THE CAMBRIA COUNTY FAIR!

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, the 1st, 2d and 3d proximo, the Seventh Annual Exhibition of the Cambria County Agricultural Society will be held.

It has been deemed expedient, notwithstanding the "Hard Times" and the War excitement, to make this announcement, from the fact that the Harvest this season has been unusually plentiful, and other pursuits prospered in a similar manner.

Owing to sundry reasons, all of which it is unnecessary to here recapitulate, the success of these Fairs for the past two or three years has not been exactly what could be desired.

In other words, they have been "fizzles." This is wrong. A Fair, when properly conducted and having its several departments well managed, is a benefit to any community.

And more especially is it a benefit to an agricultural community. By meeting once in a while and comparing notes as to the different methods of farming, much valuable information, otherwise unavailable, can be picked up.

As it is probable that the future action of the Society will hinge on the reception of this Exhibition—that is to say, that it will go on prospering and to prosper should it be a success, and vice versa should it be otherwise—it is essentially necessary that the People take some interest in the premises.

Let them lend their aid and countenance, and the expenditure will be reduced from an uncertainty to a permanent institution.

The managers under whose auspices the Exhibition is being gotten up are gentlemen of indomitable energy and enterprise, and will leave nothing undone to secure its complete success.

The premium list offers inducements for competition in almost every conceivable branch of industry; and—best of all—the premiums will positively all be paid.

The Annual Address will be delivered on the last day, by R. L. Johnston, Esq., of this place. Those acquainted with the gentleman's qualifications will readily see that an intellectual treat is on the tapis.

Tiller of the Soil: Manufacturer: Artisan: Artist: Laborer: Merchant: Professional Man: The Ladies, And People of Cambria at large—

Take hold of the matter; put your shoulder to the wheel; add your mite to swell the list of attractions for the occasion—and let us have one of those good old-fashioned Fairs that drew such crowds in former years.

Will you not do so?—The reader is referred to our fourth page for list of Premiums, Judges, etc.

A NEW CROTCHET—"SILVER GREYS."

There has been some considerable talk lately on the question as to whether the Government would or would not be obliged to resort to a draft to secure a sufficient number of soldiers to prosecute the great struggle we are now engaged in to a successful termination.

Judging from the alacrity with which the late requisitions are being met throughout the loyal States, however, we incline to the opinion that the Government can command an almost unlimited number of men—the entire male population of the North capable of bearing arms, should it become necessary.

To show the spirit that animates our people, read the annexed card issued by three well-known patriotic citizens of this county:

The undersigned have been authorized by Governor Curtin to raise a volunteer company of Infantry, for service in the present war, to be composed of men at least forty-five years of age. No person under that age will be accepted as a member of said company.

We understand that the above company is being rapidly filled up, and that it will soon have its full complement of "Silver Greys." Good!

THE WHITE TOWNSHIP INFANTICIDE CASE.—Our readers will probably recollect the particulars of the above horrible affair, an account of which we published at the time of the occurrence.

The defendant in the case, Ann Hartzell, a young woman of some 16 or 17 years, was brought to trial during the recent session of our county Court.

The counsel for both the prosecution and the defense embraced some of the ablest lawyers at our Bar, and the trial occupied the major part of three days.

After a thorough and careful investigation into the facts, the jury, after due deliberation, returned as their verdict that the defendant was "guilty of murder in the second degree," and the Court shortly after sentenced her to undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for a term of seven years.

The trial elicited a large share of public attention, and while all lament the necessity that consigns any human being to a "living grave," no one questions the righteousness of the punishment in this case.

DIDN'T SEE IT!—We overheard a spirited little conversation the other evening, going far to show that military matters still receive their due share of public attention in this community.

A. chanced to meet B. on the street, and not having seen him for several days, inquired as to where he had been.

"Out in the wilderness, recruiting," returned B.

"Recruiting!" said A., rather surprised that his friend, who is a confirmed invalid, had embraced the profession of Mars; "You recruiting! the devil!"

"No," said B., "recruiting my health!" Whereupon, in view of the length, breadth, depth and general profundity of the sparkler, both parties incontinently "smiled."

OUR OUTSIDE.—The outside of to-day's paper contains a charming little poem from the accomplished pen of Miss Louise E. Vickroy, entitled "The Last Day of Summer."

Our readers, we are sure, will unite with us in the hope that Miss V. will long continue to contribute just such gems to our columns.

We also publish an interesting paper to School Directors and Teachers, from the pen of the County Superintendent.—We commend the article to the attention of those to whom it is dedicated, with the suggestion that after reading it they act on the many sensible hints it contains.

A choice variety of other reading matter will be found elsewhere, which will well repay a perusal.

A SAD AFFLICTION.—The Cambria Tribune relates the following distressing case of family bereavement: Three children of Mr. Peter P. Lehman, residing in Richland township, this county, a few miles from Johnstown, were taken sick, died, and were buried within a week!

The eldest, and first to die, was aged over 14, the next 7, and the youngest and last nearly 4 years. The last two died and were buried within three days! The disease was putrid sore throat.

DIED.—Near Hamilton, Ohio, on Saturday, 10th ult., JOHN R. LEWIS, Esq., aged about 40 years.

Mr. L. had been terribly injured a short time previous by being run over by a wagon, the team of which was running away—the injuries then received resulting in his death. He formerly resided in this place, most of his early life having been spent under the roof of his uncle, Richard Lewis, since deceased.

DIED.—On Sabbath evening, the 22d inst., MARY, wife of JOHN RODGERS, Sr., aged about 66 years.

The deceased was in the enjoyment of her usual health until an hour previous to her death, when she was attacked by apoplexy, which, in a short space of time, terminated her earthly career.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Dr. Bunn, in another column. Those interested will make a note of the fact, as it is only by prompt attention to such matters, that the cry "Hard Times" is kept down.

MARRIED.—In St. Patrick's church, this place, on Tuesday, 10th inst., TIOS. P. FENLON, Esq., of Leavenworth, Kansas, formerly of this county, to Miss ROSE HELENE RHEY, of Ebensburg.

DIED.—At the residence of his father, in this place, on Saturday, 14th inst., CORNELIUS M. COLLINS, in the 34th year of his age.

Hugh A. Caldwell, Esq., has become one of the editors and proprietors of the Hollidaysburg Register. Welcome to the tripod!
