

LOCAL AND PERSONAL. THE CAMBRIA COUNTY COURT WILL CONVENE ON NEXT MONDAY, JUNE 3, 1861.

LOCAL ETCHINGS.—Rather coolish—the weather. The rage—black oilcloth military caps. Wild pigeons are said to be very plenty in this neighborhood.

Mr. Morris Keil has been appointed Post Master for Wilmore, this county. The expenditure per week of the Soldiers' Relief Committee of Johnstown is about two hundred dollars.

The communication of "Amicus" was mislaid last week. It is too old for publication now. The Ebensburg and Munster Railroad will be in running order by the first of June.

George Rushaberger was next brought forward. Herron testified that defendant sold him five dollars' worth of counterfeit money. Held in $2,000 bail.

Philip Williams was discharged from custody, there being no evidence against him. Subsequently to this, Geo. R. Slick, an innkeeper at Slicksville, three miles from Johnstown, was arrested on the same charge as above.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.—It is proposed by some of our exchanges that the coming Fourth of July be celebrated in a real old fashioned style throughout the entire length and breadth of our land.

Quartermaster Jacob M. Campbell, of the "Gallant Third Regiment," is emphatically the right man in the right place. Within the last few days the forest has been out in a mantle of living green, and vegetation generally is looking upward.

Mr. Moses Bell, residing near Indiana, has been seized with a fit of insanity, occasioned by excitement upon military affairs. Last week he stopped a citizen of Indiana, who was riding a short distance out of town, and presenting a pistol, demanded two hundred dollars as military contribution.

It will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere that Mrs. Elizabeth Stahl will continue the business of repairing watches, clocks, jewelry, &c., at the old stand of Jacob Stahl, dec'd.

THE JOHNSTOWN COUNTERFEITERS.—DISPOSAL OF THE PARTIES.—As we noticed last week, Joseph Shoemaker, Geo. Rushaberger, L. S. Montgomery, D. W. Goughenour and Philip Williams, of Johnstown, and Elijah Fuller, of Maryland, were arrested in Johnstown on Tuesday of last week.

Everything being in readiness, on Tuesday morning, officers Dougherty, Hague, Fox, Pender and Butler were despatched to Johnstown, and succeeded in arresting the above named parties. On them was found a considerable quantity of counterfeit coin and bills.

On Wednesday, the examination of Goughenour came up. Officer Hague testified to finding counterfeit coin in defendant's store, and Constable Herron testified to defendant's acknowledging to him that he had spurious dollars for sale.

Joseph Shoemaker was next brought up. Officers Butler and Pender testified to finding spurious money on defendant and in his house. Held in $2,000 bail.

George Rushaberger was next brought forward. Herron testified that defendant sold him five dollars' worth of counterfeit money. Held in $2,000 bail.

Philip Williams was discharged from custody, there being no evidence against him. Subsequently to this, Geo. R. Slick, an innkeeper at Slicksville, three miles from Johnstown, was arrested on the same charge as above.

WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE in the one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair.

Applied according to directions, it will turn up or towy hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed. Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Ointment" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail, (direct) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.18. Apply to or address HORACE L. HEGEMAN & CO., Druggists, &c., 24 William street, New York.

A CARD.—WILMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp., July 30, 1860.

Messrs. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN.—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner.

This safe, containing all my books, together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored.

This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
