

MISCELLANY.

DARK HOURS.—There are dark hours that mark the history of the brightest years. For not a whole month in many millions of the past, perhaps, has the sun shone brilliantly all the time.

KING COTTON UNGIRT.—A letter from Louisville says King Cotton is likely to stand out naked in the cold this winter. The truth is, the bragging rascal never has produced his own clothing, and now he can't buy it.

WELL PUT.—An illustrated paper printed at Leipzig, Germany, compares the North and South in this forcible way: "What the South lacks—Money, men, and the favor of God."

Gov. Curtin has pardoned Captain Rogers, recently convicted at Pittsburg of manslaughter, in killing J. H. Vandegrift.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT and stomachic preparation of Iron purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice. The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it.

In cases of GENERAL DEBILITY, whether the result of acute diseases, or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, or of an extent which no description nor written attestation would be credible. Invalids so long bedridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough and remittent hectic which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrophulous Tuberculosis this medicated Iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness. No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine which exerts such prompt, happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes, containing 50 pills. Price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on the receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to R. B. LOCKE & CO., General Agents, 20 Cedar street, N. Y. May 31, 1860-lv

The club price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is so low that there are but few in any community unable to take it. Henceforth THE TRIBUNE, as the principal paper supporting the new Administration, will be peculiarly interesting, while outside of politics its reliable Foreign and Domestic News, its Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, and its Literary Department, give to it interest and value which no other paper on this Continent can boast of. How ably and successfully THE TRIBUNE has conducted the campaign now so gloriously ended, the result in New York fully attests, and to the untiring exertions, signal capacity and foresight of HORACE GREELEY is due much of the glory of the victory over which a nation of Freemen are now rejoicing. It is, therefore, the duty of every true Republican to aid in giving THE TRIBUNE a still larger circulation. As evidence of its popularity and reliability, we may state that last week over Six Hundred Thousand copies were sold—a circumstance unprecedented in the annals of journalism.—Guardian and Gazette, Phoenixville, Pa.
