

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

LOCAL ETCHINGS.—It is a foregone conclusion in our mind that in the matter of climate Ebensburg is very highly favored. In the Summer we have that cool and refreshing breeze ever coming directly from the mountain-tops of the everlasting Alleghenies—that health-giving and invigorating breeze that is so sought after by invalids. In Winter we have—ah—plenty of snow for sleighing purposes. Other places generally have only an occasional skiff of snow, which merely serves to create a desire for buffalo-ropes and tinnabulatory fixings; but we have an average of a foot deep of the article from December the 1st to March the 15th. And sleighing is the salt and pepper of wintry existence. Besides this, we're going to have a railroad. When we mention that Ebensburg likewise gives a Republican majority, the reader can at once see how infinitely above other men we are favored. But we ain't proud, after all. While in our hearts we pity the poor denizens of Johnstown and Hollidaysburg, we still give them the right hand of fellowship. E Pluribus Unum!—Two prize banners have been awarded by the Committee of Indiana county to Cherryhill and White townships—the first for the largest increased Republican vote in that county since October, and the other for the largest Republican vote cast in the county at the November election.—The Echo says that Mr. Joseph Strayer, Sr., a resident of Richland township, was found on Tuesday of last week about a mile and a half from his home, frozen to death. He had been in town the day previous, and it is presumed that he indulged pretty freely in intoxicating liquors, which would fully account for the distressing affair. He was about sixty-five years of age, and had a family.—The new school-house in Indiana borough took fire one day last week. The teachers quietly dismissed their several schools, and the pupils vacated the building in an orderly manner, without being aware that any danger was apprehended. The flames were then extinguished. Now, this is something so out of the common that we feel disposed to give the Indiana teachers a puff; for, had the alarm of "fire" been given—as it usually is in such cases—a stampede would have been created, and many of the children would doubtless have been killed or maimed. Therefore, would that all other teachers were like unto you, Indiana pedagogues.—Christmas is coming, and bright eyes look love to eyes that speak again. We have been looking Turkey for some time past, but without any affectionate response. Our readers will remember that unfortunate Thanksgiving affair. Will you? can you? No, sir; we think not.—Diphtheria is prevailing in Indiana borough and county.—The proceedings of the first week of Court are of so trifling a nature that we have decided not to publish them.—You can talk about philanthropists as much as you please, but the one who really and at heart desires the welfare of his neighbors is he that scrupulously well with ashes his slippery pavement, so that they may not be discomforted nor brought to discomfort.—The wife of Clark Wilson, of the Indiana Messenger, narrowly escaped death the other day from drinking water from a cup in which Prussian blue had been dissolved. The Court last week appointed John R. Rhey, Esq., County Auditor, in place of R. F. Lytle, resigned. A good appointment.—Davis & Jones have just received and are now opening out a large and well-selected stock of Winter goods. Call around and see for yourselves.—E. J. Mills has now on hands, at his store, in the west end of town, a large assortment of Christmas goods and knick-knacks.—The Holidays are coming, and such articles will be in demand, all interested parties will take notice.—The Tribune learns from a private letter, that a dwelling-house owned by James Russell, at Cambria Mills, in White township, was totally destroyed by fire, on the night of Tuesday, the 14th inst.—The Johnstown Cadets, Captain Power's company of Zouaves, have commenced the erection of an armory and drill-room on the north-west corner of the Public Square. The building is to be two stories high, and sixty by one hundred feet in length and breadth, and it is expected to be finished by the 1st of next January.—We learn that the school-house in Munster was destroyed by fire on Monday night. We have no particulars.—The weather continues cold, and a little more snow would improve the sleighing, and from appearances we will have it soon.

