BRANDY IN CAMP—EXCITEMENT AND DISAPPOINTMENT—SPOILING FOR A FIGHT—WOULD GO TO CHURCH BUT DIDN'T—VISITORS—AS ACCEPTABLE PRESENT FROM HOME—ABOUT THE EBENSBURGIAN EXODUS FOR CAMP WRIGHT ON "THE FOURTH," &c., &c.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

CAMP WRIGHT, June 23, 1861.

I sat myself beneath the spreading branches of a scrubby oak to pen you a few lines. To-day (Sunday) is delightful beyond description. While old Sol's rays shine perpendicularly on Mother Earth, a strong breeze from the neighboring hills tempers the heat, and renders the liability of sun-stroke very improbable. Groups of soldiers may be seen leisurely lounging in the shade of the apple-trees, whiling away the hours in various ways. Quite a number are reading religious books, some studying tactics, some singing and reading military songs, others writing to the loved ones at home, while here and there parties may be seen amusing themselves with a quiet game of "four-handed whist."

Nothing of importance occurred in camp during the week until yesterday, when a dispatch was received ordering Cols. Hays and M'Lane to march with their respective regiments within six hours. The excitement the news created was very great, especially among those who were to leave us. The camp was in a perfect turmoil; our sunrise and sunset six-pounder was fired twice, and the Erie boys gave cheer upon cheer. But about the time the majority of them were in marching trim, the orders were countermanded!—Imagine the surprise and disappointment of the expectant soldiers—if you can! They were considerably consoled, however, by the arrival on the 12 o'clock train of a number of young ladies from Kittanning, who brought with them baskets filled with cakes, pies, etc. As a matter of course, a social picnic was the next thing on the programme.

Several of the companies were ready to march twenty minutes after the dispatch was received, and they declare that they will not unpack again until they are either in the field of action or at home. It is rumored that they will be called out very soon, perhaps to-morrow.

Our boys are in good health, and, as far as I can learn, enjoy themselves hugely. Eighteen of them started early this morning to attend Catholic church, but, after trudging about four miles, they found to their disappointment that they had gone toward the wrong point of the compass—that the church was just four miles the other direction from camp.

Camp is thronged daily with visitors, who add greatly to its homelike appearance. On Thursday last, our esteemed friend and fellow-townsmen, Geo. J. Rodgers, paid us a visit. The boys were greatly pleased to see him, he being the first Ebensburg-er that has yet dropped in on us. We are the recipients of continued favors from home. The last item of this kind that came to hand was in the shape of a keg of good, sweet, fresh butter, weighing about a hundred pounds, for which the Cambria Guards return their most sincere thanks.

We learn by letters received in camp that a large delegation from Ebensburg intended paying us a visit on the 4th. We can assure them that they will be kindly greeted, and we venture the opinion that they will not be entirely displeased with their present appearance as gay sojourners. Come, by all means.

K.

Extract from a Private Letter dated CAMP WRIGHT, June 22, 1861:—

The Cambria Guards were examined on Thursday by the Medical Board, and seven rejected on account of physical imperfections. ... Carney, our fiddler, contributes largely to the general good humor of the boys. He is death on cat-gut. We are all well, and perfectly satisfied with the change in our mode of life. The temperature here is somewhat higher than at Ebensburg, but the evenings are cool and pleasant. ... Our provisions are excellent, and plenty of them.

Not Est.—The Cambria Guards have just been "sworn in," so that those who are inclined can "vamosé" the camp with impunity. The latest cases of this kind were those of Messrs. Marquet, Ruffert, Will and Courad.

