

CAMP CURTIN, Jan. 18, 1862. Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

It gives your correspondent much pleasure to announce the fact, that the "Silver Grays" now present a full company, as required by the Act of Congress.

The all absorbing topic of conversation in camp is the expected payment of the soldiers now here. It is said, that that much hoped for event will transpire next week.

The interest manifested in the welfare of the "Silver Grays," among those residing in the vicinity of the camp, may be inferred from the contents of the annexed card from our Captain, published in the "Harrisburg Telegraph" of the 17th inst.

During my absence from camp, on Christmas day, a number of the kind ladies of Harrisburg evinced their generosity by presenting to the company under my command a supply of luxuries which are not included in a soldier's rations.

I am requested to express to the generous donors the heartfelt thanks of the men under my command for these repeated manifestations of sympathy.

It has been asserted by many who claim to speak by authority, that the "Silver Grays" will be detailed by the Governor to take charge of the State Arsenal and Warehouse, containing the public stores in Harrisburg.

Governor Curtin is evidently favorably predisposed in favor of the "Silver Grays." He has manifested it by his selection of our company as a guard of the public property.

There is a remarkable fact in connection with our company which is worthy of note, and which cannot be said of any other that has been here as long as it has.

Notwithstanding the average age of the members is a fraction over fifty-two years, not one has been an occupant of the Hospital since the company has been in camp.

This is as gratifying as it is true, and must dispel any fears that may be entertained by our friends, resulting from the exaggerated stories which have been circulated in relation to the healthy location of the camp.

An interesting event took place here on the occasion of the late visit of our friend, A. C. Mullin, Esq. I will reserve a notice of it for my next letter, as this one must be necessarily brief, owing to your correspondent's engagements in another direction.

BIG THING FOR BACHELORS!—It always agrees with our general corporosity to do good. In fact, we do not upon disseminating joy, happiness, ecstasy and highlousness with an unsparring hand upon all around us.

Bachelors are generally supposed to constitute the most miserable, morose, misanthropic, and altogether God-forsakenest genus of mortals in existence.

Two ladies wish to get husbands, good moral sober genteel young men (and a handsome income) we are ourselves good looking industrious and good housekeepers.

An accompanying note requests us to dress the above in "a better style" before publishing. This is simply impossible.

If Hattie and Julia succeed in securing husbands on the strength of their advertisement, it will probably be by reason that the fools are not all dead.

JOHNSTOWN ITEMS.—A Welshman by the name of Evans, while laboring under an attack of mania a potu, the other day, jumped from a window in the third story of the Mansion House to the pavement below.

CHARLES ELLIS made a narrow escape from drowning in the Stony Creek, on Friday night. He accidentally fell into the "raging torrent," and only succeeded in regaining terra firma by the judicious use of a stick of timber which fortunately happened near by.

MILITARY.—The cavalry company now being recruited in this county, a brief notice of which we printed last week, is getting along finely. We understand that between fifty and sixty men have already enlisted in it, a number of whom have been "sworn in."

PERSONAL.—Our worthy and respected friend, Ex-Sheriff Linton, together with family, last week took his departure from our midst for Johnstown, where in future he intends residing.

MR. JOHN BUCK, the successor of Sheriff Linton, last week took up his residence in this borough. Although we opposed Mr. B.'s election last fall on political grounds, we would be untrue to our personal feelings did we fail to extend to him the right hand of greeting, and bid him welcome.

OUT AND IN.—On last Thursday, Mr. John A. Blair, who during the past two years has faithfully served the people of Cambria in the arduous and responsible office of County Treasurer, gave way to his successor, Mr. Thomas Callan.

OIL!—It is currently reported and generally believed that the "Ebensburg Oil Company"—a local institution, owing its "birth" to the oleaginous furor of last spring—has succeeded in striking a vein of oil which yields at the rate of six barrels per hour.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS.—As our readers have doubtless perceived, during the past month we have secured the services of a number of new correspondents, whose effusions add greatly to the interest and variety of our columns.

Our reliable as well as racy Camp Pierpont correspondent, "E," and "Boomer," of Camp Wood, Kentucky, will also be on hand as often as circumstances permit.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—Annexed is the Annual Report of the Treasurer and Secretary of the Cambria County Agricultural Society for the year 1861:

CONTINENTAL MONTHLY.—This is the name of a new magazine, edited by Charles G. Leland, which bids fair to become a bright and shining light in the galaxy of literature.

MILITARY.—The cavalry company now being recruited in this county, a brief notice of which we printed last week, is getting along finely.

DEAD.—We are sorry to chronicle that Mr. Patrick Dempsey, of Co. A, 11th Regiment P. R. C., Col. Gallagher, died at the hospital at Camp Pierpont, Va., in December last.

ATTENTION, LADIES!—We are requested to announce that a meeting of the "Ladies' Hose Association" of Ebensburg will be held at the Union School-House, on Friday evening next, at 6 o'clock, P. M.

Godey for February is a triumph. It excels even its "illustrious predecessors."—Every family in the land should have it.

TEMPUS FUGIT.—which means, Time flies. Speaking of Time, we would advise those of our readers who may desire to keep the accurate run of the same, to buy one of the excellent time-keepers, in the shape of either a watch or clock, now on hand and for sale by Cham Roberts.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
