

LOCALITIES.—At the quarterly election of the Ebensburg Division of Sons of Temperance, held on Saturday night, 6th inst., the following officers were chosen: W. P. Lewis Rodgers; W. A. H. C. Devine; R. S. Alexander Jones; A. R. S. John E. Connell; F. S. D. I. Evans; T. Andrew Lewis; C. Roland Humphreys; A. C. Edward J. Humphreys; I. S. John R. Smith; O. S. Richard R. Tibbitt; Chaplain, A. A. Barker; Ed. Flag, Benj. F. Williams.—A company of "Wide Awakes" has been organized in this place, with John H. Evans as Captain, and N. I. Roberts as Lieutenant.—The members are provided with uniforms, consisting of oilcloth capes and caps, and lanterns. They have made several public appearances, and are about as intelligent and good-looking a set of fellows as we often see. Hurrah for the W. A.'s.

The four Mahoning townships, in Indiana county, are model Republican districts. At the late election, they footed up the nice little majority of almost 500 for Curtin and the Republican county ticket. And this is nothing out of the way for them, for year after year they do the same thing. One peculiarity about these townships is, that they contain the most intelligent and thrifty population that could be found. Nuf ced.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement elsewhere of the Elder's Ridge Academy. This institution enjoys a flattering reputation, and we speak by the book when we say that students cannot enjoy better educational advantage in the State than at the Ridge.—The late fair at Indiana was a decided success. The number of articles on exhibition was very large, and the crowd in attendance never before surpassed.—Godsy for November has already been received. It is as usual sparkling, instructive and entertaining—the men's delight and the ladies' pet. The "Book" is decidedly the Mould of Fashion.—An argument Court was held in this place last week.—Tom Buckley, the pedestrian, has been caught napping. He engaged to perform his great feat of walking for one hundred consecutive hours at Indiana during the late fair, but it was ascertained that he slept several hours every night, after visitors had vacated the premises—and indeed it is even stated that he spent an entire night at his hotel, beginning his walk early in the morning. His receipts not coming up to his expectations, he concluded the performance by walking entirely off—forgetting in his haste to pay several small bills he had contracted. Thomas is evidently a most egregious humbug.—In another column will be found several appointments of our County Superintendent for the examination of teachers. Expectants will make a note.—Mr. C. T. Roberts has just returned from the east with a large assortment of watches, clocks, jewelry, musical instruments, notions, etc., which he is prepared to sell at very low rates.—Any person in need of articles in his line should call around, for Chan is justly regarded as being a nice young man to deal with.—We hereby take occasion to publicly return our thanks to Mr. Daniel P. Davis, of Cambria township, for the present of a large basket of apples—the same being the identical fruit which took a first premium at our late county fair. Mr. D., besides being an excellent fruit-grower, is a very liberal man.—A Welsh miner, in the employ of the Johnstown Iron Co., named Robert Williams, was so injured a few days since by the falling upon him of a mass of slate from the roof of the mine in which he was working, that he died in a few hours.—Lady Franklin, the self-sacrificing wife of the unfortunate Arctic explorer, Sir John Franklin, in company with her niece, recently spent a night in Johnstown. She was on her way east, and tarried there over night so as to be enabled to obtain a view of our picturesque mountain scenery—that scenery which so captivated the Prince of Wales and suite—by daylight.—The Echo is to appear in a couple of weeks in an entire new suit.—The place to purchase boots and shoes, hats and caps, ready-made clothing, &c., is at C. R. Jones'. He is prepared to sell the above articles at prices that will astonish the natives.—Mr. George Huntley has just received at the Ebensburg Tinware Depot a large assortment of patent apple-pears, sausage-stuffers, and numerous other reasonable necessities, which he is prepared to deal out on very reasonable terms. Those in need of anything in his line should give him a call.

THE FAIR.—The sixth annual exhibition of the Cambria County Agricultural Society, which was held on the 3d, 4th and 5th inst., was quite a success. The weather was propitious, and the number of articles on exhibition was quite large. The crowd of people in attendance, however, was small.

The exhibition in the stock department was magnificent—indeed it is seldom that one sees better horses, cattle, &c., than were there collected. The array of fruit, vegetables, &c., could not be surpassed. It was in the ladies' department, however, that the finest display was made. This room was crowded with specimens of plain and fancy needlework, embroidery, paintings, bouquets, and other elegant articles, while preserves and jellies of all kinds, bread and butter, and a hundred other of the solids and delicacies of life filled up the interstices. There were numerous articles in this department that did not obtain premiums which were well deserving thereof.

Friday was the principal day. A larger crowd visited the grounds on that day than on the other two combined. At 10 o'clock, A. M., a grand foot-race for two purses of $5 and $2.50, was run. A large number of competitors entered the ring, but the prizes were carried off by John O. Evans and M. Downey. The ladies' equestrian match came off at 3 o'clock, P. M. Six ladies competed for the honors, namely, Mrs. Geo. Barrett, Mrs. Dr. Lowman, Mrs. I. Crawford, Miss Neff, Miss Gurley and Miss Magehan. The first premium was awarded to Miss Neff and the second to Miss Magehan. At 2 A. M., another foot-race came off. The lucky individuals this time were Hugh Jones, first premium of $4; C. T. Lawson, second premium of $2; and Patrick Doran, third premium of $1. At 4 P. M., the Fantastics held their parade. This was a company of grotesquely arrayed characters, who entered the ring and went through sundry side-splitting performances. After this, the people dispersed and the Fair was over.

