

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

LOCAL ECHOINGS.—Still is heard—the merrie jingle of the bells. Our fellow townsman, John Williams, Esq., is at present on a visit to Washington city.

Those interested will please take notice that the nominations for Borough Officers will be made this (Thursday) evening.

Up to the present date, we of the mountain have had ten weeks of uninterrupted sleighing facilities! It snows upon these circumstances.

Coming—the 22d of February—WASHINGTON'S birthday. We suggest that a suitable observance of the occasion be had by the mountaineers. Who seconds the motion for a big supper?

On last Saturday, the contract for laying the superstructure and iron on the Ebensburg and Cresson Railroad was awarded to Philip Collins, Esq., who was also the contractor for the grading of the road. Under the supervision of this gentleman, we feel confident that the work will be pushed to a speedy completion.—The road is expected to be ready for the running of cars by the first of June.

The money and clothing donated by the citizens of Ebensburg and vicinity for the relief of the suffering people of Kansas, were shipped for Leavenworth per Adams' Express to Pittsburg on Thursday. In this connection, we may state that this company carry all goods destined for suffering Kansas free of charge—an act of liberality for which it does not get general credit.

We're in luck again. One day last week, our friend, H. C. Devine, Esq.—than whom few better or more liberal hearted individuals can be scared up—presented unto us for our own especial use and behoof forever until death do us part as aforesaid to wit, one box of excellent and very smokable cigars. We return him our sincere thanks, and promise that the "weeds" shall be dealt with as they deserve. (N. B.: To prevent misconception, we might just add that we smoke.)

Next Thursday is Valentine's Day—What has become of all the elegant little comic, poetical, sentimental and lovesick missives that generally float around so promiscuously just prior to its advent? Gone up—we hope.

Gov. Curtin has appointed Rev. J. B. Pyatte to be Auctioneer for Johnstown.

A young man residing in Somerset near the Cambria line, was recently swindled out of a horse by a sharper. The modus of the operation was simple, the sharper merely paying for the animal in counterfeit money.

Saturday last was Candlemas Day—otherwise "Ground Hog Day." According to the infallible omen for this day made and provided, we are to be favored with six weeks more of wintry weather.

A fire occurred in Hollidaysburg last week, by which the Blood Searcher medicine establishment of R. M. Lemon was entirely consumed.

In another column of to-day's paper will be found an interesting letter from Johnstown. "Yoder" promises to keep us posted from week to week on whatever of interest may transpire in that "sweet little village," and we are sure that the contributions from his graceful goosequill will be gladly received by our readers.

On Friday last, the snow commenced melting at a tremendous rate, and Saturday helped the matter on by several showers of warm rain; but thanks to the some two feet of snow on the ground, the roads were not at all inconvenienced by the little incident. The sleighing is still excellent.

Persons wishing to get bargains should call on E. J. Mills, who is disposing of this stock of goods at cost. See advertisement in another column.

If you wish to secure bargains, patronize the store of H. C. Devine. He sells cheaper than the cheapest.

Attention is directed to the numerous new advertisements in to-day's paper.

There are at the present time no less than nine applicants among the two wings of the Loco-Foco party in this county for the nomination for Sheriff next fall; four for County Treasurer; and for the other offices in about the same ratio. Besides these, other candidates from the same side of the house are coming out at the rate of about one per day. The signs of the times indicate a brisk season ahead.

Answer to last week's enigma, "Speak kindly to all you meet."

The Commissioners and Auditors have completed the auditing of the accounts of Cambria county for the past year.

BEULAH.—On our outside this week we publish a very interesting paper on the history of the settlement and subsequent abandonment of Beulah—which article was originally published in the Cambria Tribune some years since. As a bit of local history concerning a rather celebrated locality, it should be read by all of our Cambria county subscribers.

The site of the "deserted village" is a rough and rugged valley near the Blacklick, about two miles southwest of Ebensburg. Indeed, a more uninviting spot on which to lay out a "settlement" could scarcely be found. But in the early days of this great and mighty county of Cambria, the country was principally a sterile and unprofitable wilderness, and the squatters thereon had to take things pretty much as they found them, trusting to a willing heart and a strong right hand to bring good out of Nazareth. Although the existence of Beulah was brief, still was it long enough to enable the hardy pioneers to see a snug little village springing into existence, as if by magic, around them. The wilderness, under their cultivation, blossomed as a rose—the sweet scent of civilization began to pervade the Beulahite atmosphere.

