4. BARKER, Editor and Proprietor. TODD HUTCHINSON, Publisher.

I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN PRESIDENT .- HENRY CLAY.

$2.00 PER ANNUM $1.50 IN ABVANCE

VOLUME 3.

EBENSBURG, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 3, 1862.

DIRECTORY.

LIST OF POST OFFICES. Post Masters. Districts. Post Offices. Yoder. lenn's Creek, Joseph Graham, Enoch Reese. Blacklick. ethel Station William M. Jones, Carroll. arrolltown, Danl. Litzinger, Chest. hess Springs, Washint'n. John J. Troxell, resson, John Thompson, Ebensburg. bensburg. allen Timber, Isaac Thompson, White. J. M. Christy, Gallitzin. hallitzin, Washt'n. Wm. M'Gough, iemlock, I. E. Chandler, Johnst'wn. hustown, P. Shields Loretto. oretto. E. Wissinger, Conem'gh meral Point, Munster. A. Durbin, unster. Conem'gh Francis Clement, ershing, Andrew J. Ferral Susq'han. lattsville. G. W. Bowman, White. oseland, Wm. Ryan, Sr., Clearfield. Augustine, Richland. George Conrad, alp Level, Washt'n. B. M'Colgan, Somman.

S'mmerhill. Morris Keil, Wilmore, CHURCHES, MINISTERS, &c.

B. F. Slick,

Summerhill,

Samunit.

Croyle.

Miss M. Gillespie Washt'n.

Presbyterian-Rev. D. HARBISON, Pastor .-Preaching every Sabbath morning at 104 clock, and in the evening at 3 o'clock. Sabth School at 1 o'clock, A. M. Prayer meeting every Thursday evening at 6 o'clock.

Methodist Episcopal Church-Rev. S. T. Snow. Pretcher in charge. Rev. J. G. Gooley, Assistant. Preaching every Sabbath, alternately at 101 o'clock in the morning, or 7 in the evening. Sabbath School at 9 o'clock, A. M. Prayer meeting every Thursday evening, at 7

Welch Independent-REV LL. R. POWELL Pastor .- Preaching every Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock, and in the evening at 6 o'clock. Sabbath School at 1 o'clock, P. M. Praver meeting on the first Monday evening of each month; and on every Tuesday, Thursday and ly evening, excepting the first week in

Calvinistic Methodist-REV, JOHN WILLIAMS, Pastor .- Preaching every Sabbath evening at 2 and 6 o'clock. Sabbath School at 10 o'clock, A. M. Prayer meeting every Friday evening, at 7 o'clock. . Society every Tuesday evening

Disciples-REV. W. LLOYD, Pastor .- Preaching every Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock. Particular Baplists-Rev. David Jenkins, Paster .-- Preaching every Sabbath evening at 3 o clock. Sabbath School at at 1 o'clock, P. M. Catholic-Rev. M. J. MITCHELL, Pastor .-Services every Sabbath morning at 10% o'clock and Vespers at 4 o'clock in the evening.

EBENSBURG MAILS. MAILS ARRIVE.

Eastern, daily, at 12 o'clock, noon. 12 o'clock, noon. Western, " at MAILS CLOSE. 8 o'clock, P. M. Eastern, daily, at 8 o'clock, P. M. Western, " at

The mails from Butler, Indiana, Strongsown, &c., arrive on Thursday of each week, at 5 o'clock, P. M. Leave Ebensburg on Friday of each week,

The mails from Newman's Mills, Carolltown, &c., arrive on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week, at 3 o'clock, P. M. Leave Ebensburg on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 7 o'clock, A. M.

RAILROAD SCHEDULE.

WILMO	RE STATIO	N.
West-Express Tra		9.44 A. M.
" Fast Line	44	10.09 P. M.
" Mail Train	44	4.45 P. M.
East-Express Trai	r. "	8.25 P. M.
" Fast Line		6.30 A. M.
" Mail Train	ir	10.34 A. M.
CRESS	ON STATIO
West-Express Train leaves at		9.22 A. M
" Mail Train	144	4.16 P. M
East-Express Trai	n ii	8.53 P. M.
" Mail Train	4.6	11.04 A. M.
[The Fast Lines	do not stop.

COUNTY OFFICERS. Judges of the Courts-President, Hon. Geo. laylor, Huntingdon; Associates, George W.

Easley, Henry C. Devine, Prothonotary -- Joseph M'Donald. Register and Recorder-Edward F. Lytle. Sheriff-John Buck. District Attorney .- Philip S. Noon. County Commissioners - D. T. Storm, James

Cooper, Peter J. Little Treasurer-Thomas Callin. Poor House Directors-Jacob Horner, Wil liam Douglass, George Delany.

