

From Our Volunteers.

ARRIVAL AT CAMP WRIGHT—SOMERSET BOYS—SETTING UP HOUSEKEEPING—BLANKETS—REGULATIONS—DIVINE SERVICE IN CAMP—STRAWBERRY OFFICERS—THE GIRLS WE LEFT BEHIND US—TO "CATALPA."

CAMP WRIGHT, June 16, 1861. We arrived in camp at 2 o'clock P. M. on Wednesday, 12th inst., after a journey of about eight hours, during which nothing of interest occurred.

A company of Somerset boys, bound for Camp Wilkins, got on the train at Ebensburg. They were fine looking fellows, and appeared as if a little bit of fighting would come altogether in their train.

After parting with them at Pittsburg, we took the cars on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, and were soon in camp. Here we dined for the first time, on crackers and pies. This operation over, we commenced putting up tents, and by 5 or 6 o'clock had ourselves pretty comfortably fixed for a camp sleep.

We next partook of a regular old-supper of beans, pork, beef, potatoes, crackers and coffee, served up on pine boards—all but the coffee, which was distributed in tin-cups. We were minus plates for a couple of days, but that didn't lessen the novelty of camp life—on the contrary, it rather added to it.

What we stand most in need of now are blankets. The first few nights after our arrival were cold—rather cold, in fact, to sleep on bare boards without covering; but notwithstanding this, not a murmur was heard from any of the company. The majority of us have made arrangements to provide ourselves with haps, blankets, etc., so that we will shortly be enabled to wear "fired nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," without danger of getting our toes frost-bitten in the meantime.

The regulations of the camp have been some of the best heretofore, but much stricter orders were issued last night, which will have the effect of producing a new system in our midst. Today being Sunday, several ministers of the Gospel are in camp. Divine service was held in the quarters of the Erie Regiment, the sermon being delivered by their Chaplain.

We are all in good health and splendid spirits. We have plenty to eat, good spring water to drink, and a nice cool breeze to invigorate us. The company has been called out several times to disperse crowds and quell riots. Yesterday evening we were out on a dress parade. With regard to our officers, it is the general sentiment of the company that a better or more worthy set of men could not have been selected to fill their respective offices. Should any of our Cambria army friends pay a visit to Camp Wright, they will find Captain Litzinger and his lieutenants where all good officers should be—with their men.

The ladies of Ebensburg (God bless them!) have our heartfelt thanks for many favors. The havelocks, pocket caps, pins, needles, etc., with which they provided us are very useful in our present situation. May the lot of each and every one of them eventually be that for which we are fighting—Union forever! To the fair authors of the poetical effusions dedicated to us in the last Alleghenian, the Cambria Guards would say—your hearts' fairest tablets your name may be seen, among the loved ones of our own native hills, being by a wreath of friendship as green as those that encircle our own mountain hills.

HONORABLE EXONERATION.—By request, we publish the annexed document, which it will be seen that Mr. Clinton Jones has been honorably exonerated from service in the Cambria Guards. We state, of our own knowledge, that nothing but circumstances over which he had no control prevented Mr. J. from going forth with the company of which he is a member.

EBENSBURG, June 11th 1861. This is to certify that Clinton R. Jones is honorably exonerated from accompanying the Cambria Guards in their campaign. ROBT. LITZINGER, Captain.

MUSTER ROLL.—The following is a correct list of the officers and men composing the Cambria Guards:

THE FOURTH OF JULY.—A public meeting was held at Altoona on the 4th inst., for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of holding a grand Union celebration, to be participated in by citizens of Blair, Cambria and Huntingdon counties, irrespective of politics or religion, on the Fourth. The following gentlemen were named on the Committee of Arrangements for this county: E. Hughes, A. C. Mullin, Ebensburg; Wm. R. Hughes, Wilmore; E. Nutter, Gallitzin.

NEWS DEPOT.—Master Robert Thompson has opened out a news depot at the Post Office, where he is in daily receipt of the very latest Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York newspapers. He keeps also on hand a large and splendid assortment of national envelopes, note paper, red-white-and-blue collars for ladies and gentlemen, etc., etc. An appreciative public should give the "Doctor" the encouragement he deserves in his enterprise.

MARRIED.—On Thursday, 13th inst., by the Rev. L. R. Powell, Mr. JOHN O. EVANS to Miss LYDIA DAVIS, both of this place. Accompanying the above notice came a large and delicious cake, for which we return our thanks, coupled with the hope that the happy couple may enjoy to the fullest extent their measure of conjugal bliss.

EPISTOLARY ADVICE.—If you have a son, or a brother, or a cousin, or a friend in the army, write to him often as possible. Nothing is more highly prized by the soldier than a letter from the dear ones at home. Likewise, send him plenty of late papers. By these means you will greatly enliven the dull tedium of lying in camp, besides convincing him that although absent he is not forgotten.

INDIANA COUNTY.—The Indiana National Guards, Capt. Porter, of Indiana borough, left for Camp Wright on the 10th inst.—The Washington Blues, Capt. Nesbit, of Blairsville, took up their line of march on the same day for the same rendezvous.—R. C. Taylor has been appointed Post Master of Indiana, in the place of J. E. Coulter.

NOW IS THE TIME!—At this particular juncture, when the thermometer ranges in the nineties in the shade, the duty devolves on all good citizens to "keep cool." Now, how can this be better done than by costuming yourself in one of C. R. Jones' light, aerial suits of summer clothing?—Mind the location—High street, two doors west of the Arcade.

HAVELOCKS.—Miss Dix writes that if the ladies desire to do the soldiers a real service they should make Havelocks.—She says, "I never can have too many. Should any one ask what they shall do for the soldiers at a cheap rate, say, make Havelocks." The ladies should respond to this request.

IN LUCK.—We are happy to learn that our young friend, Peter L. Linton, has received a situation in the Suttle's department of the Tenth regiment. Higher honors await him.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—The July number of this popular monthly is already on our table. In addition to its usual quantity of reading matter, steel engravings and fashion plates, it contains two splendid colored patterns, one of which is a "Stars and Stripes" bed-quilt. As a new volume begins with July, this is a good opportunity to subscribe. The price of Peterson is only Two Dollars a year. To clubs, three copies for Five Dollars, or eight copies for Ten Dollars, with a superb premium to the getter-up of the club.—Specimens sent gratis to persons desirous of getting up clubs. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut st., Phila.

WILMORE.—The following is the new Schedule on the Pennsylvania Railroad, at Wilmore station, which went into operation on Monday, the 10th inst: WILMORE STATION. West—Express Train leaves at 8.33 A. M. " East Line " " 9.07 P. M. " Mail Train " " 8.02 P. M. East—Express Train " " 3.42 A. M. " East Line " " 7.30 P. M. " Mail Train " " 9.45 A. M. [*The Fast Line West does not stop.]

This volume comprises the six best numbers of the year, and will contain seven steel engravings, six of the large double extension fashion-plates, and all the winter cloak patterns. Address L. A. JOHN SMITH, Care Capt. Litzinger, "Cambria Guards," Camp Wright, Altoona Station, Allegheny county, Pa.

JACK FROST.—We have had several visits from this obnoxious individual during the past week, but with no ill result to vegetation. The prospects for an abundant harvest throughout the county were never better than at the present time.

APPOINTED.—Wm. Williams, of Blair county, has been appointed Major in the regular army.

A CARD.—

WITMEN'S BRIDES. Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill, which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in even perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. [se13] A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand, and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 394 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
