

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

From Our Volunteers.

In lieu of the letter of our regular correspondent from Camp Wright, which failed to come to hand this week, we present to our readers a few extracts from a couple of private letters received from the soldiers:—

BUDGET OF NEWS FROM OUR SOLDIERS—STRAWES AND ITEMS OF INTEREST.

CAMP WRIGHT, June 30, 1861.

Nothing of material interest has occurred here lately. The discipline is much stricter in camp now than formerly, in consequence of some of the soldiers having taken too much outside liberty. The Cambria Guards get their full share of guard duty, and, as I think, a little more. There are about forty companies here sworn into the three years' service, three of which are detailed each day as camp-guard. By this ratio our company should be called out only once in thirteen days; but instead of such being the case we have been detailed twice during the same week. This is unfair, and it is clearly the duty of the officers of the day to see that such occurrences do not again happen. The Cambria Guards were sworn in for three years, unless sooner discharged, on last Tuesday. Benjamin Rodgers, George Williams, Milton Hoffman and John Longenecker were honorably discharged an account of there being an excess in our ranks. Another important duty was also performed the same day.—The entire company, from the Captain down, were marched to the hospital and then there vaccinated. It is probable that we will be armed and uniformed by the 4th of July. Maj. Gen. M'Call and staff visited our camp on Friday, and reviewed the troops. We made quite a seditious appearance.

THE CAMBRIA GUARDS SWORN IN—THEIR MANLY BEARING—NO ONE FLINCHES.

CAMP WRIGHT, June 26, 1861.

Capt. Litzinger arrived yesterday with a dozen as fine looking recruits as could be found in the State, all brimful of enthusiasm. The company were immediately called together and marched to headquarters, to be "sworn in." Upon counting noses, we found that we numbered 51 men—four more than could be received.—Lieut. Hall, the mustering officer sent here by the State, then read some of the "Articles of War," assuring us that death was the penalty of desertion, and requesting all those that did not wish to take the oath to step out of the ranks. No one moved. He then said, "Gentlemen, four of you must withdraw, and you can now do so honorably, and be passed to your homes free of expense." This last appeal had no effect whatever, unless to make the Guards stand firmer in their places. So Capt. L. was obliged to strike off the names of four whom he considered least able to endure the hardships of camp life, and had absolutely to order them from the ranks.—The company then took the usual oath for three years, after which we gave three times three and a tiger for the "Union and Constitution" and marched to our quarters.

NEW COUNTY CONVENTION.—The New

County men, "determined to be at least first in the field," recently issued a call for a County Convention to nominate a county ticket, to meet at Cresson on Monday, 1st inst. Accordingly, on the appointed day, the delegates—to the number of fifteen—rendezvoused at that point, and proceeded to business. As the guests sat with closed doors, our reporter was unable to obtain any of the minutiae of their doings; but he subsequently ascertained that, after due deliberation, they decided to suspend any action in the premises until the fourth Monday of the present month.

The two Loco-Foco County Conventions convene on Monday, the 8th inst., and the 10th inst., as erroneously stated by us last week.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS AT CRESSON.

Col. Anderson, the Fort Sumter hero, accepted the invitation of Mr. G. H. Mallin, lessee of the Mountain House, Cresson, this county, to pass the heated waters with him, has arrived at that place in delicate health, but a few weeks' recuperation amid the mountain scenery of the water are only part of the attractions which probably speedily reinvigorate him and send him as "good as new." He has been invited to his family to join him at the place. Senator Rice, wife and family, from Minnesota, and Mr. Kramer, of the Virginia Convention, are also visiting at the Mountain House.

COLONEL ANDERSON VISITS EBENSBURG!—Col. Anderson, the distinguished hero of Fort Sumter—whose memory will ever be enshrined in the hearts of his grateful fellow-countrymen—paid our town a visit on Monday. He stopped at Thompson's Mountain House, and remained several hours, during which time he was visited by a large number of our citizens. All who had the pleasure of taking him by the hand and hearing him converse were charmed by his unostentatious manner and correct views. He looks the gentleman that his words and deportment prove him to be. He is modest as to his own exploits, and rarely dwells upon them, content to let his record speak for itself. Although vivacious and sprightly, his conversation shows him to be a sincere Christian. When interrogated as to whether he felt any fear as to the result of the Fort Sumter conflict, he said that he "put his trust in God and left the issue with Him." He expresses great hope that the Government will eventually succeed in crushing out rebellion and in inaugurating a new system of affairs in the South.

