From Our Volunteers.

Correspondence of The Alleghenian. CAMP IN VIRGINIA, October 11, 1861. On Monday we started for Great Falls, fifteen miles from Tonnalton, on the Potomac, to do ten days' picket duty. We started from our camp at about 2 o'clock P. M., and arrived there at 6. This is considered pretty steep marching. On arriving there, twenty-four men were detailed from each company to go guard duty some six miles further up the river, and I had the misfortune to be one of that number. We were very much fatigued when we arrived at our destination and, to make matters worse, we had neither blankets nor overcoats along, and were also without supper. The night was very cold and the dew very heavy, and in consequence we had a disagreeable time of it. Our line of pickets was stationed between the river and canal, which in some places are not a hundred feet apart. We were relieved early next morning, and we rode back to the Falls on a boat.

The scenery at the Falls is most grand—the towering rocks, the deep, roaring river, and the high mountains upon the Virginia shore presenting a very picturesque appearance. But the grandest sight is the "Falls" themselves. The water dashes down over the rocks in some places more than one hundred feet, and creates a terrible sound as it falls upon the rocks below. Picketing was very interesting there, as we had an opportunity of conversing with the secession pickets. As you are aware, an agreement was made between Gen. McClellan and the rebel commander, to the effect that no more firing should be done between the pickets. This was very comfortable, inasmuch as the lives of the pickets would not be endangered. The second day I was on duty I had quite a long and interesting confab with some of the celebrated "Black Horse Cavalry," of Bull Run notoriety, who talked with all the familiarity of friends. Most of those with whom we were talking appeared like respectable men, and seemed to regret they were compelled to be our enemies.—They do not like the New England Boys, nor the Zouaves, but can "go" Pennsylvanians. Some of our boys even went across the river and talked with them and drank some of their whiskey. They are not very well uniformed, it being a rusty, ugly cloth, and apparently quite well worn.

This state of familiarity did not last long, however. They broke the league on Monday morning, by shooting one of our pickets, without the least cause or provocation. When this became known in our camp, one of the Field officers with thirty men repaired to the place where the picket had been shot, and showered a few charges among their pickets, killing three of them. Immediately after our men commenced firing, the rebels planted seven cannon on the hill opposite our quarters, about a mile distant, and without any ado, commenced shelling us effectually, sending their shells and cannon balls whizzing through the old houses in which we were quartered, and compelling us to vacate forthwith. They fired in all 112 shots, but, fortunately for us, only two or three shells exploded. One man was struck on the shoulder with a piece of shell, and another had his gun bent double, by a cannon ball, while in the act of capping it. In consequence of our artillery being a mile distant, we could not return the iron compliment. After we did get our guns into position, however, we gave them ten shells, which scattered them in every direction. We were relieved on Wednesday, and arrived home late in the evening.

We held an election on Tuesday, each party receiving about an equal number of votes. The boys do not appear much concerned about the result of elections now. On Wednesday we received marching orders, and in the afternoon the whole division crossed the Chain Bridge into Virginia, and advanced six miles on the Leesburg road, where we are now encamped. We are within one mile of Lewinsville, eight miles from Fairfax Court House, and fifteen from Leesburg. The enemy's pickets were, on last Tuesday, at the same place we are now.

CAMBRIA CAVALRY COMPANY.—The following is the Muster Roll of the cavalry company recruited in this county, and now in camp near Washington City, under command of Capt. James A. Skelly, of this place. The company is designated as Co. G. 4th Regt. Penna. Cavalry.

INTERESTING OCCURRENCE.—On last Thursday evening, Hon. Geo. Taylor, President Judge elect for this Judicial District, was serenaded at Thompson's Mountain House by the Calithumpian Band. After several appropriate airs, Gen. Jos. M'Donald introduced Judge T., and in a neat and patriotic speech extended him the congratulations of the People of Cambria county in the result of the issue just decided at the ballot-box. The Judge responded, thanking the Band for the compliment done him. He said that he was rejoiced to be afforded the opportunity of returning his sincerest thanks to the People of Cambria for the efficient manner in which they had supported him. He had been elected as an Independent Candidate—apart from politics or political preferences—and the honor was duly appreciated. They had reposed almost unlimited confidence in him, and he hoped to prove himself worthy of the trust. In conclusion, he assured them that the recollection of the unanimity and concord with which he had been sustained would linger with him until his latest moments as one of the most pleasing episodes of his life.

—Judge Taylor is deservedly popular in this District. He has filled the office of President Judge for twelve years, and, without opposition, is now re-elected to the same high station for another term.—The "Frosty Sons" delight to honor such men.

COWARDLY OUTRAGE.—On Saturday evening, the 5th inst., while County Superintendent Swank was on his way to the station at Wilmore, where he had been holding an examination of teachers during the day, he was struck on the head with a stone thrown by some person concealed in a fence corner at the road side. The missile took effect over the left eye, and although it did not knock him down, it staggered him considerably, and inflicted a painful wound. Upon recovering he saw his assailant running from his concealment, and identified him as a young man named Dimond, who had been before him for examination as a teacher, but to whom the Superintendent had refused a certificate, for want of sufficient scholarship. The failure to obtain a certificate is supposed to have been the cause of his cowardly and murderous assault upon Mr. Swank, as no other motive can be assigned. A warrant was promptly taken out for the arrest of the fellow, and it is to be hoped he will be speedily arrested and severely punished, as he justly deserves. So says the Cambria Tribune.

MILITARY.—Capt. Williams, of the regular infantry, together with the company he has recruited in this county, left for Indianapolis the latter part of last week. Some twenty men from this immediate neighborhood went with him.

