

POST OFFICE NOTICE. By instructions from the General Post Office Department, I am authorized to give notice that I am prepared to exchange United States Postage Stamps of the New Style for an equivalent amount of the Old Issue, during the period of SIX DAYS from the date of this notice, and that thereafter the Old Issue will not be received at this office in payment of Postage. JOHN THOMPSON, P. M. Ebensburg, Oct. 24, 1861.

A FEW SEASONABLE REFLECTIONS.—"The wind is sighing, all day long, A sad and melancholy song."

Winter is coming! We say it after due deliberation, and with a shiver that extends even unto our boot-points. The "melancholy days" are now on hand, in inexhaustible quantities, and of a quality to suit the most fastidious fancier of the article. The foliage of the forest has become metamorphosed by a process of nature from a living green to the "sere and yellow," and, ah! how dimly the frost-tinged winds moan and sigh through the almost denuded boughs! Where a month ago were flowers, and waving grain, and blithe, mirthsome songsters, and May-day happiness, now appears a gloomy desolation.

The apples have been plucked from their parent stem; the nuts are dropping one by one from the trees; the birds have receded to a warmer clime; and in the early morning, a rare net-work of white is discovered enveloping hill and dale with its gauzy presence.

Pretty soon—"r-r-r-rip! urr!—the cold North Wind will come swooping down upon us, to clasp us in his icy embrace. He will chase away the last lingering beams of Summer, and assume the office of Weather Clerk himself. A fierce, uncontrollable despot is this same Frost King! Genial Summer reigns with a mild and steady reign, but he comes as an avalanche, maintaining his sway vi et armis, as the land-sharks say. He rattles the elements in grand profusion around our head, makes the innermost nook and cranny of our tenebrous feel his influence, and blows his frigid breath in our very face.

That gale sweeping through the aisles of the forest is the avant courier of the Frost King. Do you hear it? If your potatoes are yet to be housed, or your coal-bin to be replenished, you had better heed it. This by the way, however.

And then will be in season icicles, hot punches, rheumatism, firesides, oysters, overheated stoves, two in a bed, et cetera—And sleigh-rides.

Especially the latter! And, oh! young reader, whoever you may be, as you glide merrily over the "crystal shoen," remember that Winter—whatever it may prove to others—is your halcyon era in life. Wrap the buffaloes warmly around yourself and partner, sit together snugly, lay on the whip right merrily, and bid Dull Care be unequivocally busted! For after you have departed from this sphere, there will be the same jingle of silvery bells—the same gay and happy laughter—the same fun, fancy, frolic, and fitting hither and thither—two-phorty, g'lang! you know—and the hoeses will have to take it all the same. In other words, go it while you're young, for when you get old you can't!

Winter has many terrors to some.—Hard times, empty granaries, racking coughs, excruciating pains, and the like, are a few of these. Man proposes but God disposes. Beggars of right should not be choosers. What cannot be cured must be endured,—and all such should be comforted by knowing that in their affliction or privation they are serving some wise end of their Creator. Another item from which to extract some crumbs of consolation is the fact that the cold term extendeth over only three or four months, instead of eight or ten, as it might just as easily do.

And thus ends the lesson.

FINANCIAL MATTER.—Cyrus L. Pershing, Esq., of Johnstown, has subscribed $500 toward the 7-30 Government loan. Mr. P., having just succeeded in coming out of the recent exciting game for Assembly with a full hand, does well in going it a loan.

WANTED!—A correspondent in each and every town and township in the county, to keep us posted on matters of local interest in their respective neighborhoods. Send on your jottings, friends, and oblige us exceedingly.

ALL ABOUT A BEAR.—A monster after the manner of a black bear was seen near Lloyd's Cemetery, a short distance east of town, on Friday last. What he was after, and whether or not he succeeded in getting it, are speculations that cannot be answered just at present, inasmuch as he took occasion to make very long and rapid tracks for the nearest wood before he could be interrogated. Some ten or fifteen of our most experienced huntsmen gave chase the following morning, but were unable to get a "bead" on the animal, owing to the fact, no doubt, that Bruin did not feel disposed to be made game of so early in the season. The near approach of wild animals to the habitations of man in the fall is said to be a sure indication of a coming hard winter.

