

LOCAL ECCELS.
Here—the Ides of March.
Very muddy—the streets.
About over—Winter's icy reign.
April's order to March—March forth.
Miss Louise E. Vickroy lectured at Altoona on last Thursday.

On the increase—the oil excitement in Hollidaysburg.
Excellent—the sleighing during the beginning of this week.
Answer to last enigma—"Meet him with a smile."

In town—our Quaker city cousin, Col. Geo. W. Todd. He looks well as ever.
Our worthy Representative, Hon. A. C. Mullin, was in town the latter part of last week.

Titian J. Coffey, formerly of Indiana, has been appointed Assistant Attorney General of the United States.
A new paper, to be called the Workingmen's Advocate, is shortly to be issued from Huntingdon, Pa.

What's the reason—that the Harrisburg papers do not arrive at this place until two days after date?

The body of Mr. Andrew Gross, who was drowned in the Conemaugh river, near Blairsville, some months since, was recovered last week.

The Wilmore Oil Company, we are informed, purpose boring for the carboniferous compound in a short time at a point between Summerhill and Mineral Point, this county.

WHAT EBENSBURG WANTS.—A good lively stable. A fortune, perhaps, is in store for the man who, with a small capital, enters into an investment of this sort. Who's the lucky individual that will do it? Mr. Daniel C. Zahn has retired from the Dem. & Sent., and is no longer its publisher. The publication of the paper will be continued for the present by the editor, C. D. Murray, Esq. Success to us all, friends.

The distribution of seeds at Washington has commenced, and those who desire to be supplied should send on their names immediately. These seeds are said to be the finest ever issued from the Patent Office.

On Saturday evening, James Cramer, conductor on the Hollidaysburg Branch Railroad, was presented with a beautiful gold watch as a testimonial of the esteem in which he is held by the citizens of that place.

A company of Zouaves was organized in Altoona on last Saturday night. Among the officers is Capt. Richard Crozier, formerly a citizen of this place, and a member of the Cambria Guards during the Mexican war.

The Central Relief Company of Kansas have acknowledged, per letter to Messrs. Davis & Jones, the receipt of draft for $490.17—being the amount raised in this borough and vicinity for the relief of the suffering citizens of that State.

George Talbot, convicted last week of burglary, was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for the term of four years. The stolen goods were restored to their owner, Mrs. Fromald, of Johnstown.

The connection of Col. James M. Swank with the Johnstown Tribune has ceased, he having determined to devote his whole time and attention to the duties incident to the office of County Superintendent. We are sorry to lose the Col. from the ranks, but 'tis duty calls—he must obey.

Those benevolent individuals, the patent medicine and lottery men, were in town in great profusion last week, and did a flourishing business. Strange, that folks will snap at the chance of securing a persimmon or two over and above the value of articles purchased—but such is life.

Our friend, J. Patton Thompson, formerly with Aldridge, Austin & Co., Phila., has changed his quarters, and is now domiciled with M. Morris Marple, (of the old firm of Marple, McClure & Co.,) 53 North Third street, below Arch, Phila., where he will be happy to greet his old customers. His stock consists of Notions and Fancy Goods. Purchasers will make a note.

"Honest" John Corode, the able M. C. from the Westmoreland district, came near losing his life at Washington recently by the accidental discharge of a gun. A number of his friends were sitting in his chamber, and one of them was examining a charge's rifle. While making the experiment of snapping the trigger, the rifle exploded, and the ball passed within a couple of inches of the honest John's person. Truly, a narrow escape.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—We are indebted to our friend, Geo. W. Oatman, Esq., for the annexed report of the proceedings of last week's Quarter Sessions:

Commonwealth vs Albert F. Cantwell—Indictment for wilful fraud in the discharge of his duties as Judge of an Election held in the Township of Washington, on the 12th October, 1858. True Bill. Continued.

Same vs John W. Short—Indictment for wilful fraud in the discharge of his duties as Clerk of the above Election. True Bill. 6th March, 1861. Defendant pleads not guilty, and jury called and sworn, who find him guilty in manner and form as he stands indicted.

Same vs Theodore Barnett—Sedition—True Bill. Jury find defendant not guilty, but that he pay the costs of prosecution.

Same vs Andrew Yeagley—Assault and Battery with intent to commit a Rape. True Bill. 5th March, 1861, settled by the parties, and the District Attorney enters a Nolle Prosequi.

Same vs Jonathan Rummell, Emanuel Rummell and Samuel Snyder—Malicious Mischief. True Bill. 8th March, 1861, Nolle Prosequi entered as to Snyder, and Jonathan and Emanuel Rummell plead not guilty. Jury find Jonathan Rummell guilty, and Emanuel Rummell not guilty.

Same vs Richard White and Charles Geismann—Fornication Entry and Detainer. True Bill. Nolle Prosequi entered by District Attorney on payment of costs by defendants.

Same vs Thomas E. Bebb—Fornication and Bastardy. True Bill. 7th March, 1861, settled by the parties, and District Attorney enters a Nolle Prosequi on payment of costs by defendant.

Same vs William R. Morgan—Assault and Battery. Guilty.

Same vs Catharine Reedy and Sarah Owens—Larceny. True Bill. Recognizance of Defendants forfeited.

Same vs Joseph Rager and Polly Rager—Assault and Battery. Not a true bill, and the prosecutor, Nancy J. Rager, pay the costs.

