

MISCELLANY.

The Law Relative to Drafting.

Numerous inquiries have been instituted relative to drafting. The following sketch will supply the desired information: The old law of the United States, based upon the Conscription Law of France, or closely modeled after it, gives the President authority to call out the volunteers, and in the event of these failing, a draft may be ordered. The regular State militia are first liable; but should they fail to supply the required number, then the able-bodied males residing in the regimental districts, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, are liable to be drawn. The Revised Statutes of this State, section 49 of the Militia Law, prescribe: Whenever the President of the United States or the Commander-in-Chief shall order a draft from the militia, for public service, such draft shall be made in the following manner—

Sec. 1. When the draft required to be made shall be a number equal to one or more companies of each brigade, such draft shall be made by company, to be determined by lot, to be drawn by the commanding officer of the brigade, in the presence of the commanding officers of the regiments composing such brigade, from the military roll of the State in his brigade, organized, uniformed, &c.

Sec. 2. In case such a draft shall require a number equal to one regiment, (to a brigade), it is to be determined in the same manner.

Sec. 3. In case such a draft shall require a larger number than the whole number composing the military force of such brigade, such additional draft shall be made of an equal number from the military roll of the uniformed militia of each town or ward, filed with the city, village, or town clerk, &c.

When such a draft from the uniformed militia is ordered, (which means the mass of the people,) all males residing in regimental districts are compelled to enroll themselves. The enlistment is then filed (in cities) in the county clerk's office. On the day appointed, the Mayor or Supervisor of the ward, in presence of the regimental commander of the district, draws by lot from this list a number of names, in accordance with the number called for by the draft.

On the day appointed, any male thus drawn may provide an able-bodied man as a substitute, who is then taken in his stead. No person of the required age is exempt from this drafting, except clergymen and those incapacitated by reason of bodily ailment.

The old militia law of the United States, passed in 1791, exempts the Vice President, judicial and executive officers, members of Congress, custom-house officials, post officers and officials connected with the mail service, inspectors of exports, pilots, and marines in actual service.

Reported Death of Ben McCulloch.

ROLLA, Mo., Oct. 6.—Maj. Wright of the Home Guards furnished the following statement: A physician, well-known to the major, whose name I am not permitted to use, arrived from the South-west on Tuesday evening. This physician was formerly partner of Dr. Shell, McCulloch's Army Surgeon. The former very recently had an interview with his old partner, and was told by him that in the battle of Springfield, McCulloch was shot through the hips and a glance ball also struck him in the forehead. Soon after making his report of the battle, McCulloch, with the Texas forces, was ordered back to Texas, but after reaching Camp Chesapeake, near Mount Vernon he died from his wounds.

Before he expired he spoke freely of the manner of his treatment by the Missourians and declared if he had known the true position of affairs he would never have entered the State. His body was placed in a metallic coffin and conveyed to Texas. His death was concealed even from his own troops for a time, it being the policy of the surviving leaders to operate in the prestige of his name. His son Ben McCulloch, jr., was therefore placed in nominal command, in order to keep up the acquaintance of McCulloch, having as late as winter before last, ranged with him several miles up the Colorado river, is convinced that the latter is dead.

Letters have been received by Mrs. Crawford, from her husband, Col. Crawford, of Price's army, stating that the latter was hemmed in, and occupying a critical position, and urging the immediate removal of his troops to the South.

THE VERY STONES CRY OUT AGAINST THEM.—A gentleman who recently visited the National Capitol, copied the following inscriptions from two blocks of marble awaiting their places in the Washington Monument. The blocks were ordered by the Legislatures of the respective States: "LOUISIANA: 'EVER FAITHFUL TO THE CONSTITUTION AND THE UNION.' 'TENNESSEE: 'THE FEDERAL UNION; IT MUST BE PRESERVED.' Could a more fitting rebuke be administered to these States, which have proved false to their own principles, than we have in these words graven upon stone by the States themselves?"

Men generally make way for him who is determined to push boldly past them.

