

MISCELLANY.

Story of a Refugee.

Correspondence of the Cincinnati Times.
Mr. Nelson R. A. Biddle, a merchant of Philadelphia, who married his wife in Savannah, Georgia, and who left there on the 2d, inst., has just arrived here by way of Nashville, Bowling Green, and Louisville. Mr. Biddle had great difficulty in getting out of Savannah, having labored very faithfully, but in vain, to do so for several months. Mr. Biddle describes the alarm and panic at Savannah, after the Federal attack on Port Royal, as most extraordinary. Fear seized every one, and all the citizens fled from the place. The city has no protection or defenses whatever, all the guns, ammunition and cannon having been sent to Virginia. There were no soldiers there but one regiment, which was encamped near the town, temporarily, on its way to Virginia. During the residence of my informant in Savannah, there were two or three drafts for soldiers, and he was compelled to furnish two substitutes for the Rebel army, one of whom, an ex-lumber merchant of Maine, was the most violent Secessionist in the place.

The South, he believes, has all the force in the field that it can possibly raise, having made the most determined and persistent efforts to furnish men and money for the cause. The people have been most severely taxed, and those at all suspected of Union sentiments or proclivities, have been forced to contribute enormous sums. Many of the merchants and professional men have been impoverished by the exactions of the "Confederacy." The strongest and boldest Union man in Savannah, Hon. J. E. Ward, formerly our Minister to China, and he is fearfully persecuted by the Rebels, who have arrested him at least twenty times while trying to escape, and robbed him of his entire property, some $300,000, and threatened several times to hang him.

Mr. Ward says he can kill him if they like, but that he will never surrender his allegiance to the General Government, or cease to detest and denounce the miserable abortion known as the Southern Confederacy. He is very anxious to go North, but is so closely watched that he cannot escape. Mr. Biddle thinks that it is not at all improbable that Mr. Ward will be assassinated in Savannah, unless he succeeds in getting out of the State.

The greatest excitement, Mr. Biddle says, reigned throughout the South on the subject of war, and the women of Savannah daily practiced with firearms, to perfect themselves in their use. He thinks that even in Savannah the presence of the Federal army would be hailed with joy by a majority of the people. Savannah, like all the southern towns through which Mr. Biddle passed, is entirely barren of business, and complaints are rife of the stagnation of trade and the scarcity of money.

Mr. Biddle had the greatest difficulty in obtaining $500 in gold, although his brother-in-law had 90,000 of Georgia currency in the Planters' Bank, and when he did procure coin, was compelled to pay 50 cents premium for it. Nashville has no defenses, and the people there have, or pretend to have, no fear of any attack from the Federal forces as they say they never can pass Bowling Green.

The State House at Nashville was protected by six 64-pounders, but those were to be sent to Bowling Green in a few days. Mr. Biddell was at Bowling Green several days, and has had a long interview with Gen. Buckner, who, he thinks, has some sixty-five or seventy thousand men under his command, and was expecting Gen. Floyd from Virginia, with six or seven thousand, and Gen. Walter T. Herbert—a brother of the California Congressman who killed the Irish waiter at Washington—from Louisiana, with about the same number.

Gen. Buckner is very strongly defended, having an admirable position and three tiers of fortifications, which cannot be taken save by a desperate fight and with great bloodshed. If the Rebels are driven from one position, they can take another, and for a long time make a most formidable resistance. Mr. Biddell thinks the prospect of success against Bowling Green is very small, but that the flanking of Buckner on the right and left would insure his defeat.

Mr. Biddell opines that Gen. Buell's force is about one hundred and twenty-five thousand, and that he will not make an attack on the Rebels unless he has very good reason to hope for complete success.

Ben McCulloch made a speech at Savannah on the evening of the 12th ult., and told the people that the South had won all the battles thus far, and would continue to be victorious until their independence was recognized.

Mr. Biddell says that the most astounding falsehoods are daily circulated and believed throughout the South, and that he himself had no doubt, at one time, that Lincoln had been hanged. Such stories as the taking of Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York are very common, and the Savannah papers publish accounts of false victories won by the Rebels five or six times every week.

If you have great talents, industry will improve them; if moderate abilities, industry will supply their deficiencies. Nothing is denied to well directed labor; nothing is ever to be attained without it.

THE WEEKLY PRESS.
THE WEEKLY PRESS has been established on a secure and permanent foundation; but it is, in reality, a marvellous example of the degree of favor which a rightly-conducted LITERARY, POLITICAL AND NEWS JOURNAL can receive at the hands of a liberal and enlightened Public.

The general features of the Paper, in addition to its POLITICAL AND NEWS DEPARTMENTS, will be POETRY, SKETCHES, BIOGRAPHY and Original and Selected TALES, chosen for their lessons of Life, illustrations of History, depicture of Manners, and general merit, and adapted, in their variety, to the tastes of both sexes and all ages.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER
OF THE WEEKLY PRESS, now universally acknowledged to be of an elevated stamp, shall not only maintain its present high standing, but shall be enhanced by important and valuable contributions from able Writers.

THE POLITICAL COURSE
OF THE WEEKLY PRESS need not be enlarged upon here. Independent, steady and fearless, it has battled unwaveringly and zealously in defence of THE RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE against Executive Usurpation and Unfair and Tyrannical Legislation; ever declaring and adhering to the doctrine that POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY constitutes the fundamental basis of our free institutions, and that the intelligence and patriotism of our Citizens will always be preservative of a just, wise and salutary Government. These are the principles to which THE WEEKLY PRESS has been committed, and to these it will adhere.

A CARD.
WITMER'S BRIDGE, Lancaster Tp. July 30, 1860.
MESSRS. EVANS AND WATSON: GENTLEMEN—The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Barr, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. The safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends, and representing a value of over Twenty Thousand Dollars, ($20,000) was in my Mill which was destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The safe was on the second floor and fell to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the ruins, which was greatly increased by the combustion of a large quantity of grain confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. This fact was, however, to many bystanders a better recommendation of your Safes than could be expressed in any other words from me. Yours Respectfully, SAMUEL RANCK.

A large assortment of the above quality of Fire and Thief Proof Safes always on hand and for sale at low rates as any other firm, at No. 304 Chestnut st., Philadelphia.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE!
We trust that those who do not now receive THE TRIBUNE will subscribe for it without delay. The club price of THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE and THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is so low that there are but few in any community unable to take it. Henceforth, THE TRIBUNE, as the principal paper supporting the new Administration, will be peculiarly interesting, while outside of politics its remarkable Foreign and Domestic News, its Commercial and Agricultural Intelligence, and its Literary Department, give to it interest and value which no other paper on this Continent can boast of. How ably and successfully THE TRIBUNE has conducted the campaign now so gloriously ended, the result in New York fully attests, and to the untiring exertions, signal capacity and foresight of HONORABLE GALELIEU we owe much of the glory of the victory over which a nation of Freemen are now rejoicing. It is, therefore, the duty of every true Republican to aid in giving THE TRIBUNE a still larger circulation. As evidence of its popularity and reliability, we may state that last week over Six Hundred Thousand copies were sold—a circumstance unprecedented in the annals of journalism.—Guardian and Gleaner, Phoenixville, Pa.
