MISCELLANY.

THE STORY OF A FRENCH GIRL.—The New York corespondent of the Boston Traveller writes:

"A short time since one of the agents that are abroad selecting musical talent for America, sent on the care of Adams & Co.'s Express, a French girl who was engaged to teach for one year in a Southern institution on a salary of $900 per year. On her way to New York she saw a German merchant of this city, who was smitten with her, for she was a lady of dazzling beauty. He followed her to New York and made a formal proposal for her hand. The gentleman was well known to the head of the house of Adams & Co., as a gentleman of wealth and standing—But the young teacher declined the proposal, at least till her contract for teaching should expire, and the consent of her parents obtained. But the gentleman was not to be put off. The lady had great confidence in the integrity of the company and relied on what the house of Adams & Co., said of the honor and position of the supplicant. She relented and yielded and cards are now out for the wedding at one of our fashionable hotels, and this young adventurer, with nothing but her talents and beauty, will soon be at the head of an establishment, with a husband worth $300,000.

☞ A clergyman observing a poor man in the road breaking stone with a pickaxe and kneeling to get at his work better, made this remark:

"Ah, John, I wish I could break the stony hearts of my hearers as easily as you are breaking these stones."

The man replied; "Perhaps, Master, you dont work on your knees."

☞ A little fellow, four years old, the other day, nonplussed his mother by making the following inquiry,

"Mother, if a man is a Mister, ain't a woman a Mister-y?"

☞ Whatever thy lot is, be content.

FOR SALE—One good new light double sett of WAGON HARNESS by

Aug.25,1859.tf G. HUNTLEY.

D. MOTT'S
CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE
PILLS & IRON

AN APERIENT and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and sallow or sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Incredions in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Menstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, etc.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, an trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old exhibits, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness.

In unchecked Leucorrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, continued, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the fœtal pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough and remittent hectic which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis this medicated Iron has had far more than its good effect in the most cautiously balanced preparations of Iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swelling and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will promptly be one of high renown and usefulness. No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise immediately follow its use.

☞ Put up in neat flat metal boxes, containing 50 pills. Price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on the receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents, 20 Cedar street, N. Y.
