Piper is in no manner connected with the military companies that have been organized. We are inclined to the belief that the Bulletin has been slightually sold.

TIDIOUTE .- The following is an extract from a letter from an Ebensburgher now in Tidioute-the great oil region-to a friend in this place:

* * * "The celebrated oleaginous village, Tidioute, is quite a pleasant little place. It is situated along the bank of the Allegheny River, and is about one and a half miles long One peculiarity about the town is, that it is all wide and no long. Two military companies -one infantry and the other cavalry-have been organized here. They are well drilled well disciplined and fine-looking men. The war, however, has played smasl with the oil business, and not one-half th wells are being pumped. Prices are so low that it won't pay. * * Tidioute is the best place in the world in which to make a rapid fortune or secure a sudden break."

PHILADELPHIA.—A friend, writing from Philadelphia, gives the following description of the celebrated Bill M'Mullin's company of volunteers, recently formed in

"A military company has been formed in this city, headed by Bill M'Mullin, the renowned rowdy, numbering one hundred men. The members are selected from the cut-throats and blacklegs of the city, and a 'harder' looking set of men could not be picked up on the ace of the earth. In fact, they are not afraid the very old gentleman with hoofs and horns himself. They have sworn to stand by each other through all hazards, and have also sworn to take the head of Jefferson Davis to Washington City. They will do terrible exe cution in a hand-to-hand encounter."

MILITARY .- The complete list of the Regimental and Staff Officers of the 3d Regiment is as follows:-Colonel F. P. Minier, Lt. Colonel J. M. Power, Major O. M. Irwin, Adjutant J. C. CALEBSMITH ON THE WAR QUESTION. FINO THE LADIES .-

OILIANA, May 6, 1861. To the Editor of The Alleghanian:

I feel ferocious. In short, I am angrified. Inflamed. Belligerent. Beyond description. And I won't be mollified. And not much wonder.

After we had brightened up our rusty muskets: scripturally speaking, with a well-timed improvation, "converted our pruning-hooks into swords;" after we had packed our respective kits and caboodles; and after we had gone through with the necessary amount of hand-shaking and shed numerous pints of irrepressible briny tears-after we had done all these, besides a little thing of mine in the shape of a farewell speech that I had delivered-atter all these episodes, I say, and just as we were about to depart from Oilianian scenes of happiness, I received the following telegram. Blasted hopes and broken victuals! Boo-h-o-o-oo! Read it with a sigh and a bowel of compassion. For hope deferred maketh the heart sick : and that's our fix.

CAPT. C. SMITH, Oiliana, Pa .- I have the honor to inform you that your noble Company, the "Oiliana Guards," is not needed at resent. Cause-more soldiers on hand now than would be required to run the entire body of Rebels into the Atlantic Ocean, the Gulf of Mexico, or the Chesapeake Bay.

hoisted over Esquire Palmer's Hotel on last Wednesday. The ceremony was intensely impressive, and was witnessed by a large assemblage of persons. After the banner had been successfully thrown to the breeze, Miss Josephine Palmer (a daughter of Mr. P.) was introduced to the crowd, and made a neat and patriotic little speech, in which she counselled her hearers, both old and young, to stand by their country and their country's flag until the last Traitor had bit the dust.

Huntington, Jan. 25, 1860 .- 3m. CARD.

Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN-The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 26th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and represeting a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many hystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from Yours Respectfully.
