

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

LOCALITIES.—The sleighing continues excellent.

A good place for ghosts and singing schools—ye deserted village, Beulah.

Motto for the Ebensburg and Cresson Branch Railroad—"where we branch we root."

"Foder's" Johnstown letter came to hand one day too late. We are sorry to be obliged to lay it over.

The Mountaineer warns the "powers that be" to look out for breakers. We would respectfully beg leave to amend the above so as to read croakers—as in that case the Mountaineer might safely count on receiving some public attention.

Messrs. G. J. Rodgers and J. L. P. M'Allister, whose departure for the oil region we recently noticed, are on their native heath once more.

We understand that during their absence they purchased several acres of ground in Ohio, and that boring for oil on an extensive scale is now being prosecuted under their auspices.—We hope they may be surprisingly lucky.

The election for borough and township officers will come off on Friday, 15th proximo—two weeks from to-morrow. Would it not be a good idea to nominate the candidates some of these first days?

A correspondent, who signs himself SIMON PURE, asks in a poetical strain whether we can tell him where a bachelor should go to escape from the torments of hoopedom. Certainly—go to the devil.

The Hollisburg Whip says that four residents of Logan tp., Blair county, whose united ages would be 313 years, were taken to the polls in one wagon at the late Presidential election; and being men of sense, they all voted for "Old Abe."

A young man named Miller Smith, a brakeman on a freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was cut completely in twain near Pittsburg, a few days since, by falling upon the track and being run over by the train.

We are indebted to a friend for a copy of the concert programme of the Mountain Female Seminary. This institution enjoys a flattering reputation, and is the alma mater of a great many handsome young ladies. Many thanks—"Selah."

A colored man, named De Coursey, recently got on a bender in Huntingdon, and afterward took quarters in an untenanted shanty to sleep off the fumes of the liquor. He woke up next morning with both legs frozen stiff. To prevent misapprehension, we would add that this De Coursey is not the "Professor."

We notice that the Atlas belonging to M'Nally's Geography, published in 1859, has a branch railroad located from Cresson, on the Penna. Railroad, to this place. M'Nally certainly ought to be patronized, for he is evidently up to—and in this case a little ahead of—time. That is to say, of car time.

The fashionable mode of publishing marriage notices in Blair county at the present time is something like the following: "Married, on —, at —, by the Rev. —, Mr. — to Miss —, both of —." Its chief beauty lies in the style—it is so dashing.

Mrs. Melinda King, wife of John M. King, of Johnstown, died very suddenly on Sabbath before last. She appeared to be in the enjoyment of vigorous health until the moment of her death. Her disease was apoplexy.

Mr. H. C. Devine, the newly appointed Mercantile Appraiser, is busily engaged in attending to the interests of the county in that capacity.

Philip Collins, Esq., of this place, was elected one of the Directors of the Western Railroad Company for the ensuing year, at a recent meeting of the stockholders of that Company.

The Buffalo papers say that it is rapidly becoming fashionable in that city for ladies to wear the balmoral without any dress over it. As it is balmoral, of course it's not immoral, so everybody should be satisfied.

This week's instalment of Jonathan Oldbuck's History of Cambria County refers to Jackson township—a township which, according to the historian, has neither a town, village, store, tavern or post-office within its limits. Read it.

A report was current in town on Saturday to the effect that a man had been shot at and wounded on Laurel Hill the day previous. It lacks confirmation, however.

FOR RENT.—The office now occupied by Hugh McCoy, as a saddler's shop, is offered for rent. Possession to be given on the first of April. For particulars, apply to this office.

AID FOR KANSAS.—Messrs. Davis & Jones, who were appointed receivers for the Kansas Aid Society of Ebensburg and vicinity, have made the following report, by which it will be seen that a considerable amount has been realized for the relief of the poor and needy of that Territory:

Amounts received from— Rich. Jones, Jr. and John J. Evans, Tanner, solicitors East of Centre street: cash, $50 05; goods, $133 80.

Robert Davis and E. J. Mills, solicitors between Centre and Julian streets: cash, $22 00; goods, $48 00.

Isaac Evans and M. S. Harr, solicitors West of Julian street: cash, $13 55; goods, $10.

Thomas J. Rees and George Roberts, solicitors North of Ebensburg: cash, $10 25; goods, $2 50.

Gwylm Evans and William Hughes, solicitors North and West of old Carrollton road: cash, $19 57; goods, $7 62.

Rowland Humphreys and Richard Davis, solicitors Northwest of Ebensburg: cash, $8 33; goods, $3 87.

David A. Jones and Benjamin Lloyd, solicitors South of Ebensburg: cash, $9 35.

Owen Roberts and William R. Jones, solicitors South of Creek: cash, $7 95.

