

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Letter from the "Silver Grays."

CAMP CURTIN, Feb. 3, 1862.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

The Paymaster has been among us, scattering broadcast over the Camp the very welcome promises of Uncle Samuel to pay his defenders for services which have been rendered, or for the time occupied in the preparation to properly discharge the duties which belong to a soldier's career.

The volunteers encamped here have been paid up to the 1st day of the present year. In the beginning of March they will be paid for the months of January and February.

Much speculation is now afloat as to the future movements of the soldiers in this camp. It is generally credited that Governor Curtin has made a proposition to the War Department, offering twelve Regiments, full and complete, for any Southern enterprise that may be within the programme of the General Government.

For Lieutenant Mullin, your correspondent entertains a regard commensurate with his acknowledged worth as a gentleman and soldier.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—An accident of a singular as well as heart-rending character occurred in Susquehanna township, this county, last week, by which a man named Silas Ballou lost his life.

MILITARY.—Capt. Wm. Linton's cavalry company, we understand, is rapidly filling up, and no doubts are entertained that the requisite complement of men will speedily be obtained.

DISCONTINUED.—The publication of the Blairsville Record has been discontinued, the editor, Mr. James F. Campbell, having become one of the editors of the Greensburg Republican.

sure you, they can and do fully appreciate the compliment, and respect the source whence it emanated.

In my previous letters, I have confined myself in the main to "matters and things" in which the "Silver Grays" are interested. I must plead guilty to the charge of selfishness, in thus restricting my "remarks" to our own circle, while our good, whole-souled and soldierly County-men, forming a part of Col. J. M. Campbell's Regiment, are quartered within a stone's throw of our barracks.

I am reminded, after scanning the preceding paragraph, that our County volunteers have a kind of "button-hole" connection with another company in this camp.

Captain Sprague's company is attached to the 101st Regiment, (Col. Wilson,) which is now under marching orders. It is really one of the finest in camp, and does much credit to the County from which it hails.

The incident to which I alluded at the close of my last letter, took place in this company. Without authority, I may be pardoned for making brief mention of it. As I have stated, the 1st Lieut. and A. C. Mullin are brothers. The latter, during a recent visit, impelled by that fraternal love which, when displayed, honors our common nature, presented in a private, though formal manner, a beautifully embellished sword, as a token of brotherly affection.

For Lieutenant Mullin, your correspondent entertains a regard commensurate with his acknowledged worth as a gentleman and soldier.

LITTLE CAMBRIA AND THE WAR.—Speaking of the cavalry company now being recruited in this county by Capt. Wm. Linton, the Hollidaysburg Standard last week observes:

We thought that the "Silver Grays" were the last draught of the military scene in "Little Cambria," but it appears that there are a few more "bold soldier boys" still left there.

True for you—a few more of the same sort still left, ready to be drawn on, on sight. Cambria county has now probably from eighteen to twenty hundred soldiers in the field. Of this number, a portion are in South Carolina, a portion on the Potomac, some in Kentucky, some in Missouri, some at Fort Monroe—in fact, wherever any fighting is going on it is at all likely to go on, there is the Mountain County represented.

Are you not proud of your sister county, neighbor?

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An accident, resulting in the death of an engineer named Saml. Eicher, and the serious injury of three or four other railroad attaches, occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad on Saturday night. The particulars as we have learned them are about as follows: In ascending the heavy grade between Wilmore and Cresson, this county, a second freight train was used to assist the progress of a heavily laden one in front.

THE SILVER GRAYS.—The Harrisburg Telegraph of a recent date published an extract from "Our Own Correspondent's" letter, concerning the above named body of veterans. This was highly creditable to the Silver Grays, but we observe, among other things, that the extract in question was not "creditable" to the exertions of our friend, "High Private" Furstay, neighbor?

SLEIGHING.—During the last few days the denizens of the "Mountain Village" have enjoyed most excellent sleighing. The snow is about one foot in depth, with a very good prospect of a steady increase.

DEAD.—The woman Manan, whom we noticed last week as having been seriously injured on the railroad near Johnstown, has died from her injuries.

NATIONAL FOUNDRY.—The Cambria Tribune says that the latest reports indicate that the chances of Johnstown in regard to the matter of the location of the National Foundry, are "as good as those of any other place."

FIRE.—We learn from the Hollidaysburg Standard that the house of William Ake, in Tuckahoe Valley, Blair county, was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday night week, the family barely escaping with their lives.

ELECTION.—The election of officers for Ebensburg borough will be held on Friday, 21st inst. Those residing in the East Ward will vote at the Court House; those in the West Ward at the Town Hall.

CANDLEMAS DAY.—Sunday was Candlemas Day, and if legendary lore can be relied on, we are to be favored with a cold snap of six weeks or thereabout before the breaking up of winter.

PERSONAL.—Capt. A. Lewis, of Co. A, 11th regiment P. R. C., Col. Gallagher, is in town on a brief furlough. He looks remarkably well, and reports his command as being in a flourishing condition.
