

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

EBENSBURG AND CRESSON RAILROAD.—On and after Monday, March 3, 1862, trains on this road will run as follows:

LEAVE CRESSON.—At 7.00 A. M., or on departure of Fast Line East. At 11.05 A. M., or on departure of Mail Train East. LEAVE EBENSBURG.—At 8.10 A. M., connecting with Through Express West. At 3.10 P. M., connecting with Mail Train West.

AN EBENSBURGER AT FORT DONELSON.—A friend has handed us a copy of the Daily Pantagraph—a paper published at Bloomington, Illinois—in which appears an extended account of the battle of Fort Donelson, as detailed by a citizen of that place who visited the field shortly after the fight. The 20th Illinois regiment, it will be remembered, bore a conspicuous part in the thickest of the fray. The Orderly Sergeant of one of the companies composing this regiment is Mr. Rolla Evans, formerly a resident of this place, but for several years past of Bloomington. The correspondent, after describing the battle-ground and other minutiae, gives the substance of a conversation had with the Captain of Rolla's company. In the course of this he inquired concerning the courage of several acquaintances. The Captain answered him as follows: "They are all brave; I can't say more for one than for another;" and voluntarily added—"but I must say Rolla Evans is the most cool and deliberate man in battle I ever heard of!" This, from the brave Captain of a brave company, is certainly a high compliment. We are confident that the recipient was altogether deserving of it. The relatives and friends of Mr. Evans in this locality will feel a justifiable pride in hearing this flattering report from him.

RYE COFFEE VS. RYE WHISKY.—In discussing on the relative merits of the above named commodities, the Standard insinuates that if we were to set a cup of the one and a bottle of the other before some of our mountain friends, we would have the mooted "difference" between the two illustrated to our entire satisfaction. Shouldn't wonder! From the beginning, the star of empire has invariably taken its way westward, and Hollidaysburg being our nearest neighbor in the direction of sunrise, it seems quite natural to suppose that we may have insensibly imbibed some of her erratic characteristics. Among which is the well developed faculty of being able to distinguish Rye from Rho. Hollidaysburg is a rather neat little "clearing," and her people rank A No. 1 in the social scale. Neither will do to "be on" to in all cases, however.

THE LONG LOOKED FOR, ETC.—The last issue of the Altoona Tribune—a tip-top paper, by the way—was printed on a "Power Press," of the "Campbell's County" persuasion. The editors, in thus introducing the journalistic high pressure principle into the Alleghania region, appear to be decidedly of the impression that they have accumulated a big thing without much effort. And so they have. The "unseen" is dubbed the "Pioneer"—bully for the Pioneer!

ARREST OF A MAIL ROBBER.—On Wednesday of last week, Officer Dougherty, of Pittsburg, arrested in this place a mail robber named Adam Keith, who committed a robbery at Newman's Mills Post Office, Indiana county, on the 25th of February last. He purloined letters of Mary Anderson, Elizabeth Anderson, and others, containing money. The evidence of his guilt is said to be strong. He was taken to Pittsburg on Wednesday night, and after a hearing was committed to prison, to await his trial at the next term of the United States Court, in May. Keith is a private in the 54th regiment, now at Washington city.

COURT.—The Court proceedings of last week were of so trivial and uninteresting a character that we have decided to dispense with their publication. The only case of any moment was that of the Commonwealth vs. Samuel Welsh, on an indictment for rape. After a trial of two days' duration, the jury returned a verdict of "Guilty." The defendant has not yet received his sentence. Court was adjourned over on Thursday evening. The attendance this week is small.

OUR RAILROAD.—As we last week noted, the Ebensburg and Cresson Railroad was again put in operation on Monday. Although but brief notice had been given of the intention of running the cars, a very flourishing business in the way of transporting passengers to and from Court was done. On Monday of the present week, the first freight train arrived here. This consisted of four cars, which were loaded and sent off the same day. We understand that between seventy and eighty other car-loads of shooks, lumber, &c., will be shipped during the present week! This is doing very well for a start, and demonstrates conclusively that Our Railroad is destined to be a paying institution. The present rate charged per car to Cresson is ten dollars.

The residue of the road, from its present temporary terminus to the Depot, is now fully graded. The iron will be laid immediately upon the advent of Spring. The finishing touches are also about being put on the Depot building.