In 1804, Cambria county was given a habitation and name. Beulah—ambitious Beulah—immediately was seized with a desire to be the capital of the new county, and she entered vigorously into the contest for the coveted prize. But, alas! her claims were overlooked—and from that moment the star of Beulah began to wane.

At this time, even the "old fashioned and very shabby wooden dwelling" mentioned in the sketch as being the sole monument of Beulah's former greatness—even this landmark has crumbled away. There is not now "A rose of the wilderness left on the stalk, To tell where the garden had been."

One fact connected with the Beulah paper—the "Western Sky"—does not appear in the sketch. Although purporting to represent the interests of Beulah, and being edited by a resident of that village, yet we are credibly informed that the "Sky" was published in Philadelphia. This would make no great odds, however,—it rather shows to advantage the go-ahead-ness of those Beulah settlers, who, not content with "the music of the spheres," must needs have an organ of their own.

Like all deserted and decayed spots, Beulah is sound on the ghost question. Were you to believe half the fearful legends told concerning this romantic retreat—about the troops of fairies, the myriads of ghosts, and the legions of devils damned that are supposed to haunt it—then indeed would you be justified in coming to the conclusion that the once busy little burg is now cursed by some "Prodigious ban Of excommunication," and, in fact, a rather unpleasant place in which to pass a dark night all alone by yourself.

THE OLEAGINOUS FEVER IN EBENSBERG.—The oil fever has at length broken out in ye ancient village, and from present indications it bids fair to soon become an epidemic. Last week a company was formed in this place, whose intention it is to immediately lease a site for a well in either Ohio or Virginia. The following are the members composing it: Robert Davis, C. T. Roberts, David Lewis, John O. Evans, John W. Roberts, Morris J. Evans, N. I. Roberts, E. J. Mills, John Roberts, R. H. Tador, Clinton R. Jones and Evan D. Evans. Messrs. John W. Roberts, David Lewis and N. I. Roberts leave this week for oldom to locate the well and commence operations. This association is called the "Ebensburg Oil Company."

A company has also been formed in this place, to test at an early day the question whether oil cannot be found in Cambria county in paying quantities. This company, we understand, will "bore" along the Blacklick in Jackson township.

We intend to keep our readers posted on the success of these and all similar companies that may grow up in our midst, and hope to soon have the pleasure of announcing that each and every one of them have "struck ile!"

LIST OF CAUSES.—The following is the list of causes set down for trial, at a Court of Common Pleas to be held at Ebensburg, for Cambria county, commencing on Monday, the fourth day of March, 1861.

Wm. Carr & Co. vs Palmer, et al.
John M'Keage vs same.
Wm. Williams, Jr. vs same.
Lloyd & Hill vs same.
McManamy vs Eb. & C. R. Co.

The continuation of "Cambria county" is deferred until next week.

THE SCHOOLS OF CAMBRIA COUNTY.—The following interesting statistics concerning the state of the Common Schools of Cambria county are taken from the State Superintendent's Report:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Value. Whole number of schools in county, 145; Number yet required, 10; Average number of months taught, 4.36; Number of teachers, (males) 112, (females) 38; Average salary of males per month, $22.34, females $20.05; Number of scholars, (males) 3,410, (females) 8,102; Average cost of teaching each scholar per month, fifty six cents.

POST OFFICE AFFAIRS.—Within the last week, Mrs. Harriet McCague, the present worthy incumbent of our Post Office, has withdrawn her petition for re-appointment as Post Master. There are now, as far as heard from, four applicants for the place, as follows: Gideon Marlett, C. T. Roberts, Maj. John Thompson and Matthias Harr. Considerable interest is being felt in the matter, and petitions are circulating in every direction. We'll bet our pile on the man who wins.

IT MUST BE TRUE.—We have often heard it remarked, by persons who ought to know—and of course it must be true—that the cheapest and best place at which to buy boots and shoes, hats and caps, ready-made clothing, notions, etc., is at the store of C. R. Jones, one door east of the Mountain House. Give him a call, and ascertain the truth of this report. His motto is "quick sales and very small profits."

