SEVENTH REGIMENT, P. R. C., ORGANIZED—THE CAMBRIA GUARDS RECEIVE THE POST OF HONOR IN IT—REGIMENTAL OFFICERS, &c., &c.

Correspondence of The Alleghenian.

CAMP WRIGHT, July 8, 1861.

Another regiment was organized here on Tuesday, out of the remaining unattached companies in camp. It is called the 11th Regiment, P. R. C. The following are the companies composing it: Cambria Guards, Ebensburg, Capt. Litzinger; Independent Blues, Armstrong, Capt. Jackson; Indiana National Guard, Capt. Porter; Dickson Guards, Butler, Capt. Loudon; Washington Blues, Westmoreland, Capt. Spires; Brady Guards, Jefferson, Capt. Brady; Union Volunteers, Fayette, Capt. Bierer; Westmoreland Blues, Westmoreland, Capt. Kistler; Washington Blues, Blairsville, Capt. Nesbit; Conoquenessing Rangers, Butler, Capt. Stewart. The election for field officers resulted as follows: Colonel, Thomas F. Gallagher, Westmoreland; Lieutenant Colonel, J. R. Porter, Indiana; Major, S. M. Jackson, Armstrong. Lieut. P. A. Johns, Fayette, is appointed Adjutant.

The Cambria Guards are designated as Co. A—the post of honor in the Regiment. That they will prove themselves worthy of the trust reposed in them is, I think, altogether certain.

A large delegation of friends from home visited us on the 4th. It is estimated that, including soldiers, there were seven thousand persons in camp that day. The occasion will be long remembered. K.

TENTS TO BARRACKS—HOW THE CAMBRIA GUARDS CHANGED QUARTERS.

Extract from a private letter dated

CAMP WRIGHT, July 6, 1861.

Col. Hayes' regiment left for Camp Wilkins early on Monday morning, and Col. M'Calmont's regiment came up in the evening to take their place. In the meantime the Cambria Guards, who had been lying in tents some two or three weeks, concluded to try barracks awhile. Accordingly, without asking the Captain or saying a word to anybody, we quietly took possession. After we were fixed all right, Lieut. M' Coy went to the Colonel in command and requested permission to move, which was refused. "But," said Lieut. M., "the men have already done so without orders." So the Colonel, after giving it as his opinion that "we'd do," said that we might as well remain.

A DAY AT CAMP WRIGHT.—Having nothing particular to do last week, and more than a sufficiency of time to do it in, we paid a brief visit to our "sojourners" at Camp Wright. We found them all enjoying themselves hugely, and looking halter and heartier than when they left home. Good health was a perfect drug with them, inasmuch as not a single man was afflicted with the slightest indisposition. A happy faculty of being able to accommodate themselves to any circumstances was also observable about them, as they appeared as much at home in their "quarters" as if they had lived there for years. Without a single exception they expressed their entire satisfaction with their new mode of life, and their willingness to remain in it until Rebellion is completely wiped out. They are a jolly good set of fellows—officers and men—are the Guards, and rank high in the esteem of their fellow soldiers. As proof of this, witness their designation as Co. A. in the Eleventh Regiment—the post of honor. (Co. A. is a rifle company, and the skirmishers of the regiment.) We ate with the Guards, and had ocular demonstration of the fact that they receive plenty of the grubular; we slept with the Guards, and know that we could put in fifteen of the twenty-four hours each day with similar accommodations; and we dodged the sentries along the lines with the Guards, and feel almost positive that we could do it as well as any of them after a little practice. The camp is situated on gently sloping ground, which successfully prevents the accumulation of mud-puddles within it. Trees are scattered throughout and around the encampment, affording a grateful and luxurious shade from the heat of the sun. The strictest cleanliness is required as to the camp and surroundings, and no intoxicating liquor is allowed within gun-shot. Altogether, Camp Wright appears to be a most comfortable and agreeable place. The Guards expect to be ordered into actual service ere long, but to what destination is as yet unknown.

