

CHAPTER IN BEHALF OF FEMALE SCHOOL TEACHERS.—In the circular of Co. Supt. Swank, setting forth that there now exists a scarcity of Teachers in this county, and published in these columns last week, we are furnished with at least one interesting item of information. He says, in effect, that, owing to divers causes, a greater proportion of female Teachers has been employed this winter than during any preceding year—at least one-third of the whole number being of that class. He also adds that: "If they all devote themselves zealously to the performance of their responsible duties, and do not forget to improve their own mental qualifications while they are developing the minds of their pupils, they will do much this winter toward breaking down in some portions of the county an unjust prejudice which has heretofore operated against their employment as instructors of youth."

LOCAL MILITARY MATTERS.—A telegram to the associated press, dated Harrisburg, Monday, Nov. 18, reads thus:—"This afternoon the 66th regiment, Col. J. M. Power, and the 56th regiment, Col. Richard White, were presented with the State flags by Governor Curtin. The regiments were drawn up in the rear of the Capitol, and presented a fine appearance. The Governor's presentation speech received the most enthusiastic applause, particularly when he referred to the scene of the future operations of these regiments in South Carolina—whither they are ordered. Colonel Power will leave to-night, and Colonel White to-morrow." Colonels Power and White are both residents of this county, and their regiments contain a large proportion of Cambrians. We congratulate them upon the privilege of being allowed to bear a hand in bearding the monster Sesesh in his very den, and feel assured that they will be "in at the death," should that desirable event not transpire until their arrival at their proposed destination.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this popular Lady's Magazine for December. It is a splendid number. The title page for 1861 is the handsomest we ever saw. "Peterson" will be greatly improved in 1862. It will contain 1000 pages of double column reading matter, 14 steel plates, 12 colored steel fashion plates, 12 colored patterns in Berlin work, embroidery or crochet, and 800 wood engravings—proportionately more than any other periodical gives. Its stories and novelets are by the best writers. In 1862, Four Original Copyright Novelets will be given. Its Fashions are always the latest and prettiest. Every neighborhood ought to make up a club. Its price is but Two Dollars a year, or a Dollar less than Magazines of its class. It is the Magazine for the Times! To clubs, it is cheaper still, viz.—three copies for $5, five for $7.50, or eight for $10, and an extra copy as a premium. Specimens sent, if written for, to those wishing to get up clubs. Address, post-paid, Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

SHOW YOUR HAND.—What has become of our Johnstown correspondent, who used to delight us in days of yore with his racy effusions? Manifest yourself, good friend, and make us and our readers your debtor forever. NON EST.—That "honest army contractor" wanted by the Standard. A laborious search failed to elicit any information as to his whereabouts. Don't believe he ever lived in this region. Ain't he in Blair county? APOLOGISTIC.—Several articles intended for this week's paper have been crowded out by reason of a press of correspondence. They will appear in our next. SNOW.—The peaks of the mountains in this section were covered with a mantle of snow on Saturday and Sunday. Winter is about here, and no mistake. THANKS: To C. R. J. for an acceptable present. May your days be long upon the land, etc. Letter from Kentucky. Camp Nevin, Ky., Nov. 6, 1861. Correspondence of The Alleghanlian. The Cherry Tree Guards—a military company not altogether unknown to many of our readers, especially in the northern portion of your county—left Cherry Tree Bor' for Kittanning on Wednesday morning, 24th September, accompanied by the Cherry Tree Band and an escort of citizens on horseback. A pleasant day's ride brought us to Indiana, where we were received by a committee of citizens, and assigned places for the night. The next day at noon we resumed our march, and arrived at Kittanning on Friday evening. We marched into Camp Orr on Saturday morning, and were sworn into the service of the United States under Col. Wm. Sirtwell. We were drilled by that popular and efficient officer in camp until Monday, 14th October, when we were ordered to Pittsburgh. On arriving there, our regiment, the "Columbia Cadets" was placed in the Col. Negley's brigade, and became the 73rd regiment, P. V. Here we received our uniforms, arms, equipments and tents. On the Thursday following, the brigade was marched to Allegheny City, where a stand of colors was presented to each regiment by Gov. Curtin. In the course of his remarks, Gov. C. announced that by an order of the War Department the destination of our brigade had been changed from Missouri to Kentucky.

MAN KILLED!—On Thursday last, the evening train on the Indiana Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad ran over a man named James Beatty, near Reed's Station, killing him instantly. The deceased had been in Indiana during the early part of the day, and becoming intoxicated, he attempted to walk between the rails of the road to his home, a distance of three miles. As the engineer neared the station, he blew the whistle and looked back to get the signal from the conductor. On turning around he discovered the man lying on the track, within about thirty rods of the engine. He immediately whistled down breaks, and reversed the engine, but it was too late—the train passed over the unfortunate man, literally cutting him to pieces and strewing the road with his mangled remains. Another sad warning! NOT TRUE.—Some weeks since we published a statement, from another paper, to the effect that Capt. Spires, of Co. I, 11th regiment, P. R. C., had been court-martialed for sleeping on his post. The Captain has written a letter to a Greensburg paper emphatically denying the charge, in the course of which he takes occasion to say: "I was not found sleeping on my post, neither was I court-martialed. Unless my reason has failed me, I am sure I am yet Captain of the Bairdstown Blues, and with the help of God intend to remain such, unless removed by disease or I fall by the shafts of the enemies of our once happy but now distracted country." Bully for Captain Spires! ACCIDENT.—A man named James Mether, residing in Conemaugh Borough, was recently seriously injured on the railroad near New Florence by attempting to jump from a freight train while under full headway. He failed to clear the track, and suffered a terrible laceration of the right arm by having it caught under one of the wheels. He was brought back to Johnstown, when it was found necessary to have the injured arm amputated at the elbow. So we learn from the Tribune. CAMBRIA COUNTY.—We are happy to inform our readers that the continuation of the series of papers on "Cambria County," well known as a local history of much merit, has been resumed by the author, "Jonathan Oldbuck, of Monkbarns," and will be forthcoming in our next issue.—It should be carefully read by each and every Frosty Son of Thunder. APPOINTED.—It is rumored that Col. James M. Swank, of Johnstown, the present efficient incumbent of the County Superintendency of this county, has received the appointment of a clerkship in one of the departments at Washington. Hepe it is true, for there is no man who deserves the honor more highly than the Col. "THE THREE FRIENDS."—On our outside this week will be found a patriotic story under the above caption, from the columns of Grace Greenwood's Little Pilgrim, and written by Miss Louise E. Vickroy. It will repay a perusal. LYCEUM.—The following is the question for discussion at the E. L. A., on next Friday evening: "Resolved, That it would be detrimental to the Union cause to open a port for traffic in cotton."