ALL HONOR TO THE LADIES!—The "Blanket and Stocking" move is flourishing luxuriantly, and will soon bear its own good fruit. In accordance with the call published in our last issue, the patriotic Maids and Matrons of the Mountain met at the Union School-House, in this borough, on Friday eve, and formed an association. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large attendance was present. The following permanent officers were chosen:

- President, Miss Lizzie M. Hutchinson. Vice President, Mrs. Wm. K. Piper. Secretary, Miss Emily Roberts. Treasurer, A. A. Barker. We may now confidently expect to see some considerable knitting performed.—Knitting will probably be the prevailing employment for a season. And as each fair lady's fingers chase one another with increasing rapidity around the circle of stitches, may the possessor thereof be cheered by the gratification of knowing that she is responding to the call of Patriotism and Liberty.

We understand it is the intention of the association to furnish the articles they may manufacture to the Government at the selling price, and establish a fund for the relief of the needy families of our volunteers with the proceeds. A knowledge of this fact may possibly relieve the mind of many a brave soldier from misgivings as to the bodily welfare and comfort of the "dear ones at home."

Will not the ladies—one and all—join heartily in this labor of love? Here is a call for another meeting of the association:

To the Editor of The Alleghenian: Please announce that another meeting of the Ladies' Association will be held at the Union School-house, on FRIDAY EVENING, 18th inst., at the hour of 7 P. M. The Ladies of Ebensburg and vicinity are respectfully invited to attend.

SLIGHTLY DELIRIOUS.—The Dem. & Sent., with a great deal more partizan bitterness than fairness, last week tells us that the reason why Blair county has less than her quota of troops in the field is because she is a strong Republican county. In another column of the same paper, in commenting on the probable election of the Loco-Foco candidate for Assembly in that county, the editor says that Blair is not so strongly Republican after all! Ah! This is a distinction with a difference! This is blowing hot and cold in the same breath! This is—in short—the difference between tweedledum and tweedledee! [P. S.: We can only excuse the D. & S. for the above startling discrepancy on the ground that the Election "got hard on him" when he penned it!] By the way: We presume that the reason why Gallant Little Blair furnished more than her quota of three months' men is also because she was a "Republican county." Eh, neighbor?

FIRES IN BLAIR COUNTY.—On Thursday before last, the steam grist-mill of Mr. John Allison, and the steam planing-mill of Mr. Thomas McAuley, adjoining each other, in Altoona, were entirely consumed by fire, together with their contents. The fire is supposed to have originated from sparks falling from the stack of one of the mills. Loss to Mr. Allison, $5,000; insured for $2,300. Loss to Mr. McAuley, $4,000; insured for $1,500.

On Friday afternoon succeeding, the casting-house, bridge over the railroad, and two dwelling-houses, at Blair Furnace, were destroyed by fire. Origin of fire and loss unknown.

BROKE OUT IN A NEW PLACE.—Mr. E. J. Mills, who has, during the past summer, erected a large and showy store-room on High street, is just in receipt of an extensive assortment of New Goods, which he threatens to sell at unusually low prices. As he is a man of his word, we suggest that our citizens drop in on him and secure a few bargains. Ladies, especially, are invited to examine his stock of Shoes—better or cheaper than which cannot be found in town.

ELDERSRIDGE ACADEMY.—The winter session of this institution will open, under the superintendence of Rev. A. Donaldson and Prof. S. J. Craighead, on Tuesday, 5th proximo. The academy bears an enviable reputation, and we recommend it to the favorable consideration of those of our readers who may desire to secure for themselves or their sons a thorough education. For terms, etc., see advertisement in another column.

NUTS.—The yield of chestnuts in this section will be immense this fall. Large quantities of the article are being gathered, and either put up for home consumption or shipped abroad. They retail at the rate of six cents per quart.

S. OF T.—The following are the officers elected by the Ebensburg Division of Sons of Temperance, for the ensuing term: W. P., H. C. Devine; W. A., J. Humphreys; R. S., B. F. Williams; A. R. S., David Howells; F. S., R. Singer; T., C. T. Roberts; C., R. E. Smith; A. C., A. Smith; I. S., David Williams; O. S., Jno. James; Chaplain, Wm. Tibbott; Editor of Flag, D. I. Evans; L., Miss Emily Roberts; P., Miss Jane Tibbott; F., Miss Mary Anne Evans.

STOCKINGS FOR THE ARMY.—The following rules are given for the direction of ladies wishing to knit socks for the soldiers: Get large needles and coarse yarn. Cast on seventy-eight stitches, and knit the leg ten inches before setting the heel. The heel should be three and a half inches long, and knit of double yarn, one fine and one coarse, for extra strength. The foot should be eleven or twelve inches long.

THE DEPOT BUILDING RAISED.—The frame work for the Depot of the Ebensburg and Cresson Railroad was put together and "raised" on Thursday of last week. We believe it is the intention of the contractor to push this job forward to immediate completion, so as to be enabled to turn the building over to the Company by the time the road is in running order.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—"Statisticians." The only district in this county in which either political party has a palpable gain over last year's vote is Summitville borough—where we actually double our vote. Last fall we polled one vote in that mountainous village: this fall we poll two.—Summitville is evidently looking up. Bully for her!

GODEY.—Godey for November is on our table. As usual, it is filled to repletion with good things. If there are any of our lady readers who have not subscribed for this queen of the monthlies, we would them advise to turn from the error of their ways and do so forthwith. We will publish terms, &c., next week.

FIVE DOLLARS REWARD.—LOST!—On Saturday, Sept. 28, a Gold Ring, having an Eagle for the device. Said ring is of pure gold, and is worth about $4.25. Supposed to have been lost on the Clay Pike, between Ebensburg and J. Mack's Hotel. The above reward will be paid for its return to the subscriber, in Ebensburg. PETER L. LINTON.