Col. Anderson is of medium size, and his frame is well-proportioned and well-knit. His features are regular, his eye brilliant and piercing, and his general appearance prepossessing. He is plain and unpretending in manner, prompt in action, and commands the respect of all with whom he comes in contact. He is fifty-six years of age, and although somewhat jaded and careworn from the unceasing demands made upon his energies at Fort Sumter, bids fair to eke out the allotted span of man. Let us hope that he may, for there is no man we can so illy afford to lose as this same Robert Anderson—heart tried and true as steel—Idol of the People—whose name will go down to posterity as among the greatest and best of those who did battle for the Union in this her hour of deadly peril.

FATAL CASUALTY.—The Johnstown

Tribune states as follows: A distressing casualty occurred on the premises of Mr. George Kusble, in Taylor township, on Wednesday of last week. A number of Mr. K.'s neighbors were assisting him in raising a barn, and while some of them were adjusting a heavy piece of timber in place upon the frame, the stick, by a sudden and unexpected lurch or roll, slipped off at one corner, and in falling struck Mr. A. B. Bowser, who was standing close in by the frame, upon the shoulder, carrying him with it and under it to the ground, crushing his body in a shocking manner, and killing him instantly. Mr. Bowser was about 30 years of age, and leaves a wife and three children to mourn his sudden and distressingly violent end.

BLAIR COUNTY.—Cornelius M'Connell, of Newry, drowned himself in a stream near his residence on the 24th ult. His mind had been in a disturbed state for some time.—A fireman on the Penna. Railroad, named Cryder, was severely injured on the 24th inst. Some portion of the machinery of his engine giving way, he became frightened and jumped off, breaking one of his arms in two or three places, and otherwise hurting himself.—The store of Mr. Carney, in Hollidaysburg, was broken into and robbed of a quantity of valuables on Monday night of last week.—The grand "Union" celebration to come off at Altoona to-day has fizzled out.

S. OF T.—The quarterly election of officers for the Ebensburg Division of Sons of Temperance was held on last Saturday evening, and the following result had: W. P., John R. Smith; W. A., H. C. Devine; R. S., Ben F. Williams; A. R. S., Wm. H. Davis; F. S., John Gittings; T. C. T., Roberts; Chaplain, R. Jones, Jr.; C., R. E. Smith; A. C., Wm. D. Davis; I. S., Abraham Smith; O. S., Wm. Barnes; Editor of Flag, R. Singer. Love, Miss Jennie Lloyd; Purity, Miss Susan Williams; Fidelity, Miss Eliza Styles.

NORTHERN ITEMS.—A friend in Carrollton sends us the following items: Last week, a man named John Baum, of Susquehanna township, had his dwelling house burned to the ground. It took fire from the stovepipe. A portion of the furniture on the first floor was saved. A man named Augustin Rohe, of Carroll township, was severely injured by the fall of a tree the other day. His lower extremities were completely paralyzed, and it is thought he will not recover.

MILITARY.—Capt. Humphrey's company, the Chess Springs Highlanders, has been disbanded. Capt. Mills' (Gallitzin) company has been accepted and ordered to report at Philadelphia this week.

PETERSON'S DETECTOR.—If you want a good Bank Note Detector, get "Peterson's Philadelphia Counterfeit Detector and Bank Note List." It is the best and most reliable Detector of Counterfeits and Altered Notes published in this country. Every storekeeper and man of business ought to have one in his possession. They are invaluable and indispensable, and we would advise all who handle money to send and get one. You can get the Monthly issue for One Dollar a year, or you can get the Semi-Monthly issue for Two Dollars. Send to Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

FAVORS RECEIVED.—We return our thanks to Master Robert Thompson for a large collection of various kinds of National envelopes and note paper, and for a lithograph of the lamented Ellsworth.—Should our readers feel like purchasing any of these articles, they can do so by calling at the Post Office, where you can also be supplied with the latest daily and weekly papers. By the by, isn't that sign over the P. O. door—that Star Spangled Banner device—a rather elegant affair? Long may it and the "Doctor" wave!