A CARD.—WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860. MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agents, Mr. Adam B. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand, and for sale at as low rates as any other firm, at EVANS & WATSON'S, No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

Evans & Son, respectfully informs the public that the business will there be carried on in all its branches. All work will be done in the latest style, with neatness and dispatch, and upon the most reasonable terms. ROBT. D. THOMAS Ebensburg, April 4, 1861.

EXCELSIOR STOVE DEPOT.

COOKING & PARLOR STOVES.

Would respectfully call the attention of the public to one of the greatest improvements ever made in Cooking stoves—the burning of the Gas and smoke arising from the coal—by which means is saved FIFTY PER CENT. of Fuel. The improvements claimed are— 1st—a great saving of Fuel. 2d—a much quicker and hotter oven from the same fire. 3d—The preservation of the top plates, as they are all made double. 4th—Cleanliness, as there is not one half the soot and dirt found in other stoves. He has also on hand a large assortment of HARDWARE, CHAIN PUMPE, HOOP IRON, NAILS, GLASS of all size, TABLE and POCKET CUTLERY, EDGE TOOLS, HARVESTING TOOLS, &c., &c.

Also—He still manufactures and keeps on hand a large assortment of Tin, Copper and Sheet Iron, all of which he will sell at extremely low prices in exchange for Cash or Country produce. GEO. HUNTLEY, Nov. 24, 1859-4f.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

We trust that those who do not now receive THE TRIBUNE will subscribe for it without delay. The club price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is so low that there are but few in any community unable to take it. Henceforth, THE TRIBUNE, as the principal paper supporting the new Administration, will be peculiarly interesting, while outside of politics its reliable Foreign and Domestic News, its Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, and its Literary Department, give it interest and value which no other paper on this Continent can boast of. How ably and successfully THE TRIBUNE has conducted the campaign now so gloriously ended, the result in New York fully attests, and to the untiring exertions, signal capacity and foresight of HOWARD GREENE is due much of the glory of the victory over which a nation of Freemen are now rejoicing. It is, therefore, the duty of every true Republican to aid in giving THE TRIBUNE a still larger circulation. As evidence of its popularity and reliability, we may state that last week over Six Hundred Thousand copies were sold—a circumstance unprecedented in the annals of journalism.—Guardian and Gazette, Phoenixville, Pa.

TERMS: DAILY TRIBUNE, (311 issues per an.) $6.00 SEMI-WEEKLY, (164 " " " " ) $3.00 WEEKLY, (52 " " " " ) $1.20 TO CLUBS—SEMI-WEEKLY: Two copies of $3.50; Ten copies to one address, $20.00, any larger number at the latter rate. WEEKLY: Three copies, $5; Five for $8; Ten for $12, and any larger number at the rate of $1.20 each per annum, the paper to be addressed to each subscriber. To Clubs of Twenty we send an extra copy. Twenty copies to one address for $20, with one extra to him who sends us the Club. For each Club of One Hundred THE DAILY TRIBUNE will be sent gratis one year. Payment always in advance. Address THE TRIBUNE, No. 154 Nassau st. N. Y. dec 20

USEFUL INVENTIONS. I AM manufacturing and selling, at the low rate of six dollars, O. C. GREEN'S PATENT FEED CUTTER, acknowledged by all who have tried it, the simplest, most durable and easiest operated, machine ever gotten up. It will cut Corn Fodder, long Straw, short Oats, tangled Straw, or Hay. I have brought of Cambria, Indiana, Armstrong, Clarion, Forest, Elk and Jefferson counties. I will dispose of the right in three or four of the last named counties on fair terms. I have also the right for HAYDEN'S PATENT CARRIAGE WHEELS, in Cambria and Blair counties. This Wheel has stood the test of over four years in many of the Eastern and South-western States, and proves to be much stronger and more durable, although one-third lighter, than the ordinary Wheel. I do not desire to sell any of my machinery on this, but will furnish Carriages, Engines, Sulkeys, &c., &c. I propose to accommodate Carriage-makers with Wheels (or hubs and axles) on reasonable terms. These Wheels are fast superseding all others. Call at my shop, near the Ebensburg Ferry, and examine for yourself. ISAAC C. SINGER. Ebensburg, February 2, 1860.
