

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

All persons indebted to the subscriber for either Advertising, Job Work or Subscription, are requested to call and settle their respective accounts before the first day of January next.

From Our Volunteers.

Extract from a private letter, dated CAMP PIERPOINT, Va., Dec. 8, 1861. Up to this time, the 11th regiment has been out twice, in company with other regiments, on reconnoitering excursions, otherwise foraging expeditions.

We took, I suppose, about five hundred bushels of corn, one hundred bushels of potatoes, twenty-five or thirty hogs, quite an amount of wheat, an ox-team and a number of horses.

This is a delightful climate. The weather is warm and dry. The effective troops on this side the Potomac are in better condition and better spirits than any time since they crossed the river.

SILVER GRAYS.—We find the following notice concerning the Cambria county Silver Grays in the Harrisburg Telegraph of Friday last:

Captain Palmer marched into the city this morning from Camp Curtin, with the view of being mustered into the service of the United States, but as the ages of the members were considerably over the limit fixed by law, the mustering officer, Capt. Dodge, postponed that duty until he received further orders from Washington.

Inasmuch as the formation of this company was countenanced by the State authorities—Gov. Curtin having given his express approval to it—we think it would be indeed bad policy to refuse to accept its services.

A DAY AFTER THE FAIR.—The Dem. & Sent., with characteristic stupidity, last week endeavored to make a little capital out of a slight mistake that appeared in our columns two editions since.

When our lynx-eyed cotemporary, aided by his adviser and snapper-up of unconsidered trifles, arranges it to accumulate a big thing on The Alleghanian, he should be careful that he be not forestalled in his laudable undertaking.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Friday of last week, a man named Michael Burgoon, of Washington township, this county, was killed near Cresson under the following circumstances: He was engaged at the time as fireman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and had occasion to get off his locomotive at the above point.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.—We would respectfully but earnestly advise those of our readers who may desire a good daily newspaper to subscribe for the New York Tribune. It is a real "five" journal, and stands pre-eminent above all similar publications. See terms, &c., elsewhere.

LOCAL ETHINGS.—The weather continues mild and pleasant in this latitude, more closely resembling Indian Summer than any season of which we have knowledge. The snow has entirely disappeared, and we are obliged to scud it under bare poles, like good fellows.—We have failed to receive the Hollidaysburg Standard during the past two weeks.

—The erection of the depot building is progressing. A few more days will probably witness its completion.—We embrace this opportunity to say, that if any of our readers may desire to present us with a Christmas Turkey, we are still in the market. Don't all speak at once!

—Read "Spread Eagle" Train's speech to an English audience, published on the outside of to-day's paper. He tells John Bull some wholesome, albeit unpalatable, truths, in that plain, straightforward, and unmistakable style of speech which a friend of ours at one time denominated "pure Saxon."

—The Altoona Tribune has been promising its readers a "great show" of some sort or other for the past couple of months.—Thus far, however, it has failed to be forthcoming. This is wrong—to make a promise to the ear only to break it to the hope. We therefore respectfully suggest that the editor of the Tribune forthwith proceed to allay our curiosity by showing it!

THE LADIES' ASSOCIATION.—Annexed is a list of articles contained in two boxes forwarded by those Good Samaritans, the Ladies' Association, of this place, to the Sanitary Commission of the War Department, last week:

- Four pr woolen Socks, one pr cotton Socks, nineteen Comforts & Quilts, one Blanket, Thirty Pillows, one hair Pillow, eight Cushions, six double Wrappers, forty pillow Cases, one pr Sheets, sixteen Towels, thirty pr Slippers, six parcels muslin Bags, four parcels Linen, ten pr Under Shirts, thirteen pr Drawers, six Rings, seven cans Tomatoes, one can Raspberries, one can Peaches, one can Plums, one can Apples, one can Pear Preserves, one can Pumpkin Butter, one can Blackberry Jelly, one jar mixed Pickles, two bottles Tomato Catsup, one bottle dried Currants, four parcels dried Fruits, five papers Corn Starch, one paper Gelatine, Magazines and Reading Matter.

STEAM SAW-MILL.—We notice that Messrs. A. A. Barker and T. S. Robinson, the former of this place and the latter of Chest Springs, are now engaged in the erection of a steam saw-mill in the East Ward, directly on the line of the railroad. The building is fifty feet in length, twenty-five feet in breadth, and one story high. The frame-work has already been "raised," with prospect of a speedy completion of the entire structure in a short time.

SAD.—On Friday night, 39th ult., a man named Wm. Hartness, of Pine township, Indiana county, was frozen to death near his own residence. He had been to Armagh during the day, and procuring a quantity of whiskey, he imbibed immoderately. On his way home, he became stupefied and laid down by the roadside, where he perished from the effects of the cold and the poisonous liquor combined.

RR. ITEM.—Work on the remaining section of the Railroad is progressing. A large force of workmen are now employed on it, and, weather permitting, the probability is that it will be completed in a week or two.

POSTMASTER APPOINTED.—Dr. G. R. Lewis has been appointed Postmaster of Carrolltown borough, vice Wm. R. Jones, resigned. The Doctor will make an excellent official. We wish him success.

STOVES.—Any one in need of an excellent stove should not fail to call at the establishment of Geo. Huntley, on High street, where a large assortment of the article is kept constantly on hand.

SOME MORE WELSH POETRY.—It gratifies us considerably if not more to be able to lay before our readers this week another instalment of Patriotic Welsh Poetry—"written especially for The Alleghanian," as the author's manuscript indicates.—Read, ponder, and inwardly digest:

Heddwch a Gymero Lc. Beth y'u'r wylo! ar ochriddo! Sydd y'w glywed yr ein gwlad? Y mae'r bradwy'r brawt or ddeu, Nawr yn ceisio gwneyd ein brad. Angel rhyddid a fradychwyd—Gan y teulu rhyfedd hyn. Deu'n nianu feibion rhyddydd, In ddiogelid ef yn fyw.

Go to Dr. Bunn's for good segars or a superior article of chewing tobacco. He sells cheap.

Notings from Western Virginia.

PORTLAND, Va., Dec. 12, 1861. Correspondence of The Alleghanian. Here we are—away down in Dixie Land—about one hundred and thirty-seven miles east of Wheeling, and directly on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

You will remember that I left you on Monday. On Tuesday, at about 7 P. M., I arrived at Wheeling, and took breakfast at the McClure House, where Gen. Rosecrans now has his headquarters. Much to my regret, I did not have an opportunity of seeing that distinguished personage.

I also passed through Grafton. It is located somewhat similar to Johnstown, but is not so large. There is a splendid hotel at this point, erected by the RR. Company. The scenery all along the route is most grand. The road itself must have cost an immense amount of money in building.

There are no cesspits whatever here or in the immediate vicinity. The great body of the people are as loyal to the Union as are Pennsylvanians in general, and a great deal more so than some few in particular that I could name in Cambria county had I the inclination. Use.

THE WEEKLY PRESS. The general features of the Paper, in addition to its POLITICAL AND NEWS DEPARTMENTS, will be POETRY, SKETCHES, BIOGRAPHY and Original and Selected TALES, chosen for their lessons of Life, illustrations of History, depiction of Manners, and general merit, and adapted, in their variety, to the tastes of both sexes and all ages.