ICE CREAM SALOON.—Mr. George W. Wisegarver has opened out a saloon of the above description in the basement of Blair's Union House, where he is prepared to serve up the warm weather luxury to an unlimited number of customers.—That he manufactures a No. 1 article is certain, for we and a friend, by special request, tested it the other evening, and found that it was what it should be.—Give George a call.

THE PLANING MILL.—Mr. B. F. Williams, with commendable energy, is making rapid headway toward the completion of his planing mill. He expects to have it in running order in a few days. The engine, which has been steamed up several times, is graced with a veritable whistle, the melodious toot! toot! too-o-o-o! of which sounds amazingly like business on the high pressure principle.

LORETTO EXHIBITION.—The public exhibition of the students in attendance at St. Francis' Academy, Loretto, came off on Thursday of last week. The performances are highly spoken of by those who had the pleasure of being lookers-on. Col. Anderson, who did the occasion the honor of being present, distributed the premiums at the close of the exercises.

A BOUQUET.—We were made the recipient on Saturday of a well arranged bouquet, for which the donor-ess will accept our thanks. This being the first of the season, we have placed it in a conspicuous position over our press, where it can exhale its sweet perfume and be gazed at by admiring loungers with impunity. Once more we say, Thank You.

BULLY FOR HIM!—We are credibly informed that, owing to the solicitations of his numerous customers, C. R. Jones has consented to keep constantly on hand during the summer a large and well selected stock of that "Cool as a Zephyr" wear, so that those in need of the article can always be accommodated. Drop in at his store and examine his stock.

MORE BUTTER.—Another firkin of butter was shipped to the soldiers at Camp Wright last week. By the way, the credit of these donations should be laid at the door of the patriotic farmers of the neighborhood instead of to the "good citizens of Ebensburg" as we stated last week. Honor to whom honor is due!

THE CROPS.—During the past week the parched earth has been refreshed by several copious rains, and vegetation now presents a flattering appearance. The different cereals look remarkably well, and, no malign influence preventing, will afford a luxurious yield at harvest. So mote it be, and God grant it!

HONORABLY DISCHARGED.—The following

document speaks for itself: CAMP WRIGHT, June 26, 1861. I hereby certify that Benjamin Rodgers, George Williams, John Longenecker and Milton Hoffman have been honorably discharged from the Cambria Guards, in consequence of an excess in the ranks of the company. ROBT. LITZINGER, Captain. Per R. A. M' Coy, Lieut.

P. M. APPOINTED AND NAME OF P. O. CHANGED.—By order of the Post Master General, the name of the Post Office heretofore known as "Pershing," in this county, has been changed to "Conemaugh," and A. G. Crooks appointed Post Master.

AT LAST.—On the 20th inst., The Third Pennsylvania Regiment received their supply of new clothing. It is said to be of good material.

SEND A STAMP!—We take this occasion of impressing upon those of our readers who correspond with any of the soldiers in camp the entire propriety of enclosing a stamp when you require an answer. The boys have not yet been granted the privilege of "franking," and Uncle Sam pays but once a month—a state of affairs that may occasion some slight inconvenience now and then.

YOURS, &c.—We return our thanks to County Supt. James M. Swank for a copy of the Pennsylvania School Report for 1860.

DIED.—In this place, on Tuesday, 2d inst., KATIE JANE, daughter of Mrs. E. J. Stahl, aged 3 months and 23 days.

VISIBLE.—The comet, so long and anxiously looked for, has at length appeared in view. Its brilliant "narrative" will, no doubt, be a leading attraction.

A CARD.—

WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN.—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam B. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unharmed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
