

DEPARTURE OF THE CAMBRIA GUARDS FROM CAMP WRIGHT.—On Tuesday, the Eleventh Regiment of the Pennsylvania Reserves, which had been stationed at Camp Wright and to which the Cambria Guards belong, passed over the Pennsylvania Railroad eastward. Their ultimate destination was not known, but it was supposed that they were to be led into actual service immediately.

A large number of our citizens were at Wilmore to welcome the Guards and to bid them God speed. The train stopped but a few minutes—scarcely long enough to allow an interchange of greetings—and again sped on its way with its precious burden of noble souls going to do or die for their country.

We had the pleasure of accompanying "our boys" on a portion of their journey, and were afforded the opportunity of seeing and conversing with a majority of them. They were all in the very best health, and appeared delighted with the prospect of having a small brush with Jeff Davis' cohorts of traitors.

We feel entirely satisfied, from an inspection of the troops composing it, that should the Eleventh Regiment ever be brought face to face with the enemies of our country, they will not be found wanting. And the Cambria Guards will do nothing unworthy of the Eleventh Regiment.

The entire regiment had been fully armed and uniformed prior to leaving Camp Wright.

The following are the different companies composing the Eleventh:

- Colonel—T. R. Gallagher.
Lieut. Colonel—J. R. Porter.
Major—S. M. Jackson.
Co. A—Cambria Guards, Capt. Litzinger.
Co. B—Indiana National Guards, Capt. Porter.
Co. C—Dickson Guards, Capt. Loudon.
Co. D—Connoqueaning Rangers, Capt. Brown.
Co. E—Washington Blues, (of Blairsville), Capt. Nesbit.
Co. F—Independent Blues, Capt. Speer.
Co. G—Union Volunteers, Capt. Bierer.
Co. H—Westmoreland Guards, Capt. Kistler.
Co. I—Washington Blues, Capt. Spires.
Co. K—Brady Guards, Capt. Brady.

SUMMER RESORTS.—The number of visitors at the summer resorts in this county is said to be much smaller this year than usual. Whether this state of affairs is owing to the frigidity of the atmosphere thus far, or to the more potent influence of a scarcity of spoudulix we are not prepared to say—but so it is. Gen. Anderson is still ruminating at Cresson, with many good results as to his corporeal system.

Talking of watering places, invalids and pleasure-seekers should come to Ebensburg. For it is a fact conceded on all hands that we are blessed with a brighter sky and a cooler breeze, with clearer water and taller trees, with higher mountains and deeper vales, lovelier walks in romantic dales, with purer air and steeper hills, and better hotels that charge smaller bills than any other spot in the universal American continent.

Besides the above attractions, we may add that there is always an abundance of game in the forest, trout in the streams, whiskey in the calabash, blackberries and other berries in the jungles, pretty girls in the neighborhood, and amusement of all sorts lying around loose in packages to suit every capacity, and only needing to be stirred up and shook out to furnish our old times for an unlimited number.

We might also pin on here the remark that snakes and mosquitoes are about as far and as far between in this vicinity as sea-shears or gorillas.

Therefore, oh! seeker after pleasure or repose and inviolated individual, come to Ebensburg, etc., etc. And bring your families with you.

Is it so?—We find the following interesting item in an army letter (dated Martinsburg, Va., July 4,) in an exchange:

"A Johnston man, belonging to Co. F, 1st Linton, Third Regiment, killed a picket-guard last night who was coming in from Martinsburg. The latter was a member of Co. Capt. Neff, Blair county. I suppose the Johnston man will be shot to-day, as the General has given an order to that effect. The guard must halt a man three times ere he is allowed to fire, and this the Johnston man failed to do."

BY ALL MEANS.—The centre of attraction just now is the Ebensburg Boot and Shoe Store, where all manner of boots and shoes, hats and caps, ready-made clothing, etc., are being sold at very low prices.—If you need any of the above enumerated articles, and if you desire to save money, go there, too. Remember, the store is on the corner west of the Arcade.

SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL PAPER.—The following article, which we scissor from an exchange, is so appropriate to this latitude that we transfer it to our columns without asking any questions.—"It is surprising to us that so many intelligent men manifest so much indifference about sustaining their local paper. They seem to forget the fact that the local press is emphatically the representative and exponent of the local interests, wants and wishes of each community, and on its energy and watchfulness the community must mainly rely. There is no greater mistake. Not a man, and especially a business man, but suffers by this indifference. Just in proportion as your local paper is patronized is it enabled to advance the general interests of the place.