THE COMING "FOURTH."—Inasmuch as it appears that the good and patriotic people of Ebensburg are too much engaged in matters of business and affairs of State to take any note whatever of the approach of the natal day of American Independence—thus making it highly probable that that "great and glorious occasion" will be allowed to come and go without the usual flourish of trumpets—which, by way of parenthesis, would not be very much to our credit as National and patriotic American sovereigns,—therefore, our well-known friend and fellow-citizen, Bitters, who is emphatically the right man in the right place, has made all the necessary arrangements and is determined to uphold the reputation of our town by giving an extended and elaborate "celebration" after the manner of Lang Syne, and otherwise having a gay old time all by himself. The following is the order of the day as at present constituted. Our readers will perceive that it embraces a variety of rare conceptions and big things, all of which Mr. B. and assistants promise, weather permitting, to fulfill:

"EBENSBURG!—CELEBRATION!—OYEZ!! KNOW ALL MEN, WOMEN, &c.

At 5 o'clock, A. M., a Merry Peal will be rung on the various Bells in the East Ward.

At 5 1/2 A. M., Trinitinnabulatory Exercise in West Ward, as before, only louder.

6 A. M.—Salute from a Big Gun; Detonation and Reverberation, accompanied with noise from one Bass Drum.

6 1/2 A. M.—GRAND SPECTACLE—Ebensburgers arising from Bed and Shaking themselves.

BREAKFAST.

8 A. M.—Grand Procession through town and around suburbs.

10 A. M.—In order to inculcate a martial spirit in the rising generation, the subscriber will swallow a huge Cannon-ball and wash it down with one Boomeranger.

11 A. M.—Grand Old Fashioned Meeting in The Park, when the subscriber will read the Declaration of Independence, deliver a Union and American Eagle-d address, and drink Thirteen Toasts standing, and Twenty-one sitting—in all Thirty-four.

BIG DINNER.

1 P. M.—The subscriber will sing Yankee Doodle and the Star Spangled Banner, in the execution of both of which he excels.

2 P. M.—Terrific Salute with Pocket Pistols; after which will be re-enacted the High Old Injun Delirioso all on the Gellorioso 4th.

3 P. M.—As our military companies have gone to the War, the subscriber has organized a company pro tem, called the Allegheny Mountain Bushwhackers, which will go thro' the various evolutions and contortions.

4 P. M.—The subscriber in his original and unapproachable Tight-rope Performance, entitled "Played Out," the same being a handsome and effective burlesque on the precarious vaulting and lofty but unavailing tumbling of Jeff Davis, Esq., in his endeavors to secure a compulsory lease of the White House for an indefinite period. Also, his Sad End—on a Single String.

SUPPER.

After dusk, a splendid display of Fireworks will be had.

The Affair to wind up with an Impressive and Touching Imbination, up the middle, down the sides, and all around the premises.

Come one, come all.

(Signed) BITTERS.

—Should the citizens of Ebensburg yet show a disposition to do the fair thing by the coming "Fourth," rather than have a muss about it Bitters proposes to quash the above programme and give his countenance and support to the new enterprise.

TROUT FISHING EXTRAORDINARY.—On Monday of last week, five hale fellows well met, to wit: Joe and Jim Thompson, Tom M'Namara, Clint Jones and Aleck Moore, departed from our midst on a trout-fishing expedition to Bobb's Creek, in Bedford county. They took their own provision, etc., with them, and camped out in the wilderness—in real pioneer style. After a pleasant stay of four days, they returned, bringing with them about fifty dozen as large and luscious "shiners" as we ever beheld. Fifty dozen trout—speckled and shining brook trout—that's pretty good fishing for two days, (for the balance of the time was employed in transporting themselves thither and hither.)—As good fellows generally do, on their return the lucky sportsmen presented us with a large and respectable share of the spoils, for which they have our thanks coupled with the wish that they may often go trout-fishing with a like result.

IN TOWN.—Capt. Litzinger, of the Cambria Guards, was in town several days during the latter part of last week and the beginning of the present. He came on a recruiting tour, in consequence of several of his men having absconded since the arrival of the company at camp. He was eminently successful in his errand, having secured the requisite number of men (twelve we believe) without the least difficulty. They departed for Camp Wright on Tuesday morning.

LECTURE.—Rt. Reverend M. Dominec, D. D., Bishop of Pittsburgh, will deliver a Lecture in St. Patrick's church, in this place, on Sunday evening next. Hour, 5 P. M. Subject, "The Inquisition."