Franklin Powell and John E. Connell, solicitors East of Ebensburg: cash, $10 12; goods, $6 43.

Griffith Jones and William R. Williams, solicitors West of Ebensburg: cash, $5 05.

Cash, $162 93. Goods, 232 22. Total, $395 15.

It is probable that some considerable addition will yet be made to this amount before it is shipped to its destination.

HOW TO SLEEP WELL.—It is said that persons sleep better and sounder with their heads pointing toward the North Pole than in any other position. The reason is given as thus: The earth is a magnet, with magnetic currents constantly playing around it; the human body is also a magnet, and when the body is placed in certain relations to the earth, these currents harmonize—when one position is to be maintained for some time, a position should be chosen in which the currents of the earth and the body will not conflict. This position, as indicated by theory and known by experiment, is to lie with the head to the North Pole.

This reads very well, anyhow; and in the language of a contemporary, we would advise those who have difficulty in wooing a visitation from nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep, to "shift their couches and try the experiment."

JUST SO.—Our friend Mordicai pretends to be shocked at the audacity of Miss Jenny Somers in advertising for an increase of correspondence, and gratuitously adds that such advertisements are seldom inserted in good faith. Of course we do not know what motive actuates our fair patron, but we think this doubting attitude of our masculine friend indicates a good-sized desire to get behind the scenes and obtain particulars, &c. When it is remembered that Mordicai is a bachelor, and a rather young and somewhat good-looking one at that, the cause of his anxiety becomes luminously apparent—to us, at least. But there's no use, old boy, in attempting to seduce us into a disclosure of the little items connected with the affair. It can't be did. You must go Somers else on that errand.

SLEIGHING PARTIES.—During last week one of these delightful "institutions" came off, and we hear several others "talked off." They are decidedly agreeable, when one can keep warm, be that by "crowding close together," or otherwise; but every sensible person will acknowledge that by investing yourself with a full suit of winter clothing from C. R. Jones' establishment you can succeed in that object most admirably.

A CHANGE.—The Harrisburg State Sentinel has changed hands—the former editor, Charles D. Hincine, retiring, and Wm. B. Sipes succeeding. Mr. Sipes was at one time editor of the Dem. & Sent., of this place, which position he filled with energy and ability. He is a chaste and ready writer, and under his supervision the Sentinel will lose nothing of its former merits. Success to you.

DIED.—On Friday, 25th inst., at his residence in New Florence, Westmoreland county, Mr. Wm. WOODBURN, aged about 25 years. The deceased was for a long time conductor on one of the freight trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and was respected by all who knew him.

ERROR CORRECTED.—A correspondent informs us that we were in error last week in noticing the death of Mrs. Elizabeth, wife of Arthur Storm, of Summitville, that lady being still alive, and hopes entertained of her recovery. We are glad to be able to make the correction.

DIED.—In Clearfield township, on Monday, the 21st inst., ARTHUR MCCONNELL, in the 96th year of his age.

OUR COUNTY, 'TIS OF THREE.—It gives us much pleasure to be able to lay before our readers this week the annexed beautiful stanzas to Cambria county, from the pen of one of her most gifted and accomplished daughters. We are certain that the sentiment therein contained will meet with a responsive echo in the breast of every true-hearted "Frosty Son of Thunder." The poem was not originally intended for publication, but has been furnished us by the gentleman to whom it was inscribed:

Cambria Song. BY MISS LOTIE E. VICKROY.

A song, a song for Cambria, What shall its burden be? Her mountains grand, her waving woods, Her valleys fair to see.

Her clear waters in their laughing flow, Her wild wind's minstrelsy? Oh! God has given us many things Our hearts with joy to move;

Most lovely, lovely is our earth, Fair are the skies above. And ever, ever dearer grows This county of our love.

The mountain peaks of Cambria, Their heads to heaven that rear, Seem calmed with a glory, In daylight's distant air.

And sleep, like dreams of beauty, In the moonlight falling fair.

The piney hills of Cambria, How deep their silence lies! Where woodman's axe has never rung, Where yet the wild deer flies

Through thickets deep, and all year long The verdure never dies.

The ferny glens of Cambria, The grape vine's graceful bowers, The evergreens and mosses bright, The many colored flowers,

May well in their wild beauty make More dear this land of ours.

The clear, cool streams of Cambria, The world can never know What melody is murmured by The waters as they go.

Where Stony Creek and Conemaugh In crystal freshness flow.

The happy homes of Cambria, Oh! pleasantly they greet The gaze, along the country lanes, Or by the busy street.

And healthy, hopeful faces eye At every door we meet.

Oh Cambria, fair Cambria! How shall we tell thy worth? Beyond the simple truth that yet No land upon the earth.

To fairer daughters, nobler sons, Has ever given birth.

FRESDALE, Cambria Co., Dec. 31, 1860.

