

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

LOCAL MILITARY MATTERS.—The several companies composing the Cambria County Regiment, now at Camp Curtin, are rapidly filling up, and their full complements will soon be obtained.

Company F, of Col. Geary's regiment, is formed by the merging of two parts of companies, hailing respectively from Gallitzin, this county, and Allegheny county.

A squad of some ten or twelve men left this place for Pittsburg on Monday, to fill up the ranks of Capt. Williams' 19th regular infantry company.

The ranks of the "Silver Grays," we understand, have been almost filled to the maximum standard.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—On Thursday of last week, an aggravated case of highway robbery was committed on the Ebensburg and Wilmore Plank Road, a few miles from this place, under the following circumstances:

Mr. Thomas Williams, a young man residing in Cambria Township, who was returning from Wilmore with an unloaded wagon, fell in with two strolling vagabonds a short distance below the Walton House.

The men requested to be allowed to ride in the wagon, which request was cheerfully acceded to. While they were still talking, one of the travelers, taking advantage of a to him auspicious moment, dealt Mr. W. a severe blow on the head with a cane, prostrating him and rendering him entirely senseless for the time being.

KILLED IN THE ROLLING MILL.—A young man, a German, aged about 17 years, named Conrad Wolf, was killed in the Rolling Mill, at Johnstown, on Thursday night, the 24th ult., by being drawn between the Rolls.

UNIQUE.—In the printed advertisement of a certain Justice of the Peace, who lives something less than a thousand miles from this locality, there appears the following "perkier":

"Justice dispensed without fear, favor or affection." In these days of official corruption, when the longest and most plethoric purse seems to rule the roast, we submit that it is refreshing to find one man who promises to balance the scales evenly.

HEAVY STORM.—We were favored with another very extensive rain-storm during the latter part of last week and the beginning of the present, which equalled, if it did not overtop, its great predecessor of a month ago.

The rain commenced falling on Friday evening, and continued without intermission until Monday at noon, when the war of the elements moderated somewhat. The atmosphere, however, has worn a moist, watery tinge ever since.

The various streams throughout this county were swollen to an unusual height. The trestle-work of the bridge over the Conemaugh, near Wilmore, was swept away, rendering the structure useless for the time being.

LARCENY EXTRAORDINARY!—One night last week, some wicked individual, not having a due fear of the law before his eyes, did feloniously effect an entrance into the domicile of Mr. Richard Owens, resident about one mile east of town.

The JOHNSTOWN COUNTERFEITERS.—During the past couple of weeks, a considerable portion of the time of the U. S. District Court, now in session at Pittsburg, was occupied in the trial of the Johnstown counterfeiters.

CAMBRIA COUNTY.—It gives us much pleasure to inform our readers that our former contributor, "Jonathan Oldbuck, of Monkbarus," has consented to resume the production of his History of Cambria County for these columns.

INDIANA COUNTY ITEMS.—Mr. Adam Weir, the man who was recently ridden on a rail in Blairsville for supposed secession proclivities, publishes a card in the Blairsville Record in which he says he is and always has been a good Union man.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A young boy named Lust, living near Hollidaysburg, was recently so severely injured by falling from a hickory tree, which he had ascended in quest of the fruit, that he died a few days thereafter.

AGRICULTURAL MONSTROSITIES.—Our respected cotemporary, the Hollidaysburg Register, in noticing last week that four beets, weighing in the aggregate 20½ pounds, had been left at that office for inspection, inquires, Can anybody beat them?

We are, moreover, of opinion that we can appropriate the permissoms in the pumpkin line. Mr. Johnston Moore, of this borough, has furnished us the figures of the size and weight of five pumpkins, raised by himself—as follows:

NEW SCHEDULE.—A new schedule went into operation on the Pennsylvania Railroad on Monday last. Annexed is the time of the departure of the several trains from Wilmore and Cresson stations—

Table with 2 columns: Station and Train Name, and 2 columns: Time. Includes Wilmore Station and Cresson Station.

PROMOTION.—Lt. Col. Porter, of the 11th Penna. Reserves, having resigned on account of ill health, a change has necessarily been effected in the complexion of the field officers of that regiment.

DEAD.—Young Deviny, of Blairsville, the shooting of whom by a Secessionist in Western Virginia we noticed some weeks since, died at Parkersburg, on the 23d ult. His remains were brought home for interment. He was about 21 years of age.

TEMPERANCE.—On our fourth page this week will be found an interesting paper on the origin of the Sons of Temperance in America. It will be read with interest by the many friends of the cause in this section, and may possibly afford some information as to the Order not heretofore generally known. It is our intention, from time to time, to devote a similar space to the agitation of the much-needed Temperance Reform—the propriety of which none of our readers can question.