ROBBED.—Mr. Geo. J. Rodgers, of this place, was robbed in Pittsburgh the other day of ninety dollars in money and a gold watch.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday, the 18th inst., by the Rev. John Wallace, Mr. C. T. ROBERTS, of this place, to Miss BECKIE M. ROGERS, of Churchtown, Lancaster county, Pa.

There it goes again! Another of our gay and gallant young bachelors done for—

"One more Rashly importunate, Gone—and got married!"

Well, we presume it is all right—in fact, we know it is. And such being the case, we herewith tender the happy couple our congratulations. May their present happiness never pall upon the sense; may their future be brilliant and unclouded; and may they live to see their children's children rise up and call them blessed.—In short, may their wedded life prove a perpetual honey moon—a Paradise below.

—For the remembrance in the shape of a gold dollar we beg leave to sign ourselves, Yours, Truly.

COOL AS A ZEPHYR.—Who would live in Dixie, now that the dog-days are coming? Down there the thermometer gets as high as it pleases—sometimes ranging at 110° and 120°. 120° in the shade! Ah!—doesn't that cause a person to think of summer duds! We should think so. Talking of summer wear, the reader should go to C. R. Jones' store and buy a suit of his aerial clothing, which will enable you, notwithstanding the heat of the atmosphere, to keep cool as a zephyr.

LIBERAL.—Several of our citizens, with a liberality worthy of all praise, last week purchased and shipped to "our boys" at Camp Wright a keg of prime butter.—This is an article of diet that is not often obtained in camp life, and will doubtless be keenly relished by the recipients. We understand that it is the fixed determination of our good people to do the same kindness by the soldiers each week.

STICK A PIN HERE.—Should any of our readers desire a good illustrated paper, giving accurate representations of everything of interest that transpires in the great War for the Union, they should call at the Post Office, where Doctor Thompson can accommodate them. He also keeps on hand a large stock of National envelopes—a popular article nowadays.

WHAT IS RED TAPE?—"Red Tape" is an English expression, originated by Carlyle and made popular by Dickens, designed to represent the ceremonious delays and official formalities characteristic of the British Governmental routine. It is similarly used in this country to ridicule the tardiness with which everything is effected by the formalism of government officials.

FOR THE SOLDIERS ON THE "FOURTH."—We are requested to state that a box of provisions and delicacies of various kinds, in sufficient quantity to afford the entire company a luxurious "feed," will be sent to the Cambria Guards at Camp Wright on the Fourth of July. Those wishing to donate anything for this purpose are respectfully requested to do so.

ABOUT OIL.—The three agents of the Ebensburg Oil Company, Messrs. Roberts, Lewis and Roberts, who have been boring for oil in Ohio for several months past, returned last week. They report that they bored two wells, in each of which they were so fortunate as to "strike it." They have not yet tested the yield, but intend returning shortly to do so.

SO MUCH.—The Ebensburg Division of Sons of Temperance are making arrangements to celebrate in a becoming manner the eighty-fifth anniversary of our National Independence. From the public spirit that has more than once been manifested by this society, we may count on something appropriate to the occasion.

IN LUCK.—We hear it stated that Maj. James D. Hamilton, of Wilmore, has been placed in command of one of the Government trains now advancing on Harper's Ferry from Chambersburg. The right man in the right place.

THIRTY THOUSAND.—Among the list of bidders for the three million State loan appears the name of Quartermaster Jacob M. Campbell, of Johnstown, who goes in to the tune of $30,000. Bully for Campbell!—money ain't so scarce after all!

PRINTER IN LUCK.—The Standard says that Judge Jones, of the Hollidaysburg Register, has been appointed to a twelve-hundred dollar clerkship in the War Department by Simon Cameron.—He deserves all this, and more.

COL. MINIER, of Hollidaysburg, at present Colonel of the 3d Pa. Regiment, has been appointed a Captain in the regular army.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860.

MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me.

Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand, and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