Same vs James Weakland—Larceny. True Bill.

Same vs Wesley Spires and George Champenour—Assault and Battery, and Assault and Battery with intent to kill. Verdict guilty as to the first count, and not guilty as to the second.

SONG FOR THE TIMES.—In these days of secession, contention and universal confusion, it may not be amiss to bring to mind some of our good old National songs. Nothing so fires patriotic blood as the recital in verse of the glory of one's country. Sing this, and resolve, come war or woe, to defend the honor of the Red, White and Blue so long as one shred clings to another or one star is discernible:

O Columbia, the gem of the ocean,
The home of the brave and the free:
The shrine of each patriot's devotion,
A world offers homage to thee.

Thy mandate make heroes assemble,
When Liberty's form stands in view,
Thy banners make tyrants tremble,
When borne by the Red, White and Blue.

When war winged its wide desolation,
And threatened the land to deform,
The ark then of freedom's foundation,
Columbia rode safe through the storm;
With her garlands of victory around her,
When so proudly she bore her brave crew,
With her flag proudly floating before her,
The host of the Red, White and Blue.

The wine-cup, the wine-cup bring hither,
And fill you true to the brim;
May the wreaths they have won never wither,
Nor the star of their glory grow dim.
May the service united ne'er sever,
But they to their colors prove true—
The army and navy for ever,
Three cheers for the Red, White and Blue.

THE PEACH CROP.—Our exchanges give the most discouraging accounts with regard to the perspective peach crop of 1861, throughout the State. They say that the severe weather immediately succeeding the warm and genial days which marked the advent of March completely nipped the fruit in the bud, and that the peach crop will be an entire failure. We have heard none of our fruit growers' views on the subject, but presume that Cambria county will not be an exception to the general rule.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—On last Monday, the contract for the erection of the Ebensburg and Cresson Branch Railroad depot building was awarded to Evan E. Evans, (Shoemaker.) The terms of the contract have not yet been made public. The building is to be completed again the first day of June, at which time the road is expected to be in complete running order.

EASTER.—This annual festival occurs this year on the last, or 31st, day of the present month. Easter was celebrated by our pagan ancestors in April, as a festival in honor of Eostre, the Saxon goddess of love, or Venus of the North. It is now observed as a festival in commemoration of our Saviour's resurrection, and answers to the Hebrew Passover.

PUGILISTIC.—Two individuals had a regular "knock down" the other day, immediately opposite a cellar which was being dug, and which was partly filled with water. During the affray, the hat of one of the combatants was pitched into the water, the result being the ruination of said hat. After this episode, the fight progressed in good earnest; but without entering into detail, they "fit and gouged and bit" until they both got tired. Whereupon, pugilist who had lost his hat proposed to settle the difficulty providing the other pugilist would furnish him a new hat. This was agreed to, hostilities ceased, and the upshot of the affair was that Clinton R. Jones made a sale of one of those elegant Hungarian tiles which everybody wears nowadays. He has a large assortment of the same and other styles yet on hand, which he will sell cheap.

Agents wanted to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $50 per month, and expenses paid. The ERIE is a new machine and very simple in its construction. A diploma was awarded our Machine by the Industrial Association of Farmers and Mechanics, held at Chambersburg, Pa., at its exhibition in 1859, over the Grover & Baker, and Boudoir Machines. It is equal to any machine in use, and the price is but fifteen dollars. Address R. JAMES, General Agent E. S. M. Co., Milan, Ohio. [mar. 14.]

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE!!
We trust that those who do not now receive THE TRIBUNE will subscribe for it without delay. The club price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is so low that there are but few in any community unable to take it. Henceforth, THE TRIBUNE, as the principal paper supporting the new Administration, will be peculiarly interesting, while outside of politics its reliable Foreign and Domestic News, its Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, and its Literary Department, give to it interest and value which no other paper on this Continent can boast of. How ably and successfully Tammany has conducted the campaign now so gloriously ended, the result in New York fully attests, and to the untiring exertions, signal capacity and foresight of HONORABLE GALELLI is due much of the glory of the victory over which a nation of free men are now rejoicing. It is, therefore, the duty of every true Republican to aid in giving THE TRIBUNE a still larger circulation. As evidence of its popularity and reliability, we may state that last week over Six Hundred Thousand copies were sold—a circumstance unprecedented in the annals of journalism.—Guardian and Gazette, Phoenixville, Pa.
Terms:—
DAILY TRIBUNE, (311 issues per an.) $6.00
SEMI-WEEKLY, (104 " " " ") $3.00
WEEKLY, (52 " " " ") $2.00
TO CLUBS—SEMI-WEEKLY: Two copies for $5; Ten copies at the latter rate. Ten copies or over to address of each subscriber, $2.20 each. For a Club of Twenty, an extra copy will be sent. For a Club of Forty, we send THE DAILY TRIBUNE gratis one year. WEEKLY: Three copies, $5; Five for $8; Ten for $12, and any larger number at the rate of $1.20 each per annum, the paper to be addressed to each subscriber. To Clubs of Twenty we send an extra copy. Twenty copies to one address for $20, with one extra to him who sends us the Club. For each Club of One Hundred THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis one year.
Payment always in advance.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860.
Messrs. EVANS and WATSON, GETTYSBURG.—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 26th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my bill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat which by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from me.
Yours Respectfully,
SAMUEL HANCK.
