PHILADELPHIA LOYAL TO THE UNION.

Mayor Henry has issued the following proclamation:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA.—PROCLAMATION.—Citizens of Philadelphia.—Treason against the State of Pennsylvania, or against the United States, will not be suffered within this city; nor will violence to the persons or property of the inhabitants be tolerated.

I do hereby require all good citizens to disclose and make known to the lawful authorities every person rendering, in this city, aid to enemies in open war against this State and the United States by enlisting and procuring others to enlist for that purpose, or by furnishing such enemies with arms, ammunition, provisions or other assistance.

I do hereby require and command that all persons shall refrain from assembling in the highways of this city, unlawfully, riotously or tumultuously, warning them that the same will be at their peril. The laws of our State and Federal Government must be obeyed—the peace and credit of Philadelphia shall be preserved. May God save our Union. Given under the seal of the city of Philadelphia, this sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

ALEXANDER HENRY, Mayor of Philadelphia.

PRESIDENT DAVIS' PROCLAMATION.

MONTGOMERY, April 18.—President Davis has issued a proclamation, giving notice that the Government will issue letters of marque and reprisals against the commerce of the North. The proclamation concludes as follows:—"And I do moreover solemnly exhort all good people of these Confederate States, as they love their country, as they feel the wrongs of the past, and those now threatened, in an aggravated form, by those whose enmity is more implacable because unprovoked, that they exert themselves in preserving order, in promoting concord, in maintaining the authority and efficiency of the laws, and in supporting and invigorating all the measures which may be adopted for the common defense, and by which, under the blessings of Divine Providence, we may hope for a speedy, just and honorable peace."

Agents wanted to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $60 per month, and expenses paid. The Erie is a new machine and very simple in its construction. A diploma was awarded our Machine by the Industrial Association of Farmers and Mechanics, held at Chambersburg, Pa., at its exhibition in 1860, over the Grover & Baker, and Boudoir Machines. It is equal to any machine in use, and the price is but fifteen dollars. Address R. JAMES, General Agent E. S. M. Co., Milan, Ohio [mar.1-4]

FOR JOB PRINTING OF ALL KINDS, 60 75 "THE ALLEGHIANIAN" OFFICE

D. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. The experience of thousands daily, proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz: In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Jaundice, Consumption, Scrophulous Tuberculosis, Spleen, Rheumatism, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In Cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute diseases, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, on trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very singular instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inducing a disagreeable sensation. It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness. Unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough and remittent hectic which generally indicate Scrophulous Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrophulous Tuberculosis this medicated iron has far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them. In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness. No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes, containing 50 pills. Price 50 cents per box; is free to any druggist and dealer. Will be sent free to any address on the receipt of the price. All letters, orders, &c., should be addressed to R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents, 20 Cedar street, N. Y. May 31, 1860-ly

How ably and successfully THE TRIBUNE has conducted the campaign now so gloriously ended, the result in New York fully attests, and to the untiring exertions, signal capacity and foresight of Hon. GEORGE L. DEXTER, in this much of the glory of the victory over which a nation of freemen are now rejoicing. It is, therefore, the duty of every true Republican to aid in giving THE TRIBUNE a still larger circulation.