INTERESTING DETAILS.—In the case of the Commonwealth vs. John W. Farrell, which was disposed of by the Court of Quarter Sessions week before last, some facts were elicited which go far to prove that we have a Haynan in our midst. It appears that some time during the past summer the defendant, who is a mere boy in years, hired himself to labor with one Michael Kennedy of Carroll township.—Shortly after the boy's induction into the hospitable domicile of his employer, a pocket-book, said to contain some thirty dollars, turned up missing. Suspicion immediately fell upon the boy, and although he strenuously denied the theft, he failed to convince his accuser of his innocence. Then began a series of torments and tortures upon the supposed culprit to extort a confession, equal to those of the darkest days of the Inquisition. A rope was first placed around the boy's neck and extended over a beam, and he was forcibly elevated a considerable height. But several repetitions of this mild and merciful experiment failed to produce the desired confession. The boy was then extended on a log and forcibly held down, and an axe was brandished over his throat. The boy, to save his life as he says, admitted that he had taken the money and proposed to find it if they would release him. He was accordingly unhand, but as soon as he found himself free he took to his heels to escape from his persecutors by fast running. He was overtaken, however, and carried to Carrolltown, where he was delivered into the hands of an officer of the law, who lodged him in our jail. Upon the strength of this confession, extorted by fear of bodily harm and death, the boy was prosecuted for larceny; but it is almost needless to say that the Court refused to take the prosecutor's evidence and the prisoner was acquitted. A collection in his behalf was taken up inside the bar, and a considerable sum was realized. It is gratifying to know that a charge has been instituted and is now pending against Mr. Kennedy for assault and battery with intent to kill, in accordance with the above facts.

ANOTHER MYSTERY.—We have the following particulars from a private source: Some two or three weeks ago, two men, named Snyder and Edwards, left their homes in Bedford county with the intention of going to the Cherry Tree to get out lumber. Snyder carried with him the proceeds of the sale of a horse, which he had disposed of before starting. Some considerable time elapsed, and Edwards returned to his home without his companion. When questioned as to Snyder's whereabouts, he was unable to tell a very straight story; but he at length stated that he had left him in Ebensburg. On Saturday last the father and brother of the missing man were here in search of him, but they failed to obtain a clue to mystery. They did ascertain, however, that a man answering Edwards' description was in town some time during Court. The father and brother of Snyder returned to Bedford on Monday, with the avowed intention of arresting Edwards on suspicion of murder. Further than this we have no particulars.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU, READER!—Before another issue of our paper, Christmas will have come and gone. We therefore embrace the opportunity to wish our readers, one and all, a merry Christmas. Let every one enjoy himself after his own fashion. The young and thoughtless may sleigh the girls, the gourmand may slay the turkey, the aged may look with pleasure on the return of a holiday that brings to mind the happy days of youth, and the piously-disposed may profitably put in the time praying for South Carolina and the multitudinous sins of her people. Of course we don't forget the children and their patron saint, Kris Kringle. Let everybody have a gay old time of it, without regard to expenses.—Good friends, a merry Christmas to you all, and may you live to see a thousand more of the same sort.

CHRISTMAS, HO!—The place at which to purchase substantial Christmas gifts is at the cheap store of Clinton R. Jones.—Keepsakes and fobbles may do very well in their place, but we have no doubt that the recipient of a holiday present, if he or she were to be consulted in the matter, would prefer something of a more substantial nature, such as a coat or a pair of shoes. Go to C. R. Jones', go to C. R. Jones'.

MARRIED.—At the "Mansion House," in Johnstown, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 11th, by Rev. B. L. Agnew, Mr. Geo. W. Bickford to Miss Sarah Ann Pringle, both of Wilmore, this county.

WILMORE, Dec. 19, 1860.

To the Editor of The Alleghenian:

The feminine controversy that is now going on in your columns has interested me considerably, and as I always speak when the spirit moves me, I herewith send to the "Alleghenian Fairy Guard" greeting:

To think that ANNETTE should be guilty of so unbecoming and silly an action as to try to pour gelid liquid on our own dear Leap Year—it is really shocking! Why, ANNETTE, don't you see that you are only knocking the props from under the entire edifice of Female Independence? I do, and shudder for the result. You certainly know that during the Bissextille, we—the "weaker"—are masters of all we survey. (i. e., it is our privilege so to be, and we depart from the text if we are not.) Once in four years we can cut loose from the rigid, formal rules of etiquette, and be unrestricted as the summer winds on a holiday. We can then angle for hearts in whatever branch of the matrimonial stream we may desire, with none to molest or make us afraid. We are not obliged to wait on Tom, or Dick, or Harry to pop the "momentous," for we can do that ourselves. Isn't it grand! Come here, you Charley boy: in the case of the subscriber versus yourself, on a charge of reciprocal affection, how do you plead—guilty, or not guilty? I believe, so help me Cupid, that in nine cases out of ten the defendant would say "guilty" and submit. What's unladylike about that, I would like to know?