Owing to circumstances, John Scott, Esq., of Huntingdon, was unable to be present and deliver the Annual Address.—On our outside we publish the list of premiums.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—On Sunday before last, a man calling himself Schriver was arrested on suspicion of being engaged in horse thieving, and lodged in our county jail. The circumstances which led to his arrest are as follows: He was traveling westward, and when a few miles east of this place he fell in with two boys who were going the same direction. Being of a communicative turn of mind, he made confidantes of them, and, among other things, he told them that he had assisted in running a horse from Indiana county down the country. After they had proceeded a few miles west of town, Schriver on some pretext gave the boys the go-by, and took to the woods. The boys continued on their way, and meeting with Mr. Thomas R. Davis, of Jackson tp., they gave him a detailed account of Schriver's antecedents and also a full description of him. Mr. D. determined to keep a look-out for the chap, and towards evening he came along, when he was unceremoniously stopped and brought to town and committed to jail. He subsequently gave such information as resulted in the finding of the horse in Clearfield county. The horse belonged to Thomas Sloan, of Indiana county. Schriver was taken to the Indiana jail on Friday.

We may here state, by the way, that this Schriver is the identical personage who has traveled so extensively over the country for some time past, and entered into contracts for the purchase of innumerable farms—contracts which he has not and never intended fulfilling. From all accounts he may safely be set down as an unmitigated villain.

LITERARY.—The question selected for discussion at the "Ebensburg Literary Association," on next Friday evening is: Resolved, That there should be an Agricultural paper established in this county.

On the affirmative, Morris E. Evans and Edward L. Evans; and on the negative, Dr. Geo. R. Lewis and Geo. W. Oatman. The following officers were elected for the next quarter on Friday evening last: Pres't, David H. Roberts; Vice President, Maurice J. Evans; Recording Secretary, Geo. Oatman; Corresponding Secretary, John M. Jones; Treasurer, Daniel O. Evans; Librarian, R. Singer; Executive Committee, R. A. McCoy, John Lloyd, David H. Roberts; Editor of Banner, David Roberts; Editor of the Flag, John M. Jones.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.—This somewhat celebrated gentleman, it will be remembered, after a short stay at Pittsburg, proceeded to Harrisburg via the Pennsylvania Railroad. In doing so, he unavoidably passed through a portion of Cambria county. A reporter of the New York Tribune, who accompanied the Prince, thus speaks of that portion of the trip which will most interest our readers: "The passage to Harrisburg was through the most remarkable country yet traversed. At Gallitzin, upon the summit of the Allegheny Mountains, the Prince and his suite—including Colonel Grey, Major Treasdale, Sir Henry Howard, and others—left the car and mounted the locomotive, upon which they rode as far as Albion, gaining the finest view of the remarkable railway descent around Kittanning Point, and of the wonderful scenery hereabout revealed. At Altoona the Prince resumed his car, leaving it only at Harrisburg."

There, denizen of the mountain! Since you have ascertained that a Prince has even suffered himself to feel an interest in your matchless scenery, won't you have a more exalted opinion of your Mountain Home? We will—very much so.

WONDERFUL CANINE INSTINCT.—We clip the following from the last Mountain-Courier.—On last Wednesday morning, Peter Mallick left the house of Wm. Ellis in Blacklick township, to gather chestnuts, accompanied by a small dog. In the evening the dog returned and appeared to act strangely—refused food, and would run out of the house and look up the road. Mr. Ellis and John Lake followed the dog about three quarters of a mile, and found Mallick under a large chestnut tree, terribly mutilated. It is supposed that he had climbed the tree and fell about sixty feet.

MARRIED.—At Carrolltown, on Thursday, 11th inst., by the Rev. Father Otto, Mr. WISCONSIN LOYD, of Ebensburg, to Miss MARGIE WREALAND, of Carroll township.

With the above announcement came a large and delicious cake, for which the happy couple have our thanks. That they may have fair winds, pleasant weather and a prosperous voyage o'er the sea matrimonial is our wish.

STABBING AFFAIR.—A serious stabbing affair occurred at Johnstown on the evening of Saturday before last. Two young men named Cassidy and Keelin, became involved in a fracas, and passion gaining the mastery of reason, the former drew a knife and stabbed the latter several times. Keelin was so badly injured that he died. Cassidy has been arrested.

FIRE!—The stable of Wm. Mills, Sr., in the extreme western end of town, was burned to the ground on Thursday night, the 4th inst. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

CARD.—Widener's Beider. Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—A small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. B. in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with 7500 lbs. papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL HANCK. A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.
