The Alleghanian. THURSDAYJANUARY 10.

LOGAL AND PERSONAL.

A LITTLE TALK .- With a few more numbers, The Alleghanian will have attained the good old age of eighteen months, otherwise one and a half years. It is gratifying to know that we have long since passed that point of our existence when doubts were entertained that we would be able to weather the weather. It is gratifying, we say, to know that we have lived down the "ephemeral" dodge. But we find, by referring to our books, that a goodly number of our subscribers have thus far sailed in our canoe without paying their passage. This is not as it should be. This is the beginning of a new year. and we would like to have our patrons these of our patrons who are not the possessors of our receipt will confer a favor br "socking up" without delay. For their We fought for half a day, then we both agreed lencht we would state: The indebtedness of those who have taken our paper from the start is $3.00 up to No. 26 ; or $3.75 to the end of Volume 2. Send along the meney, friends, and give us a chance.

WITMER'S BRIDGE. Laucaster Tp. July 30, 1860 MESSRE, EVANS AND WATSON : GENTLEMEN ----The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Ba r. in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test. which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and represeting a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat

among the ruins, which was greatly increased y the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from
