

MISCELLANY.

HOME CONVERSATION.—Children hunger perpetually for new ideas, and the most pleasant way of reception is the voice and the ear, not the eye and the printed page.

A BIRD'S SENSE OF DANGER.—The power of judging of actual danger, and the free and easy boldness which results from it, are by no means uncommon.

A WISE LANDLORD.—One night, a judge, a military officer, and a minister all applied for lodging at an inn where there was but one spare bed, and the landlord was called upon to decide which had the best claim of the three.

"I have lain fifteen years in the garrison at B." said the officer.

"I have sate as a judge twenty years in R." said the judge.

"With your leave, gentlemen, I have stood in the ministry twenty-five years at N." said the minister.

"That settles the dispute," said the landlord. "You, Mr. Captain, have lain fifteen years; you, Mr. Judge, have sate twenty years; but the aged pastor has stood five-and-twenty years, so he certainly has the best right to the bed."

The right man in the right place—a husband at home in the evening.

FOR JOB PRINTING OF ALL KINDS, GO TO "THE ALLEGHIAN" OFFICE.

AN APERIENT and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute diseases, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, on trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of constiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Bilis, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough and remittent hectic which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrophulous Tuberculosis this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness. No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes, containing 50 pills. Price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on the receipt of the price. All letters, orders, &c., should be addressed to R. B. LOCKE & Co., General Agents, 20 Cedar street, N. Y. May 31, 1860-tf

Henceforth, THE TRIBUNE, as the principal paper supporting the new Administration, will be peculiarly interesting, while outside of politics its reliable Foreign and Domestic News, its Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, and its Literary Department, give to it interest and value which no other paper on this Continent can boast of. How ably and successfully THE TRIBUNE has conducted the campaign now so gloriously ended, the result in New York fully attests, and to the untiring exertions, signal capacity and foresight of HORACE GREELEY is due much of the glory of the victory over which a nation of Freemen are now rejoicing.

It is, therefore, the duty of every true Republican to aid in giving THE TRIBUNE a still larger circulation.
