

A LITTLE TALK.—With a few more numbers, The Alleghenian will have attained the good old age of eighteen months, otherwise one and a half years. It is gratifying to know that we have long since passed that point of our existence when doubts were entertained that we would be able to weather the weather. It is gratifying, we say, to know that we have lived down the "ephemeral" dodge. But we find, by referring to our books, that a goodly number of our subscribers have thus far sailed in our canoe without paying their passage. This is not as it should be. This is the beginning of a new year, and we would like to have our patrons look us square in the face. Therefore, those of our patrons who are not the possessors of our receipt will confer a favor by "hooking up" without delay. For their benefit we would state: The indebtedness of those who have taken our paper from the start is $3.00 up to No. 26; or $3.75 to the end of Volume 2. Send along the money, friends, and give us a chance.

LOCAL ETCHINGS.—Mrs. Goodbell, whom we noticed last week as having been dreadfully burned in Cambria City recently, died on Monday of last week from her injuries.—Samuel Ream, Jr., an employee in the Johnstown Rolling Mill, was so badly burned about the face by the explosion of a puddling furnace, a few days since, that he is in danger of losing the use of both his eyes.—During the year 1869, one hundred and thirty interments were made in the Sandy Vale Cemetery, Johnstown. Of this number, seventy-three were females and fifty-seven males.—Mr. George Gurley has resigned the office of Constable of Ebensburg borough, and Capt. James Murray has been appointed in his stead.—As an item of interest to the Masonic fraternity, we may state that John Cresswell, of Hollidaysburg, has been appointed D. D. Grand Master for Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Bedford and Fulton counties for the ensuing year.—A series of sermons will be preached in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place, by Rev. W. Lynch, commencing on next Tuesday evening, 22d inst.—Our townsmen, Geo. J. Rodgers and James P. M. Allister, left for Virginia (we believe) one day last week. They go to select a site for an oil well for the company that has been formed in this place.—Talking of oil, we are confidentially informed by a friend who lives a short distance from here, that not a hundred yards from the door of his residence, on the face of a sheet of water, he can at any time collect a considerable quantity of the oleaginous commodity. This, and other instances that have been brought to our knowledge, incline us to the belief that oil in paying quantities will be discovered in this neck of woods ere long.—Mr. John Humphreys, of Cambria township, was severely injured one day last week by a load of bark upsetting and falling upon him.—We are requested to state that the house and lot formerly occupied by Dr. D. W. Lewis, and at present by Philip Collins, Esq., is offered at private sale. Inquire for particulars, price, &c., of George R. Lewis, at his office, on the premises, opposite Blair's Hotel.—Those of our readers who need anything in the jewelry line should give our friend, J. Stahl, a call.—He has an elegant assortment on hand, which he will dispose of at low rates.—At a recent meeting of the Ebensburg Division of the Sons of Temperance, the following officers were elected to serve for the next quarter: W. P. A. A. Barker; W. A. T. J. Davis; R. S., B. F. Williams; A. R. S., Evan R. Morgan; T. A. Lewis; F. S., Samuel W. Davis; C., Evan R. Davis; A. C., John R. Smith; I. S., John J. James; O. S., Robert Singer; Chaplain, Wm. D. Davis; Ed. Flag, Dan. D. Jones.—On last Wednesday morning some of the citizens of Altoona found the body of a child, apparently about three or four days old, with its throat cut, lying behind a pile of boards, in a lot in the rear of the Lutheran church in that place. Lucy Robinson, a colored girl, for some time living at the Altoona House, was arrested upon suspicion, and confessed having committed the deed. She has been committed for trial.—The snow, which, for a week past, has been about two feet deep, is now reduced to the dead level of about two inches, with strong symptoms of increase.—Our anonymous friend is informed that we are agreeable as regards that "Calliope"—any time after supper.—Read new advertisements.

GOOD NEWS FOR THE LADIES.—Leap Year is gone, that's a fact. Gone for four years, and lots of girls didn't make the connection during its reign. Girls who, four years hence, will have become fossilized and antyquated to the last degree, and whose wonderful cheeks and pouting lips will be metamorphosed into the commonest kind of commonplace affairs, failed to husband the time properly. Gone, we say, for some three years and eleven months. Sad that thus the moments fleeting bear our cherished hopes away, etc. But Time and tide wait for no man. Neither will they for a woman. Sad. But not so sad in this case either. For girls, maidens, young ladies, spinners, old maids, and the universal feminine kit and caboodle, from fourteen years of old upwards, are wanted. Also, school-maams.

A correspondent, writing from Oregon to a Pennsylvania paper, says: Here, by the time a girl is fourteen she is snatched in marriage, and yet, in this region are living many bachelor farmers who would gladly marry if there were women here. Governor Slaue, of Vermont, sent us out a cargo of school-maams, who were each to pay a fine of one hundred dollars if they married before the expiration of a year. Most of the girls paid the fine. Oregon and Washington still need school-maams. I have no doubt this country would prove a paradise to spinners, if they came well recommended.