LITERARY.—The question for general debate at the Ebensburg Lyceum on next Friday evening is: "Resolved, That the Government of the United States cannot make any compromise with the seceders without degrading itself in the eyes of the world." R. H. Singer will read a selection the same evening.

DEDICATION.—We are requested to announce that the Union Church, at Chest Springs borough, this county, will be dedicated to the service of Almighty God on Saturday, 9th inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M.

OUR JOHNSTOWN LETTER.

To the Editor of The Alleghanian: I have often thought that a few lines from this flourishing town would be of interest to your many readers. True, we are slightly affected with Secession proclivities, but that should be no reason why the best feeling should not prevail between us. Under this impression, I will from time to time "book" you on whatever of note may transpire.

THE "ILE" FEVER.—The oil fever is raging violently here now. Almost every day a company is formed for the purpose of exploring the bosom of Mother Earth in quest of their fortunes, and the morning salutation is, "Have you struck ile?" The companies are nearly all engaged in Venango county, but some few are at work in Virginia.

Our citizens were alarmed the other morning by the cry of "fire!" Upon repairing to the scene of disaster, we found the flames to proceed from a stable on the lot of Mr. J. J. Murphy. The adjoining buildings were speedily torn down, and the progress of the devouring element stayed. The loss is very slight.

IN TIME OF PEACE PREPARE FOR WAR.—At the meeting of the Zouave Cadets last night, thirty-four of the members signified their willingness to serve Uncle Sam at a moment's notice. Capt. Power commands this company, and a finer body of military could not be found. They are exceedingly well drilled.

THE POLITICAL CALDRON.—The state of the country is the constant theme of conversation. Go into a crowd anywhere and your ears will be greeted with, "I am for the Missouri Compromise in its purity," "I go for the Border State Propositions," "Oh, no; give us the Crittenden Compromise," while the strict Republican exclaims, "No compromise with traitors," &c. We are becoming slightly tired of this everlasting fuss, and I, for one, go for Montgomery's proposition, which is, that the members of both branches of Congress resign, and allow the People to settle the matter in their own way. The Border State Propositions meet with more favor from Republicans than any of the others.

THE ROLLING MILL.—Our mammoth mill is still in full tide of successful operation, and the prospect is very fair that it will continue so during the winter. It is the main prop of our town, and in no other place in the North would an adjustment of our National difficulties be hailed with greater delight than here.

YODER.—JOHNSTOWN, Jan. 29, 1861.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE!! We trust that those who do not now receive THE TRIBUNE will subscribe for it without delay. The club price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is so low that there are but few in any community unable to take it. Henceforth, THE TRIBUNE, as its principal paper supporting the new Administration, will be peculiarly interesting, while outside of politics its reliable Foreign and Domestic News, its Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, and its Literary Department, give to it interest and value which no other paper on this Continent can boast of. How ably and successfully THE TRIBUNE has conducted the campaign now so gloriously ended, the result in New York fully attests, and to the untiring exertions, signal capacity and foresight of HORACE GREELEY is due much of the glory of the victory over which a nation of Freemen are now rejoicing. It is, therefore, the duty of every true Republican to aid in giving THE TRIBUNE a still larger circulation. As evidence of its popularity and reliability, we may state that last week over Six Hundred Thousand copies were sold—a circumstance unprecedented in the annals of journalism.—Guardian and Gazette, Phoenixville, Pa.

TERMS: DAILY TRIBUNE, (311 issues per an.) $6.00 SEMI-WEEKLY, (104 " " " ) $3.00 WEEKLY, (52 " " " ) $2.00 TO CLUBS—SEMI-WEEKLY: Two copies for $5; Ten copies to one address, $20, and any larger number at the latter rate. Ten copies or over to address of each subscriber, $2.20 each. For a Club of Twenty, an extra copy will be sent. For a Club of Forty, we send THE DAILY TRIBUNE gratis one year. WEEKLY: Three copies, $5; Five for $8; Ten for $12, and any larger number at the rate of $1.20 each per annum, the paper to be addressed to each subscriber. To Clubs of Twenty we send an extra copy. Twenty copies to one address for $20, with one extra to him who sends us the Club. For each Club of One Hundred THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis one year.

Payment always in advance. Address THE TRIBUNE, No. 154 Nassau st., New York.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860.

Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1859, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. [seal] A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