MAN SHOT.—We learn from the Blairsville papers that John Devinney, Jr., of that place, was shot and dangerously wounded by some rebels in Western Virginia, a couple of weeks since. Mr. D. had an interest in some oil wells in that section, and was attending to business connected therewith at the time. It appears that he fell in company with some Secessionists, and being a Union man himself, gave utterance to Union sentiments; whereupon, one of the ruffians drew a pistol and deliberately fired upon him. The ball took effect below the left shoulder and passed out near the breast. At latest accounts he was doing well, and was expected to recover.

SOMETHING LIKE A SHAKE.—We are given to understand that some of the Johnstown folks who attended our County Fair represent it to have been "no great shakes." This is a ridiculous mistake.—The exhibition was a particularly Fair shake, in as much as it shook five hundred dollars, more or less, from the pockets of visitors into the coffers of the Society. This, we may append, is the sort of shake that affects most pleasantly. Can it?—yes, it must have been—that the only article that attracted the favorable attention of the aforesaid "Johnstown folks" was the display of Sour Grapes—placed on exhibition by themselves!

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE.—Every young man not engaged in the service of the country, should strive with all possible dispatch to prepare himself for usefulness by attending some good School adapted to the wants of the present age; and in this respect the "Iron City College" of Pittsburgh, Pa., sustains a high reputation, as is shown by the numerous prominent and responsible positions now filled by graduates from this School. Send for their Catalogue, and examine for yourselves.

THE TRIFOD.—John Brotherline and J. H. Keatley, Esq's., having become the editors and publishers of the Hollidaysburg Whig, that paper last week made its debut under new and improved auspices. It is independent in politics, and gives evidence of ability in its editorial department. Success to it!

Maj. Geo. Raymond, the former editor of the Whig, who has been appointed U. S. Consul for Balize, Honduras, sailed thence with his family a few days since. Success to him likewise!

ONE FOR US.—Says the Cambria Tribune: "The ladies of Ebensburg have formed an association for procuring blankets and stockings for the soldiers. So far they are ahead of the Johnstown ladies." That's a puff for you, Ladies of the Hose Association! Give it due appreciation, and keep ahead! But whether ahead or afoot, go ahead with the move you have on foot to conduce to the comfort of our brave volunteers.

IMPORTANT!—Attention is directed to the "Post Office Notice" at the head of the first local column. Those having P. O. stamps of the old issue are required to dispose of them within a period of six days from date, otherwise they will be valueless and will not be received as postage. See to it.

PHILADELPHIA PRESS.—The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement elsewhere of this excellent hebdomad. It is almost useless for us to say anything in its behalf, for the Press is known the world over to be a real live publication. Let all who may stand in need of such subscribe forthwith.

WITH AN ADDENDUM.—The Hollidaysburg Standard appears to be of the firm opinion that our friend Dizzard, of the Dem. & Sent., is "jubilant" over the result of the late election. Possibly he is: mountain-decibant, f'rinstance. As of course he has a perfect right to be.

COMPLETED.—The new tunnel, or rather the arching of the road-way to prevent danger, &c., from the sides of the cut giving way, on the Pennsylvania Road near Carpenter's Station, in Westmoreland county, has just been completed. It is a well constructed, substantial piece of work, which is, however, but characteristic of all done by this Company. The abutments are all of stone range work, and the arch—twenty-seven inches in thickness—is of brick. There are 6,000 yards of masonry in it, and there were 800,000 brick used in building it. It is 550 feet in length, and is said to have cost $20,000. The work has been under the more immediate charge of John S. Love, Esq., Resident Engineer of the Road on the Western Division, and is a credit to his scientific skill, judgment and energy.

"POSITIVELY ORIG."—Our Nimrodian contributor, who has been "Out West" hunting grouse with Russell, LL.D., S.N.O.B., etc., and who has just returned, advances the following con, with the request that newspapers copying handle it with care: In case that mammoth black bear seen near town last week had been killed, unhid, chopped up, and afterwards taken inwardly as an epicurean tit-bit, why would it now remind you of a woman dum brown? Because it would be, evidently and without doubt, a Bruin-eat. Our Nim. Con. asserts that he but seldom makes game of a Brunette, or, in point of fact, of any other man, and promises to not do so again soon if he be let free now.