There, my dears! You see. Lulu, Emile, Jennie Somers, and the rest of you, pack up, emigrate, and go over there and come it over them. Immediately. And now, in consideration of the valuable information contained in the above delicious extract, you are affectionately invited and requested to send forthwith to our sanctum any bouquets, card cases, pulse heaters, Lillet doux, pound cake, or other tokens of esteem you may have readily at hand, and likewise take the P. R. cars at Wilmore when you start on your journey.

A LAUDABLE OBJECT.—We presume most of our readers know that the people of Kansas are in very straitened circumstances at present from the failure of their crops last summer, but all of them do not know, perhaps, that absolute starvation exists in that ill-fated territory.—That the inhabitants are suffering for want of the necessities of life is without doubt. Committees have been appointed throughout the country to raise money, provisions and clothing for the sufferers, and much good has been done by these means. With the exception of a committee having been appointed to solicit contributions in Johnstown, we have heard of no measures having been taken in this county for the relief of these our brothers in want. This does not arise from the fact that we are stingier, or harder-hearted, or less able to give than the people of other counties, but simply because no one has turned our attention particularly to the subject. We hope that the charitable and good will take instant action in the premises, and that a Committee will be appointed to lay the matter before the public. And let all give as they have been prospered in this life. Remember, "he that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."

EB. AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—The annual election for a President and twelve Directors for the Ebensburg and Cresson Railroad Company was held on Monday, and resulted as follows: President—Thomas Collins. Vice President—Edward Roberts. Secretary and Treasurer—A. C. Mullin. General Agent—J. H. Campbell. Executive Committee—John Thompson, R. S. Bunn, A. A. Barker.

CAMBRIA COUNTY AND THE STATE TREASURY.—According to the Auditor General's report, the amounts contributed by Cambria county to the coffers of the State during the year 1860, foot up the grand total of $8255.20. During the same time she has drawn therefrom the sum of only $2002.19.

LYCEUM.—The question for debate at the Ebensburg Lyceum on next Friday evening is: "Resolved, That the planets are inhabited."

IN bad condition—the streets.

VANITY FAIR.—The publisher of this excellent humorous weekly journal presents, as an inducement to new subscribers, the following premiums: Upon receipt of three dollars, a copy of Vanity Fair for one year and any new novel or publication worth $1.25; for four dollars, a copy of Vanity Fair for one year and a bound copy of its first Volume, worth $2.00; for five dollars, a copy of Vanity Fair for one year and a certificate of subscription to the Cosmopolitan Art Association, entitling the holder to the superb steel engraving, "Falstaff Mustering his Recruits," &c.—These premiums will be sent postage free. Now is the time to subscribe for the model illustrated paper of America. Address Louis H. Stephens, 113 Nassau st., New York.

DIED.—In Chest Springs Borough, on Saturday, 12th inst., Mrs. MARY WILL, wife of Anthony Will, Jr., aged about 35 years. In Munster tp., on Sunday, 13th inst., CORNELIUS DEVER, Sr., aged about 70 years. In Clearfield tp., on Wednesday, 2d inst., JOHN C. MAGUIRE, aged about 50 years. In Algiers, Louisiana, on the 30th ult., JOHN A. MAGEHAN, brother of M. D. Magehan, Esq., of this place, aged about 44 years.

WHAT'S THE USE?—Sure enough, what's the use of talking about "hard times," and all that sort of thing, when we have enough and to spare of the good things of earth, and when C. R. Jones sell boots and shoes, hats and caps, clothing, &c., as cheap as ever! Croakers, cease your complaints and buy from the above mentioned individual if you wish to save money.

ENIGMA.—I am composed of 10 letters: Erase my 1, 2, 4, 6, 9, and you have a carpenter's tool. Erase my 1, 2, 3, 5, 7, 9, and you have a kind of tree. Erase my 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, and you have what is not always visible. Erase my 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and you have a warlike instrument. Take me as I am and find out what I be. MRS. CHRY, Jan. 15, 1861. CANTOX. [Answer to last week's enigma—"Enjoying the good sleighing."]

To the Editor of The Alleghenian: It was the good fortune of your correspondent to be in Bellefonte during last week, and he cannot refrain from doing an act of justice by making mention of a hotel as is hotel, there situated. I refer to the "Conrad House," kept by J. Butts. Having had some experience in hotel life, I can say with confidence that Bellefonte has reason to be proud of the "Conrad House," and a kinder or more attentive landlord does not exist. A guest there receives comfort and accommodations that he could not buy for money in any Eastern city. X.

A CARD.—WITNER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1859. Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with various papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed by the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm. EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 394 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
