AN APERT and stomachic preparation of Iron, purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sana-tioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexion, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.
Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:
In Debility, Nervous Affections, Erection Dyspepsia, Consumption, Dysentery, Leucorrhoea, Catarrhs, Scrophulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Menstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute diseases, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, on trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation could convey. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emancipated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the cathartics, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of constipation, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

In this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness. It is vig-
in the most obstinate cases of constipation,
flicting a disagreeable sensation.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough and remittent hectic which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrophulous Tuberculosis this medicated Iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too consistently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress, far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of
ilities.

First Babies.
A somewhat extended observation, and a solitary experience, have convinced us that first babies have a hard time. Parents must have two or three children before they know what a baby is—how to treat it properly. The poor little fellows that have the misfortune to come along first, have to educate parents to their task, and in the process they get spanked and shaked and abused. After a man has three or four children, he learns that whipping or striking a child less than two years of age is barbarism. We knew one "paternal head" who struck his first child when only six weeks old, he actually believing the child knew better than to cry, and that he stopped crying at that particular time because he struck him. We carry certain notions of children and of family government into married life, and the first child is always the victim of these notions. And not of these alone, for the parents have not learned self-control, and a baby is whipped quite as often because the parent is impatient or angry, as because it is vicious or intractable. We inflict on our first children the floggings we ought to have for our own impatience or fretfulness.
This pounding children before they become in God's eye morally responsible, is a very strange business. Patience, good people, unwearied patience! Don't wait to learn it until one of your little ones shall be hidden under the daisies.

KING ALCOHOL USURPS THE RULE OF KING COTTON.—A gentleman recently from Charleston expressed the opinion that whiskey had a great deal to do with the Secession movement in Charleston.— The entire population, he said, seemed to be in a perpetual debauch. Bar-rooms, restaurants, stores, shops, all public places were crowded incessantly with a drunken blaspheming mob. This is the material which constitutes the principal strength of the Secession movement.

CARS FOR LIVERPOOL.—The next packet which sails for Liverpool from Philadelphia, will take out five handsomely finished passenger railway cars, which are to be used upon a Liverpool city railway.

The Nebraska Legislature passed an act abolishing slavery in that Territory, over the Governor's veto, by an almost unanimous vote.