DIED.—At the residence of his mother, in this borough, on Friday, 25th inst., CHARLES LITZINGER, Jr., aged about 24 years.

The grim monster, Death, is always an unwelcome visitor; his approach is heralded by sadness and sorrowing;—but when he blows his icy breath on one universally beloved and esteemed—as in this case—he dispenses more than the usual amount of gloom. Right from the bosom of a family of which he was the stay and prop—from among those he loved, and who loved him in return—poor CHARLES has been called forth, in the first flush of manhood, to take up his journey for that bourne to which we are all hastening, and from whence no one returns. He has gone—may he rest in peace.

The remains of the deceased were followed to the tomb on Sabbath by a large concourse of relatives and friends.

ENIGMA.—I am composed of 23 letters. My 10 13 18 5 13 19 23, is what all should do. My 1 12 21 4 15, is what none should do. My 20 14 11 9 14 17, is what don't come in January.

My 1 8 22 4 6 1, is what some people are. My 21 2 7 16 3 2 1 17, is much to be dreaded. My whole is what every man, woman and child should do. FREDLEY NED. GINGER HILL, Pa., Jan. 28, 1861.

[Answer to last enigma—"Suppliance."] During every night for the last week, there has fallen from two to three inches of snow, so that now the ground is covered to a considerable depth. Everybody and his family or friends are taking advantage of this state of affairs to enjoy a run behind an article of horse-flesh. Quite natural.

DEDICATION.—We are requested to announce that the Union Church, at Chest Springs borough, this county, will be dedicated to the service of Almighty God on Saturday, February 9, 1861, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENCY.—We understand that the appointment to fill this vacancy, will be made this week. There are several applicants for the position.—We wish you all success, gentlemen.

CORRESPONDENCE WANTED.—A young lady, having a respectable income and being possessed of reasonable personal attractions, is desirous of opening a correspondence with a young man of good morals and intelligence, with a view to mutual benefit. Address, in good faith, "Miss JENNY SOMERS, Ebensburg, Cambria county, Pa." Jan. 10, 1861-3*

SEVEN YEARS.

The seven years of unrivalled success attending the "Cosmopolitan Art Association" have made it a household word throughout every quarter of the country.

Under the auspices of this popular Institution, over three hundred thousand homes have learned to appreciate, by beautiful works of art on their walls, and choice literature on their tables, the great benefits derived from becoming a subscriber.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: Any person can become a member by subscribing Three Dollars, for which sum they will receive

1st.—The large and superb steel engraving, 30x38 inches, entitled "FALSTAFF MUSTERING HIS RECRUITS."

2d.—One copy, one year, of that elegantly illustrated magazine, "The Cosmopolitan Art Journal."

3d.—Four admissions, during the season, to "The Gallery of Paintings, 548 Broadway, N.Y." In addition to the above benefits, there will be given to subscribers, as gratuitous premiums, over five hundred beautiful works of art: comprising valuable paintings, murals, parians, cutlines, &c., forming a truly national benefit.

The superb engraving, which every subscriber will receive, entitled "Falstaff Mustering his Recruits," is one of the most beautiful and popular engravings ever issued in this country.

It is done on steel, in fine line and stipple, and is printed on heavy plate paper, 30 by 38 inches, making a most choice ornament, suitable for the walls of either the library, parlor or office. Its subject is the celebrated scene of Sir John Falstaff receiving, in Justice Shallow's office, the recruits which have been gathered for his "ragged regiment." It could not be furnished by the trade for less than five dollars.

The Art Journal is too well known to the whole country to need commendation. It is a magnificently illustrated magazine of Art, containing Essays, Stories, Poems, Gossip, &c., by the very best writers in America.

The Engraving is sent to any part of the country by mail, with safety, being packed in a cylinder, postage prepaid.

Subscriptions will be received until the Evening of the 31st of January, 1861, at which time the books will close, and the premiums be given to subscribers.

No person is restricted to a single subscription.—Those remitting $15, are entitled to five memberships and to one extra Engraving for their trouble.

Subscriptions from California, the Canadas and all Foreign Countries, must be $3.50, instead of $3.00, in order to defray extra postage, &c.

For further particulars send for a copy of the elegantly illustrated Art Journal, pronounced the handsomest magazine in America. It contains a Catalogue of Premiums, and numerous superb engravings. Regular price, 50 cents per number. Specimen copies, however, will be sent to those wishing to subscribe on receipt of 18 cents in stamps or coin.

C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A., 546 Broadway, New York.

N. B.—Subscriptions received and forwarded by GEO. W. OATMAN, agent for Ebensburg and vicinity, where specimen Engravings and Art Journal can be seen.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE.

LANCASTER Twp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some of my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat which would have melted the iron, and was increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored.

This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCE.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