"Women rule the world" a great many say, and one even goes on to ask— "Didn't Adam, the very first man, The very first woman obey?"

This is doubtless very true, but without Leap Year I believe that women would soon become a queen only in name, a sovereign without a scepter, a ruler without a subject.

No, I do not intend to stay in a state of single wretchedness while the preventive is within my grasp. I believe in the use of the means. If I fail—but they say there is no such word as "fail." However, if I should fail in my object, I will immediately swallow a very large dose of strychnine or else commence reading the President's last message.

By-by. EMILE.

LITERARY.—The "Cambria Township and Ebensburg Borough Teachers' Association" met in the Ebensburg Union School House on Saturday, 15th inst.

The President being absent, the Vice President, R. M. Jones, called the Association to order. Class in reading was called. Each member read a selection, and criticisms were made, which caused an animated discussion on the principles of this science. John Gittings and R. M. Jones then offered some valuable suggestions. The following resolution was then discussed: "Resolved, that the teacher should be familiar his pupils." Remarks by Lem Davis, John Gittings, and others.

The Executive Committee then reported the following list of performances for next regular meeting:

- I. Class in Written Arithmetic, to be conducted by Lem Davis.
II. Discussion of the following question: "Resolved, That Arithmetic is a deductive and not an inductive science."
Adjourned to meet January 5, 1861.
WM. H. SECHLER, Sec'y.

ICE.—We observe that several of our citizens are already engaged in getting in a supply of ice. Now is the time to lay up a supply of the warm weather luxury.

Great Excitement Down Town! Although the Union is about to be dissolved, WM. DAVIS has just received and offers for sale (on the largest and the most varied assortment of Goods ever offered to the citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity): consisting in part of DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, ORENSWARE, HATS AND CAPS, NOTIONS, BOOTS AND SHOES, BONNERS, HARDWARE, CUTLERY, TOYS, &c., &c. In fact every article commonly kept in a country store can there be had all of which he offers at REDUCED PRICES. Call and examine for yourselves. Goods exhibited free of charge. Gaiter, lambs, &c., taken in exchange for Goods. All persons indebted to me are respectfully requested to call and settle on or before the 1st day of January, 1861. WM. DAVIS. Those indebted to the late firm of Davis & Lloyd either by note or book account, are requested to make immediate payment, as further indulgence will not be given. Ebensburg, December 9, 1860.

DISSOLUTION.—The partnership

heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm of W. H. Gardner & Co., was this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be settled by Lloyd & Hill. The books will be left at the office of the firm, in Wilmore, for a limited time, where all having unsettled accounts will save costs by calling soon.

G. L. LLOYD, ARTHUR HILL, WM. H. GARDNER. Wilmore, Dec. 8, 1860-31.

SEVEN YEARS.—The seven years of unvaried success attending the "Cosmopolitan Art Association" have made it a household word throughout every quarter of the country. Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate, by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables, the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

Subscriptions are now being received in a ratio unparalleled with that of any previous year.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Any person can become a member by subscribing Three Dollars, for which sum they will receive

- 1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 20x38 inches, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS."
2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, "The Cosmopolitan Art Journal."
3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to "The Gallery of Paintings, 518 Broadway, N.Y."
In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over five hundred beautiful works of Art; comprising valuable paintings, marbles, parians, outlines, &c., forming a truly national collection.

The superb engraving, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "Falstaff Mustering his Recruits," is one of the most beautiful and popular engravings ever issued in this country. It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving, in Justice Shallow's office, the recruits which have been gathered for his "ragged regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars.

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent by any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of the 31st of January, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription.—Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships and to one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50, instead of $3.00, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, prepared by the handsomest magazine in America. It contains a Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cents per number. Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe on receipt of 18 cents in stamps or coin.

C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A., 519 Broadway, New York.

N. B.—Subscriptions received and forwarded by GEO. W. GATMAN, agent for Ebensburg and vicinity, where specimens Engravings and Art Journal can be seen.

A CARD.—

WITNES THE BRIDGES, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN.—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand, and for sale at low rates at any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
