANGE .- J. C. Noon, Esq., last week vacated the editorial tripod of the Mountaineer to John Lloyd, Esq. We are indeed sorry to lose Dos from the corps editorial, but we feel satisfied that in this thenticated, for settlement, respect what is our loss will be his gain. We wish him success in whatever he engages. Mr. Lloyd, among his other qualifications for the post, is a good practical printer; and we have no doubt that the repution of the paper will be ably sustained in his hands. Success to us all.

Court.-Our county Courts commence on next Monday, the 3d proximo. There will doubtless be a big crowd in town.

THE HARVEST in this county is ended, and never before have the crops yielded so abundantly. Flour is bound to fall.

Only a few days before her death, little Mattie had gone in perfect health to make a short visit to some friends in Johnstown. While there, she was grappled by the Fell Destroyer before whom we have all to bow, and away from home the light of her little life went out. Her remains were bro't back on Thursday, and on Friday were followed to the silent tomb by a sorrowing concourse of relatives and friends.