APologetic.—No paper was issued from this office last week, owing to the fact that our printers were all afflicted with a severe attack of 4th of July, which effectually prevented them from giving any attention to minor matters. Our readers can console themselves with knowing that the "great and glorious occasion" comes only once a year.

THE GLORIOUS FOURTH IN EBENS- BURG: WHAT WAS DONE AND VICE VERSA.—The eighty-fifth anniversary of American Independence—the Great and Glorious Occasion—the Day we Celebrate— etc., etc.—passed off very quietly in our midst. Indeed, such a limited feast of reason and such a frugal flow of soul as was then and there put forth is seldom witnessed in a town embracing ten hundred and twenty-five inhabitants and two wards. The reason of this was simply because our citizens, finding no amusement at home, went abroad in large numbers in quest of the article. Which was about the most sensible thing they could have done.

The Sons of Temperance had a pleasant re-union in Lloyd's Grove in the afternoon. Prayer was delivered by several clergymen, and addresses made by Messrs. D. J. Jones, I. C. Singer, Wm. Tibbott, and A. A. Barker. The National airs were effectively rendered by some of the brothers and sisters. The whole affair was well planned and well executed, and reflects credit on the patriotic and Union loving confraternity.

We noticed several attempts to celebrate the day after the vinous and bibulous manner, but these were only sporadic attacks—the effervescing and bubbling over of a year's patriotism in an occasional irrepressible individual—and in no case did they cause any inconvenience or raise a disturbance.

And this is about all that can be said on the subject.

ACCIDENT TO A CAMBRIA VOLUNTEER.

—George Sweigart, a member of Company G, Capt. Lapsley, Third Regiment Pa. Vols., had his arm dreadfully shattered by the accidental discharge of a musket, while on the march to Martinsburg, Va., on the 2d inst. The American Union—a paper published at the above named place by the division of the American army under Major Gen. Patterson—gives the following particulars concerning the accident: Dr. Jackson, the Surgeon of the Regiment, without a moment's delay had the wounded man carried off the road, and under the shade of a tree amputated the limb. The soldier stood the operation without wincing, and after it was concluded was asked how he felt. "Bully," he answered, "but very hungry. Can't somebody give me something to eat?" Such is the metal which composes the Union army—when can it be conquered?

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's father, on the morning of July 4th, by the Rev. R. A. Garden, Mr. BEN P. THOMPSON, formerly of Ebensburg, to Miss ELLEN, daughter of Price L. Patton, of Philadelphia.

There! That's the proper way to celebrate the Glorious Fourth! The day seems to have been pretty much devoted to "Union" matters all over the country, and our friend Ben, never behindhand, has devoted himself, heart and soul, to a Union enterprise of the very strongest kind. Success to him and his bonnie bride, and may they live to see many happy returns of the day upon which they launched their matrimonial canoe o'er the turbid waves of life. (For the gold dollar accompanying the marriage notice we return, etc., etc.)

CLOCKS, WATCHES, &c.—We would direct particular attention to the advertisement in another column of Mrs. E. J. Stahl. She has a magnificent assortment of clocks, watches and jewelry on hand, and her prices are such as to make it an object to purchase. The mechanical department is under the control of Mr. M. R. M'Dowell, who is a gentleman of enlarged experience in his line of business and fully competent to give entire satisfaction. Make a note of this.

PROMOTED.—It gives us great pleasure to state that our young friend, John Roberts, who went with the Cambria Guards as a musician, has been appointed Drum Major of the 11th Regiment, P. R. C.—John is a good fellow, and in this instance is emphatically the right man in the right place.

HAYMAKING.—The hay crop of this section of country, which is unusually large this season, is rapidly being hosed. We will have plenty of the article and to spare.

Large—the raspberry crop.