BLAIR COUNTY ITEMS.—The citizens of Hollidaysburg are memorializing Congress to locate the National Armory and Foundry at that place.—An old man, in attempting to cross the railroad bridge near Hollidaysburg, one cold night recently, lost his balance and fell into the deep water below. He fortunately succeeded in catching one of the piers, where he hung for three hours, with his head barely above water, when he was rescued from his perilous position.—The storehouse at Blair Furnace, together with its contents, was totally consumed by fire last week.—The dwelling-house of Mr. Wm. Burkhardt, in Allegheny township, was burned to the ground a few days since.

BURNED TO DEATH.—The Cambria Tribune says that a little daughter of Mr. J. A. Stenamer, of Johnstown, aged about eleven years, was burned to death on Friday evening, 28th inst., under the following circumstances: The little girl was holding the candle while an elder sister was pouring carbon oil from a jug into a small can, when by some means the flame communicated to the oil, exploding with a loud report, and inflicting injuries upon the little girl which resulted in her death next morning. Strange to say, the other girl escaped without injury.

SAW MILL BURNED.—A saw mill belonging to a Mr. Fulmer, in Richland tp., was destroyed by fire on Saturday morning, 1st inst. The fire originated from coals falling from an open stone hearth upon the mill. The loss involved the mill only, no lumber or other property suffering in the conflagration. So we learn from the Cambria Tribune.

THE CAMBRIA COUNTY POOR HOUSE.—Annexed is the supplement to the "Act to provide for the erection of a house for the employment and support of the poor of the county of Cambria," referred to by our Harrisburg correspondent last week. It was read in place by Mr. Pershing, on the 27th February:

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty, and it is hereby required of the Commissioners and Directors of the Poor of the county of Cambria, to make a just and full settlement, before the first day of November next, of all matters and things pertaining to the erection of the Poor House of said county, and ascertain what amount, if any, of the debt incurred by said county for the purchasing of a Poor House farm and the erection of the necessary buildings thereon yet remains unpaid.

Sec. 2. That hereafter it shall be unlawful for the Commissioners of said county, and they are hereby prohibited from assessing and collecting, or causing to be collected, in any year, Poor taxes exceeding in amount the estimate required to be furnished by the Directors of the Poor of said county to said Commissioners by the fifth section of the act to which this is a supplement. Provided, That this prohibition shall not extend to any Poor tax assessed for the payment of any balance of any debt which may be ascertained by the settlement provided for in the first section of this act to have been incurred by said county for the purpose of providing a house of employment for the poor of said county. And provided further, That the taxes assessed for the support of the Poor, and for the payment of any indebtedness which may be found to exist, shall be respectively designated as such, and the County Treasurer is hereby required to keep accurate and separate accounts of said taxes.

Sec. 3. That hereafter all orders for the relief or support of paupers in the county of Cambria which shall be signed only by one Justice of the Peace of said county shall be deemed and taken to be as valid as if the same were signed by two Justices of the Peace, and no order shall be granted by any Justice or Justices for said county for the relief of any poor and indigent person until proof is first made to the satisfaction of the said Justice or Justices, by the oaths or affirmations of two respectable citizens of said county, that such person is entitled to the relief prayed for, and the names of the said citizens shall be set forth in the order granted by the said Justice or Justices.

Sec. 4. That hereafter all orders for the relief or support of any poor or indigent person granted by any Justice or Justices for said county of Cambria, shall be directed to one of the Directors of the Poor of said county, provided said Director lives within a mile of the office of said Justice or Justices granting the same.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the bride's mother, in this place, on Tuesday morning, 11th inst., by the Rev. L. Powell, Mr. Geo. A. KINKAD to Miss DEBORAH EVANS, both of Ebensburg.

So we go! First one—then another—drifting slowly and surely, day by day, into the maelstrom of matrimony. Pretty soon, we shall have occasion to ask ourselves—"The friends of our youth—where are they? The participants in our pleasures, in those halcyon days of old—"

When youth was bold, And Time stole wings to speed it: And youth ne'er knew how fast Time flew—Or, knowing, did not heed it—

Whither have they vanished?" In this event, in all probability, Echo would feel called upon to answer—"Gone and got married!" Nevertheless, we hereby tender our heartiest congratulations to the happy couple, hoping they may enjoy an endless career of prosperity and sunshine. And furthermore, when the rose-tinted dream begins to pale before the accumulation of the musty cobwebs of Time, may their love for each other undergo no change but only grow the deeper and stronger.

