

ATTENTION, WIDE-AWAKES!!! The members of the "Ebensburg Wide-Awake Club" are requested to meet, in full uniform, at the Town Hall, on Monday Evening next, (Nov. 5th.), where a grand Torch-light Procession will be formed, to parade through the principal streets.

LOCALITIES.—To-night (Wednesday) is Halloween. From time immemorial this has been the occasion when all manner of quaint and fantastic tricks are played off—when an old grudge is wiped out or a joke paid off, with interest. The next morning, merchants generally find their store-boxes piled up in a conglomeration heap; professional men see their cards starting at them from over the doors of stables and other out-of-the-way places; and farmers occasionally discover their cows in the mow or their wagons on the roof of the barn. The sport is now and then varied by building fences across the roads and streets, and by pulling down out-buildings. Particularly is this a hard old time on cabbages. Every youngster feels as if it devolves on him to "hook" and destroy every cabbage-head he can come across. Halloween is the anniversary of the good old Scotch time when the elves and fairies and witches were supposed to stalk forth on the earth and hold a grand pow-wow. And the gay lads and lassies then met together.

To burn their nuts, and pou their stocks. And hand their Halloween. Halloween then was a time for mirth and glee; now it is a time when wild young gentlemen can ventilate their superabundant deviltry with impunity. Staid old folks vote it a nuisance; but as the boys have their own opinions on the subject, we presume that those who don't like the custom will have to follow the example of the Hibernian and leave it.—Andrew Roloff, formerly conductor on the Penna. Railroad, and the conductor who had charge of the train which ran into a crowd of people at Huntingdon a few weeks since, thereby killing two men and injuring another, and Wm. Armstrong, the engineer, have been arrested and held in jail for their appearance at the Huntingdon county Court, to answer a charge on the above grounds.—The importance of bringing every man to the polls on election-day is demonstrated by the fact that a Democratic County Commissioner was elected in Fulton county on the second Tuesday of last month by a majority of 1.—Rev. I. C. Pershing, of Pittsburg, preached two sermons in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place on Sabbath last.—What's become of the Tyrone Star? Its mild and steady beams have failed to illumine our sanctum for several weeks past. Send it along, friend Jolie.—The potato crop in this neck of woods is a failure this fall. We think that not enough of the esculent will be realized to winter our inhabitants, leaving the seed for next spring out of the question. And what's of them might be truthfully called very "small potatoes."

LAUDABLE ENTERPRISE.—We are credibly informed that it is in contemplation to erect in this place this winter a large steam planing-mill, for the working up of our inexhaustible supplies of lumber into boards ready for the market. Mr. Benjamin F. Williams, a young man of much energy and in every way competent for the undertaking, is the prime mover in the enterprise. The engine and planing machine have already been purchased, and Mr. W. is now engaged in negotiating for the purchase of the ground upon which to erect the building. When successful in this, he will immediately take the initiatory steps in the matter and "break the ground." He hopes to be able to have it completed and in full tide of successful operation by next spring. Success to our energetic young friend and his enterprise!

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday morning, the 23rd inst., a wood-chopper, named John McIntosh, residing near Portage station, was walking upon the railroad immediately above White's saw mill, when a freight train overtook him. He stepped on the other track to avoid it, and was run over by the Express train going west.—The unfortunate man was instantly killed and his body horribly mangled. The train, which was under the charge of R. B. Hays, stopped and took up the remains and carried them to Portage Station. A subscription headed by Conductor Hays with five dollars was immediately started among the passengers, and fifty-one dollars were collected for the benefit of the family of the deceased. He leaves a wife and six children.

ARRESTED.—We see by Monday's Dispatch that a man named Robert Hesson was arrested in Pittsburg on Sunday last, charged with being concerned in the robbery of Mrs. Fromal's store, in Johnstown, a short time since. We also hear a vague rumor that three or four other parties have been arrested in Johnstown, charged with complicity in the same crime.

INTERESTING QUESTION.—Ought Married People to Sleep Together?—We always thought so; but Hall's Journal of Health—which is considered as pretty high authority in medical matters—thinks otherwise. Mr. Hall says that such a proceeding is physically and mentally injurious, deleterious, pernicious, bad—very unhealthy. Moreover, he says that kings and queens do not sleep together—why should other folks? Kings and queens be d—dizzled! We're all sovereigns in this country. Suppose, friend Hall, that John Smith prefers running a pole through a window and roosting thereon; and I necessarily do likewise because John Smith is a fool? Not often. We won't enter into a physiological romandante on the subject; but Dr. Hall, just think of separating a loving couple on the first night of their marriage, when the thermometer is about 96°, and other things in proportion! It makes us shiver to think of it. Hall, you're a malicious disturber of felicity matrimonial. Besides, H.'s J. of H. is not explicit enough: It says that married folks should not sleep together, leaving those who are not naturally gifted to assume that unmarried ones should. But to wander back to the text, what does the following stave, supposed to have been written by somebody sometime, seem to infer?

