

MISCELLANY.

SLIGHT DIFFERENCE IN VIEW.—During the hard-fought battle of Bennington, in the first revolution, two brothers fought side by side, protected by the trunk of a fallen tree. The elder was a man of prayer, but the other was not. Baum's Indian allies were in ambush, picking off the Americans, when the elder brother got sight of one of them, and, taking a long aim, lifted up his heart and voice in prayer, saying, "Lord have mercy on that Indian's soul!"

THE ARMY OATH.—The following is the oath which all volunteers and regulars mustered into the service of the United States are required to take before their final enrollment into service: "I do solemnly swear that I will bear true allegiance to the United States of America; that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all enemies or opposers whatsoever; that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and of the other officers appointed over me, according to the rules of the armies of the United States—so help me God."

RAT STORY.—A young lady of Providence, in whose veracity we have no doubt, recently saw what is related in connection herewith. As she sat looking out of her window into the yard connected with the house, she saw an egg lying upon the ground in the hencoop; presently two rats made their appearance, one of which, lying down upon his side, gathered the egg within his limbs and held it fast, while the other rat took him by the "narrative" and drew both rat and egg into the hole together, where, without "letters of marque," the egg was speedily confiscated.

VANITY FAIRIES.—Exchange of colors: While Gen. Butler is getting their Blues, the slaveholders are getting the Blues. From what race are the F. V. V.s descended? From the Slave-Owning! Advice to Brigadier Generals: When you don't know what to do, don't you do you don't know what!

Difference between Army Cannons and Church Canons: Merely a difference of Bore.

Why are Rebel leaders like men who have died of a surfeit? Because they over (rate) themselves fatally.

Agents wanted to sell the Erie Sewing Machine. We will give a commission or pay wages at from $25 to $80 per month, and expenses paid. The Erie is a new machine and very simple in its construction. A diploma was awarded our Machine by the Industrial Association of Farmers and Mechanics, held at Chambersburg, Pa., at its exhibition in 1860, over the Grover & Baker, and Boxer Machines. It is equal to any machine in use, and the price is but fifteen dollars. Address R. JAMES, General Agent E. S. M. Co., Milan, Ohio [mar. 1-4]

AN APERIENT and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz: In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrophulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Menstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute diseases, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, on trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very singular instances of this kind are attested of female subjects, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name. In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of constiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation. It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness. In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, containing, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing. In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough and remittent hectic which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances. In Scrophulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot too confidently be invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them. In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles. In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness. No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes, containing 50 pills. Price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on the receipt of the price. All letters, orders, &c., should be addressed to R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents, 20 Cedar street, N. Y. May 31, 1860-4f.