Many thanks for the kind forget-me-not. EDUCATIONAL.—The following is an epitome of County Superintendent Scott's report for the month ending March 1, 1862:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Count. No. schools visited, 50; No. miles traveled, 217; No. official letters written, 9; No. hours each visit, except Johnstown, 3; No. days devoted to official duty of every kind, 24.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CONTINENTAL MONTHLY.

There are periods in the world's history marked by extraordinary and violent crises, sudden as the breaking forth of a volcano, or the bursting of a storm on the ocean. These crises sweep away in a moment the landmarks of generations. They call out fresh talents and give to the old a new direction. It is then that new ideas are born, new theories developed. Such periods demand fresh exponents, and new men for exponents.

This Continent has lately been convulsed by an upheaving so sudden and terrible, that the relations of all men and all classes to each other are violently disturbed, and people look about for the elements with which to sway the storm and direct the whirlwind. Just at present we do not know what all this is to bring forth; but we do know that great results must flow from such extraordinary commotions.

At a juncture so solemn and so important, there is a special need that the intellectual force of the country should be active and efficient. It is a time for great minds to speak their thoughts boldly, and to take position as the advance guard. To this end, there is a special want unprovided for. It is that of an independent Magazine, which shall be open to the first intellects of the land, and which shall treat the issues presented, and to be presented to the country, in a tone no way tempered by partisanship, or influenced by fear, favor, or the hope of reward; which shall seize and grapple with the momentous subjects that the present disturbed state of affairs heave to the surface, and which can be laid aside or neglected.

To meet this want, the undersigned have commenced, under the editorial charge of CHARLES GODFREY LELAND, the publication of a new Magazine, devoted to Literature and National Policy.

In POLITICS, it will advocate, with all the force at its command, measures best adapted to preserve the openness and integrity of these United States. It will never yield to the idea of any disruption of this Republic, peacefully or otherwise; and it will discuss, with honesty and impartiality, what must be done to save it. In this department, some of the most eminent statesmen of the time will contribute regularly to its pages.

In LITERATURE, it will be sustained by the best writers and ablest thinkers of this country.

Among its attractions will be presented, in an early number, a New SERIAL of American Life, by RICHARD B. KIMBALL, Esq., the very popular author of "The Revelations of Wall Street," "St. Leger," &c. A series of papers by Hon. HORACE GREELY, embodying the distinguished author's observations on the growth and development of the Great West. A series of articles by the author of "Through the Cotton States," containing the result of an extended tour through the seaboard Slave States, just prior to the breaking out of the war, and presenting a startling and truthful picture of the real condition of that region. No pains will be spared to render the literary attractions of the CONTINENTAL both brilliant and substantial. The lyrical or descriptive talents of the most eminent literati have been promised to its pages; and nothing will be admitted which will not be distinguished by marked energy, originality, and solid strength. Avoiding every influence or association partaking of clique or coterie, it will be open to all contributions of real merit, even from writers differing materially in their views; the only limitation required being that of devotion to the Union, and the only standard of acceptance that of intrinsic excellence.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT will embrace, in addition to vigorous and fearless comments on the events of the times, general gossip with the reader on all current topics, and also devote abundant space to those racy specimens of American wit and humor, without which there can be no perfect exposition of our national character. Among those who will contribute regularly to this department, may be mentioned the name of CHARLES F. BROWN (Ariens Ward), from whom we have promised an entirely new and original series of SKETCHES OF WESTERN LIFE. The CONTINENTAL will be liberal and progressive, without yielding to chimeras and hopes beyond the grasp of the age; and it will endeavor to reflect the feelings and interests of the American people, and to illustrate both their serious and humorous peculiarities. In short, no pains will be spared to make it the REPRESENTATIVE MAGAZINE of the time.

TERMS.—Three Dollars per year, in advance (postage paid by the Publishers); Two Copies for Five Dollars; Three Copies for Six Dollars, (postage unpaid); Eleven Copies for Twenty Dollars, (postage unpaid). Single numbers can be procured of any News-dealer in the United States. The KNICKERBOCKER MAGAZINE and the CONTINENTAL MONTHLY will be furnished for one year at Four Dollars.

Appreciating the importance of literature to the soldier on duty, the publisher will send the CONTINENTAL gratis to any regiment in active service, on application being made by its Colonel or Chaplain; he will also receive subscriptions from those desiring to furnish it to soldiers in the ranks at half the regular price, but in such publication must be mailed from the office of publication. J. B. GILMORE, 110 Tremont St., Boston. March 13, 1862-31.