LETTER FROM KENTUCKY.—On the outside of to-day's paper will be found a tolerably interesting letter from Kentucky, written by a whilom resident of this town. He shows up plainly, in a few words, some of the inconsistencies of Secession, and also gives us an insight into the hideous wrongs that are being perpetrated upon Union men in that land of chivalry, "the sunny South." We hope our young friend will let us hear from him often.

HALLOWEEN.—This ancient festival, which has been of latter years appropriated by "rude, uncultivated boys" to the indiscriminate pounding of doors, piling up all sorts of movables in the street, and other pieces of mischief, pays its annual visit on the last day of this month. It is to be hoped that our juveniles about town will let the occasion pass by, without any particular demonstrations.

SILVER GRAYS.—The company being recruited in this county under the above name, composed entirely of men over forty-five years of age, is still in a flourishing condition. It is reduced to a certainty that it will see active service in the tented field in the course of a few weeks.—The members met at Wilmore yesterday to choose officers, with what result we did not hear.

WHAT IS THE REASON that we receive the Harrisburg Telegraph so irregularly? Sometimes the light of its countenance beams not on our sanctum for two and three days together! The Telegraph is one of the very best of our daily exchanges, and we cannot possibly get along without it. Circulate it in this direction.

THE PLACE FOR YOUR MONEY.—Go to Doctor Thompson's, at the Post Office, for the latest newspapers, magazines, and publications of all kinds. He also keeps on hand a large variety of National envelopes and note paper, pens, ink, cigars, etc., all of which will be sold cheap for cash.

DUCKS.—It is currently reported but not generally believed that wild ducks are exceedingly plentiful in this neighborhood at present. Ditto: that two of our amateur sportsmen bagged about a baker's dozen of the feathered birds in one day recently.

LYCEUM.—The question for debate at the next meeting of the Ebensburg Literary Association, on Friday night, is: "Resolved, That it is beneficial for governments to be in debt."

DEAD.—George Nesbit, of Co. E, (from Blairsville,) 11th regiment, P. R. C., died at Camp Tennyson, on the 14th inst.—His remains were taken to Blairsville for interment.

LADIES, ATTEND.—Another meeting of the Ladies' Hose and Blanket Association will be held in the Union School-House on next Friday eve. The members are requested to be present.

BARGAINS.—C. R. Jones, at his store, has just received a new stock of Ladies' and Boys' boots and shoes. Call and see them, and secure bargains.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—The November number of this magazine has been received. It is, as usual, richly freighted with good and beautiful things. Peterson stands pre-eminent in the ranks of caterers for the public, and especially is he popular with the ladies. The reason of this is, he gives better engravings, more reliable fashion-plates, and choicer reading matter, at a lower price, than any other similar publication in the United States. Let every lady of taste become a subscriber thereto—if she be not one already. The following are the terms (in advance) for the publication:

One copy one year, $2. Three copies one year, $5. Five copies one year, $7 50. Eight copies one year, $10. Twelve copies one year, $15. Sixteen copies one year, $20. To every person getting up a Club of Three, Five, Eight or Twelve copies, an extra copy of the Magazine for 1862 will be given. If preferred, however, we will send as a premium, (instead of the extra copy) an illustrated LADY'S ALBUM, handsomely bound in gilt, or our Magnificent Mezzotint for framing, size 27 inches by 20—"Bunyan's Wife Interceding for his Release from Prison." To every person getting up a Club of Sixteen, two extra copies of the Magazine, or of either of the other Premiums will be sent.

Address: C. J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Let us suggest to our readers that now is the time to commence getting up clubs for the Book. The new Volume will begin in January, and those who intend subscribing should have their names enrolled immediately.—Godey has lived and flourished for thirty-two years, and during that time he has published the best magazine extant: and he now promises to improve on former efforts. We may add that he is a man of his word and will do what he says. Here are the terms (cash in advance) for the Book:

One copy one year, $3. Two copies one year, $5. Three copies one year, $6. Four copies one year, $7. Five copies one year, and an extra one to the person sending the club, $10. Eight copies one year, and an extra one to the person sending the club, $15. Eleven copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $20.

Address: L. A. GODEY, 323 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

—We will furnish The Alleghanian and Godey's Lady's Book to persons so desiring at the very low rate of $3.50 per year, in advance.