"Cold weather is coming! a delicate hint. When taken in Nature's legitimate sense: Those who intend to get married this Winter, Had better at once jump over the fence." —Two in a bed and spoon-fashion? Certainly. You needn't expect many converts to your theory, Mr. Hall. However, in order to give the question a fair shake, we would respectfully suggest that the Ebensburg Literary Association take it in hand and decide on its merits. It would gratify us amazingly to see Mr. Hall run to the wall. That's all.

TOBACCO.—We have received and will publish on our outside next week a well written paper, from the pen of a young man in this place, on the use and abuse of Tobacco. The author takes occasion as he goes along to administer some kicks to him who has become addicted to the habit of rolling a quid of Baltimore Twist under his tongue, and a few cuffs to the indulger in the pastime of puffing out horrible volumes of perfumed smoke from his cadaverous jaws.

AND AS WE HAVE GOT INTO THE TOBACCO BUSINESS, the succeeding week we will publish an romantic little select story entitled "Facts concerning Meerschaum." Although learned men have pumped themselves dry in herculean attempts to stem the Nicotian tide, have they succeeded? Not very much. People will smoke—if they want to; and chew—if they want to. We do both.

STRAY MULES.—Came to the residence of the subscriber, at Hennecks, Washington township, on the 15th inst. TWO MULES. One is four feet high, and of a bright bay color; the other is four and a half feet high, and of a brown color. The owners are requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take them away, otherwise they will be disposed of according to law. WILLIAM TILLEY. October 27, 1860-31.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.—The undersigned, having been appointed Auditor, by the Orphan's Court of Cambria County, to make distribution of the funds in the hands of Frederick Guster, adm'r. of James Reichard, dec'd., hereby gives notice that he will attend for that purpose at the office of R. L. Johnston, Esq., in Ebensburg, on Saturday, the 17th day of November next, at one o'clock P. M., when and where all persons interested may attend. J. C. NOON, Auditor. Ebensburg, Oct. 25th, 1860-41.

ORPHAN'S COURT SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE. By virtue of an order of the Orphan's Court of Cambria county, to me directed, there will be exposed to public vendue or outcry, on the premises, on SATURDAY, the 17th day of NOVEMBER, A. D., 1860, at one o'clock, P. M., all the right, title and interest (being one undivided half thereof) of Robert Edwin Peary, minor child and heir of Charles Peary, late of Cambria county deceased, of, in and to all that certain tract or piece of land, lying and situate in Clearfield township, Cambria county, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: Beginning and adjoining lands of Peter Trezler, Michael Durbin, Gregory Miller and Philip Smith, and containing sixty-three acres and one hundred and fifty-three perches, with the appurtenances. TERMS: One third the purchase money to be paid on confirmation of sale; and the balance in two equal annual payments thereafter, with interest; to be secured by the judgment bonds and mortgage of the purchaser. E. T. NUTTER, Guardian of Robert Edwin Peary. October 25, 1860.

FASHION.—Our Fashion Editress, Miss Grace Hoop, who, in common with the sex generally, feels an interest in "The Latest Style," has secured the following item of news on the subject, which we insert for the benefit of the "dear souls": The Japon multiple is the name of the latest invented Parisian petticoat. It does away with hoops and crinolines entirely, supporting itself by the harmonious and skillful disposition of the waves of muslin of which it is composed. It can be modified or increased at pleasure. If the "multiplied skirt" is of as much utility as is claimed, it will certainly be a great addition to the feminine wardrobe; but should it subtract any from the graceful roundness of the form divine as obtained by means of crinoline, it will most likely be received with divided favor.

WIDE AWAKES.—At a meeting of the Ebensburg Wide Awake Club, held in the Town Hall on Saturday evening last, a Constitution was adopted, and the following permanent officers were chosen: President, Edward I. Evans; Vice Presidents, John T. Roberts, John N. Evans; Secretary, Newton I. Roberts; Treasurer, James A. Moore; Captain, John H. Evans; Executive Committee, Lemuel Davis, James Evans and Dr. G. R. Lewis. Elsewhere will be found a call for a grand torchlight procession by this Club, on next Monday evening.

IN AND OUT.—On Monday last, Col. James Cooper, our newly elected County Commissioner, was duly sworn in and took his seat. We wish him all manner of success in his new position. Mr. John Bear, the retiring officer, carries with him the thanks of tax-payers generally for the able manner in which he discharged his duties as a public functionary.

WITMER'S BRIDGE, LEONESTER Twp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salsander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed, in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed, in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
