

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

LOCAL ETCHINGS.—The people of the Mountain were startled out of their usual propriety on Monday morning, by the singular phenomenon of a regular nor-wester, accompanied by thunder and lightning.

THE BOROUGH ELECTION.—Our first borough election under the new arrangement of two wards to the municipality came off on last Friday. Two tickets—a Republican and Democratic—were placed in nomination. The following was the result of the vote:

COMMON SCHOOLS.—From the Report of the State Superintendent of Common Schools for the year 1861, we glean the following statistics with reference to the operations of the system in this county:

TO PARENTS.—We are informed that on Monday last, Mrs. Aline Maguire reopened her select school in this place.

PERSONAL.—Maj. Litzinger, of the 11th regiment, P. R. C., having recently been prostrated by a severe illness, is now at home on a brief furlough.

THE TWENTY-SECOND.—We are sorry to chronicle the anniversary of the birth of the Father of his Country—the great and good Washington—was permitted to come and go without any patriotic demonstration whatever in our midst.

CO. A, 11TH REGT.—By a private letter from Camp Pierpont, we learn that John J. Storey and Joseph A. Pfoff—both members of this company—have been detached for gunboat service on the western waters. They are both from this county.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The attention of the public is directed to the advertisement elsewhere of "Kollock's Dandelion Coffee." This is said to be an excellent substitute for the genuine article. Try it.

COURT.—The March term of our county Courts will commence on next Monday, to continue for three weeks. A large amount of business has accumulated, and a throng time is anticipated.

LIST OF JURORS.—On our fourth page this week will be found the list of Jurors for the coming term of our county Courts. It may prove interesting as a matter of reference.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.—We have an important fact to communicate. In doing so, we have no desire to make any unnecessary ado or create any undue excitement. But the people should know it. Therefore we print it. And we want everybody to read it. And then read it to everybody else.

THE DOG LAW IS REPEALED! THE BOROUGH ELECTION.—Our first borough election under the new arrangement of two wards to the municipality came off on last Friday.
