RAILROAD WATCHMAN KILLED .- The Pittsburg Dispatch states that on Saturday evening of last week, John Fitzgar, a watchman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was killed by being run over by a freight train at Whipporwill straight line, five miles east of Gallitzin, this county, under circumstances that give rise to suspicion that he was foully dealt with. The deceased resided at Lockport, and leaves a wife and four children. A coroner's inquest was to have been held on Monday morning.

STEAM SAW-MILL BURNED .- On Saturday night last, the steam saw-mill in Summerhill township, about two and a half miles from Portage station, owned by Jonathan Robinson, of Altoona, was completely destroyed by fire. The fire occurred about two o'clock, A. M., on Sunday morning, and as the fire in the engineroom had been extinguished at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, it is presumed to have been the work of an incendiary. We understand that threats to burn the mill had been made during the week. The property destroyed is estimated to have been worth $2000. The machinery was much damaged. The mill was a new one, Mr. Robinson having just completed the erection of the machinery. No arrests have yet been made, but it is to be hoped that the perpetrators of the dastardly deed will be brought to justice.

> THE TREASON OF GEN. TWIGGS .-Dispatches reached the War Department this morning, announcing that Gen. Twiggs had dismissed and disbanded his whole force in Texas, consisting of nearly 2500 made sugar. All hands immediately men, and left them unprovided with means of transportation. Several officers had started for home with nothing but their side arms. This act of treason has not excited any great surprise, as Gen. Twiggs' disaffection has long been suspected, and his recent appointment in the Georgia Army justified the reasonable expectation vorable opportunity. He had obtained leave of absence some time ago. No doubt is entertained that this was the result of an understanding with Jefferson or knowledge that the troops in Texas were to be ordered away. He intended to deprive the Government of their use at this time. It is unfortunate that he was not taken prisoner by some gallant and daring officer, and consigned to the doom of a traitor.

Gen. David E. Twiggs was born in Georgia, and entered the U.S. Army in 1842. The "Democratic Messenger," publish- pay me; I want to pay you!" And the He fought with distinction throughout the Mexican war. He has been in com mand of the Texas Department for seven or eight years, with occasional absence on leave. It is stated at the head quarters of the army in New York, that he had about 3000 men under his command. An official letter was received at the Quarter-Master's office in New York, three days ago, which stated that Col. Waite, who was then at Camp Verde, in Texas, would immediately relieve Gen. Twiggs when he should reach San Antonia .-The cause of Gen. Twiggs' removal was said to be his supposed disaffection to to the Government of the United States.

The shock of such a surrender of the Army property by so leading a General has been great among military and naval men in that quarter, and is ill-contrasted with the course of Maj. Anderson, the Kentuckian, who has the same political sympathies as General Twiggs. The fact that Gen. Twiggs, is thus dereliet, in order to win a Georgia commission, aggravates his insensibility to duty and

PARSON BROWNLOW continues to uphold the Union, in spite of the threats of Secessionists, who have declared that they will hang him. The Parson has designated the day he prefers for the hanging, and invites the public to witness the exhibition, promising to make a Union speech under the gallows. A late number of his paper, the Knoxville Whig, contains the following:

"God be praised for the odium already attached to secession and its advocates and for the certain prospect of their descending to a traitor's grave, and finally to a traitor's hell! The Senators of seven States have been sitting in their seats as Senators, sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, and to act as the privy counsel of the President, and at the same time they were holding secret meetings, plotting the overthrow of the Government and Constitution they had sworn to sustain and support. I consider Benediet Arnold and Aaron Burr patriots and honest men compared with these traitors and perjured villains. I certainly have no desire to live under any Government organized by such corrupt, wicked and hell-deserving men as these! This whole scheme for dissolving the Union was originated and carried out by corrupt, designing and disappointed Southern politicians, who, failing to control the Government, resolved upon its ruin. There are better men in hell, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire, than the Southern leaders in this secession movement. This I say as a Southern man, one born and raised here, and intending to live and die here. All this I will continue to say as long as I have breath to speak. or strength

WANTS TO SECEDE AGAIN .- The Richmond Whig says that nothing but the blast of ridicule which would follow, prevents South Carolina from secening from the New Southern Confederacy. It finds itself in the position of the pig which tried to break out of the field, by going through a crooked, hollow log in the fence. Both nish amazement at finding itself still in confinement, was not more amusing than the present attitude of South Carolina.

The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the hasement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense hent among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored.
