have discovered a life-shortening scheme. You will read in a book of very great antiquity-the Bible-of a reverse which I experienced many years ago, resulting in my speedy and rather unexpected exit to my present position. To be idle was foreign to my nature, so I set my wits to work to assist in clearing the great stage of life of many of its brightest jewels. .

I am now prepared, through my numerous agents, whom I have stationed at every city and village and cross-road in the country, to supply all who are knaves enough to experiment in my man-debasing schemes. I have tried it in thousands, yea, millions, of cases, and never failed in a single instance in bringing about the desired result. Ask some widow, whose tears unbidden start as she passes that sunken grave, marked by a worthless piece of board, or that orphan, who has often felt the pinchings of hunger or shivered in the merciless blasts of December, whether the demon Intemperance is not all it is represented to be!

I am now fully prepared to suppress the expanding intellect of young men, to blast the fondest hopes of parents, to convert peaceful homes into scenes of riot and confusion, and rob them of a father or husband, and reduce the widow and children to penury and want. To dig premature graves, and turn once promising youths into loathsome, bloated creatures. To prey upon the shame, the time, the soul, the body, the eternity of mankind. I can also prepare the way for pauperism, disease, prison, the gallows; can ruin character, murder reputation, sink position, destroy fortunes, filch a man's crumbs of bread, beggar his family, break the heart of his wife, and dissolve family links of the closest ties.

For the small pittance of one shilling, I can make a poor man rich and a rich man a fool, a good neighbor a bad one, a shall not only maintain its present high stanman a rascal. A very small portion of it will cause angry litigations, neighborhood contentions, petty lawsuits, family broils. Bloody heads, broken noses, blind eyes, ragged coats and abject poverty follow in

This, we wish all to recollect, unlike the almost innumerable nostrums that promise to cure all diseases but cure none, fundamental basis of our free institutions, and in case the prescription fails to act as Citizens will always be preservative of a just,

I need not bore the community with a long list of testimonials, but will just re- here. fer any who wish to satisfy themselves upon this matter to my agents, who are men of practical experience. They can tell you how often they have, for the sake of a three cent piece, placed the accursed bowl to their neighbor's lips, and sent him home, with the devil in his heart, to abuse his wife and whip his children .--The landlord, who stands without a blush behind the counter as a vender of the destroying element, is a wholesale murderer. He can tell you that an intemperate man at the age of twenty will only live about fifteen years longer, whereas a temperate man of the same age may expect to live forty; at thirty, an intemperate man will probably live fourteen years longer-a temperate man thirty; at forty, an intemperate man may live twelve years longer can see the advantage of patronizing my firm. By its aid a man may leave this troublesome world many years sooner than otherwise. Lancaster Tp. July-30, 1860. Messes. Evans and Watson: Gentlemen-The small size No. 1 Salamander safe which I purchased from your agent, Mr. Adam R. Bar, in Lancaster City, on July 20th, 1858, has been subjected to a very severe test, which it withstood in a most satisfactory manner. This Safe, containing all my books together with valuable papers belonging to myself and some to my neighbors and friends. and represeting a value of over Twenty Thouswas destroyed on the night of the 27th of July, 1860, and passed through the fiery ordeal unscathed. The Safe was on the second floor and feil to the basement of the Mill, and was subjected for six hours to an intense heat among the rails, which was greatly increased The purest and best Baking Powder known, by the combustion of a large quantity of grain need only trace the history of their own for making light, sweet and nutritous Bread confined within the brick walls. After the fire the safe was opened and the books and papers taken out in a state of perfect preservation, the paper not even being discolored. Corner Broad and Chestnut sts., PHIL'A.