JOHNSTOWN ITEMS.—Our Johnstown correspondent, under date of 9th inst., sends us the following items. They were intended for last week's issue, and, altho' slightly out of date, will still repay a perusal:—

The glorious Fourth was appropriately celebrated in our town and neighborhood. The day was ushered in at about the time graveyards yawn by a grand salute from all the old pistols, shot-guns and muskets that could be scared up, and from that time until rosy dawn an incessant firing was kept up. At 9 A. M., the Home Guards, composed entirely of our German population, paraded to the public square, where a national salute was fired. After this they repaired to the rolling mill, where the Stars and Stripes were elevated to the top of the stack. A meeting was then organized, and several eloquent and patriotic addresses delivered. The programme was varied and enlivened by the singing of the Star Spangled Banner and other national airs by Misses Emma Boggs, Jennie Crouse and Jennie M'Cluskey, assisted by Capt. Smith and Col. Crouse. A picnic was also held at Jacob's Grove, at which several speeches were delivered.

This morning, about 3 o'clock, our citizens were alarmed by a cry of "fire!"—The flames proceeded from a one-and-a-half story frame house on Clinton street, owned by Messrs. Marbourg and occupied by Mr. Kinney as a cigar shop. The loss is slight. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

THE FOURTH AT WILMORE.—A correspondent, "Mikel," writes that the good people of Wilmore celebrated the eighty-fifth anniversary of our National Independence in dashing style. A Sabbath School celebration was held in a grove adjoining town, at which a large number of the parents, teachers and children were present. The Wilmore Zouaves were also on the ground. Several patriotic addresses were delivered, after which a bountiful repast was served up. The balance of the day was consumed in various exercises and amusements, and they returned to their homes in the evening well pleased with their observation of "The Day We Celebrate."

THE COMET.—This illustrious stranger, which has been the subject of so many speculations lately, is rapidly receding from view, and will soon be lost sight of altogether. Notwithstanding this, C. R. Jones, of the Ebensburg Boot and Shoe Store, still continues to sell hats and caps, boots and shoes, ready-made clothing, &c., at the unparalleled prices of yore. Drop in and see his assortment of goods.

CAMP WRIGHT.—We see by the Pittsburgh Dispatch that the guns for Camp Wright were distributed on Monday.—They are the old style flint-lock muskets altered to percussion, and the same authority says that considerable dissatisfaction existed among the men on ascertaining their quality.

THE WEATHER has been unusually cold hereabouts during the past week.—In fact, so cold has it been that fires and overcoats have become rather commonplace commodities. The question now is, Has the comet anything to do with these atmospheric changes? If so, comet should be abated forthwith.

THIRD REGIMENT.—The term of enlistment of the three months' volunteers is about expiring, and it is expected that the Third regiment, to which are attached three of the companies from this county, will disband on the 20th inst.

GODEY.—The Lady's Book for August is on our table. It is a splendid number, and should find its way into the hands of every lady in the country. Godey, like Heidsick, gets better and better as he grows older.

PETERSON.—The August number of this magazine has been received. Every lady who wishes to be au fait of the mysteries of the toilet should subscribe for it, as it is the acknowledged criterion in such matters.

CAMP MEETING.—The United Brethren in Christ will hold a camp meeting on the premises of Mr. Hileman, near Mechanicsburg, Indiana county, commencing on Friday, August 16, 1861.

"More than seven hundred of the citizens of this county are now in the tented field, and at least two-thirds of them are Democrats."—Dem. & Sent.

Don't believe it. Show us "the papers" for the latter assertion.

Go to Wm. Davis' store to buy cheap goods of all kinds.

IRON CITY COLLEGE.—The following extract from a letter of one of the recent graduates of the Iron City College, Pittsburg, Pa., speaks for itself:

"Every young man who would thoroughly prepare himself for business should avail himself of the advantages here afforded. Students are not learned, but taught, and that with all the thoroughness and precision the subject demands, by the most skillful and accomplished instructors, who give their special and constant attention to their pupils. Everything is treated in a scientific and business-like manner; while the Penmanship, which is taught by the greatest living master of the art, is unequalled by anything in the country.—The College is pre-eminently worthy of public patronage." A. L. BARSTRESS.

CHAPLAIN.—Rev. J. B. Pyatt, formerly of this place, has been appointed Chaplain of the 8th Regiment.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp., July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with various papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 23rd of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat from the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many by standers a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. [Seal] A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