Too many are willing to let their local paper languish by withholding from it the patronage in their power to extend to it. They say it is too small—not seeming to realize that it is by their support that it can be made larger and so improved as to meet the full expectations and wants of the community.

Now, we hold that if a man is able to take but one paper, it should be the one published nearest his residence. His first duty is to encourage, support and sustain his home paper. If he can take two, let the other be published at the commercial metropolis of his own State. If your local paper is not what you think it should be, inquire of yourself whether you have done all you ought to make it better.

MARRIED.—On Thursday, 11th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, in Jackson township, by Joseph W. Meyers, Esq., Mr. SAMUEL DILLEN to Miss ELIZABETH PAUL.

Accompanying the above notice came a gold dollar, for which the newly-mated couple will accept our thanks. We always feel like saying something bifalutin when we are remembered in so emphatic a manner by our friends, but we contented ourselves at present by wishing the donors a long life and a merry one, hoping that they may never regret the day when they came to the conclusion to double-team it through life together.

INDIANA COUNTY.—The house of Mrs. Houston, in Indiana borough, was struck by lightning during a recent rain-storm. No great damage was done.—Two prisoners confined in the county jail effected their escape the other night through the chimney of that edifice. The Sheriff offers a reward of twenty dollars for their re-arrest.—The managers of the Indiana County Agricultural Society have decided to hold a Fair as usual the coming autumn.—The crops in this county are very good, and the yield will be abundant.

APPOINTED.—We are glad to announce that Col. Wm. K. Piper, of this place, has been tendered the appointment of Major in a cavalry regiment recently organized in Philadelphia. He has accepted the position, and departed last week to enter upon his duties. The Colonel—we mean to say, Major—will make an excellent officer, and we expect to hear a good account of his exploits in the tented field.

It is reported that two men belonging to the 11th regiment were killed at a bridge a few miles below Altoona on Tuesday. They were riding on the top of one of the cars at the time, and the bridge being rather low, they were either crushed or knocked off.

James E. Giffin, of Altoona, is about commencing to write a history of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The subject is of a highly interesting nature to the people of this State, and if properly treated, will make a valuable volume.

Lt. McCoy, of the Cambria Guards, who was in town two or three days last week as recruiting officer, succeeded in obtaining six or eight men, who departed eastward with the company on Tuesday. We are unable to give their names.

DEAD.—W. H. Baer, a member of Capt. Szink's company, Altoona, died in the hospital at Hagerstown, on Friday week, of dysentery. His remains were interred at Hagerstown.

Capt. Litzinger, Lieut. McCoy, Lieut. Lewis, J. E. Scanlan and T. D. Litzinger, of the Cambria Guards, were in town on a brief visit on Monday.

The Cambria county companies belonging to the 11th regiment have not yet returned. They are expected this week.

Excellent—the vocal performance of the lady "Alithumpian" one night last week.

FLAG RAISING.—On Saturday, 20th inst., a beautiful National flag was raised on the St. Boniface Church, in the "Glosser settlement," Chest township. A large number, including many ladies, were assembled, and old and young appeared to partake of the enthusiasm common to every true American when the Stars and Stripes are unfurled to the breeze. After hoisting the flag upon the pinnacle of the church, a meeting was organized and John Elder, Esq., chosen President. Patriotic addresses were delivered by David J. Jones and A. A. Barker, who were present, and Nicholas Helfrich, Esq., a worthy citizen of Chest, delivered an address in German, which, although not understood by your correspondent, appeared to be well received by the audience. But one sentiment and one feeling pervaded the assembly—a determination that the Star Spangled Banner shall never be trailed in the dust by the hands of either foreign or domestic foes. And here, in this temple dedicated to the service of Almighty God, surmounted by the Cross, the symbol of Christianity, and by the Star and Stripes, they met—not forgetting their duty to their God, they put on record their loyalty to our common country and her institutions. OBSERVER.

CAMP WRIGHT.—Since the departure eastward of the 9th and 11th regiments, on Tuesday last, this camp has ceased to be the centre of attraction. There are now no soldiers there whatever, and the once busy "quarters" present pretty much the appearance of a "banquet-hall deserted."

Havelocks are said to be a failure, from the fact that the white material of which they are manufactured renders them conspicuous marks for the enemy to fire at. Therefore, ladies, use muslin of a darker shade in your labor of love.

CRESSON SPRINGS COMPANY.—Those interested will take notice that an election for seven managers for the above company will be held at Cresson, this county, on Monday, 5th proximo.

The wheat crop of this section of country is being rapidly garnered. The yield will be truly bountiful.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 24th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your safe than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK. [seal] A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.