Poor House Treasurer .- George C. K. Zahm Poor House Steward .- James J. Kaylor. Mercantile Appraiser-John Farrell. Auditors-John F. Stull, Thomas J. Nelson, Edward R Donnegan. County Surveyor .- E. A. Vickroy.

Coroner .- James S. Todd. Sup't. of Common Schools-Wm. A. Scott.

EBENSBURG BOR. OFFICERS. Justices of the Peace .- David H. Roberts Harrison Kinkead.

Burgess-George Huntley. School Directors-E. J. Mills, Dr. John M. Jones, Isaac Evans.

EAST WARD. Constable-Thomas Todd. Town Council-Wm. Davis, Daniel J. Davis, E. J. Waters, John Thompson, Jr., David W.

Inspectors-John W. Roberts, L. Rodgers. Judge of Election-Thomas J. Davis.

Assessor-Thomas P. Davis. WEST WARD. Constable-M. M. O'Neill. Town Council-William Kittell, H. Kinkead, R. L. Johnston, Edward D. Evans, Thomas J.

Inspectors-J. D. Thomas, Robert Evans. Judge of Election-John Lloye.

Asseror-Richard T. Davis.

Select Poetrn.

Look Aloft!

BY J. W. BRYCE.

When fierce storms toss your fragile bark, And threatening waves around you roar; When clouds are lowering wild and dark, And distant lies the friendly shore, Then, look aloft!

When fearful shipwreck threatens most, And not a harbor you can find; But all along the rock-bound coast

Wild beats the sea, loud moans the wind

Oh, look aloft No star of hope may beam above, No beacon shine upon your way; Your compass may unfaithful prove,

Your ship no more her helm obey : Yet, look aloft! Above the clouds there is an eye Can pierce their gloom to watch your course And though the tempest rages high,

A voice can quell its mutterings hoarse.

Then look aloft! Oh, fear not, Christian sailor, fear Not storm, nor wave, nor rock-bound shore Launch boldly forth, He will be near, And Faith shall guide you safely o'er.

Then, look aloft !

ANOTHER SPEECH FROM G. F. TRAIN

As the audiences in the discussion halls shorthand writers of the metropolitan press, public opinion is moulded (as it has been called in all ages,) by what is sometimes called the Bohemian talent, a name made famous by the clever work, entitled "The Bohemians," by young Whitty, who died some years since in Australia.

On Monday evening Mr. Train was again challenged by the Secessionists, on the question, "What chance has the South to obtain its Independence ?" Mr. Train-Certainly, I comply with your call, but more to state a fact than make a speech. The Secession speaker sneers at the Yankees, ridicules their industry, and ignores their wonderful energy. It is time, Mr. Chairman, to stop the administration all debts and so forth. this sneering at the North. This Sam | Shades of repudiation protect me .- They Slicking the word Yankee. Halliburton, an Englishman, wrote for an English best show how ridiculous is that statement audience, in an English colony, and the The first Secessionist, you know was Sa-English mind being open to accept, any- tan! He seceded from a purer world, and thing that would satirize Americans, takes | with mimittable check took our Saviour the Sam Slick for a text book, when we on a high mount, and offered all the kingnever use the language at all which he ascribes to us. Americans never use the word Britisher; and you should know when you sneer at the Yankee, you sneer | not a shilling in the world. He should at your own people. The pi'grims were have given Mr. Seward credit for gener-Englishmen. When they landed on the Western shore, the Indians ran down to at all. You may comment, but had meet them, crying, "Yengeese! Yengeese" O'Brien, and Mitchell, and Meagher prewhich is the Indian word for Englisman; and as Englishmen terture language into at Downing street in 1848 on a similar most uncouth shapes, calling my lord, my errand, how quickly they would have been lud ; Derby, Darby, and persist in calling | incar cerated in the Tower. The gentle-Cowper, Cooper! So the Indian word man wants a monarchy. During the Yengeese in time became Yengees, Yen- next few weeks he shall have the military gee, Yankee, Yankee, meaning English- advantages of such a Covernment. The man, so remember in future when you game is up, and the hunters are starting sneer at the word Yankee you sneer at with the bugle. Long before Mr. Cowper yourself and at your own countrymen. gets his drive through Hyde Park, or poration carry heavier weights than oth-The New Englander is proud of the name. Sir Robert Peel fights the O'Douoghue, ers. These were, no doubt, some of the You compliment me, sir, by the allusion, our Maniken traitors will be no more. for it is the Yankee who raises the Flag | The Secessionits made one statement of the Union on every mountain in Christ- about Southern courage which I must endom and raised its hallowed folds over rectify. This is the same brag that one justify his course in acting in concert every billow in all the oceans. The Se- Southerner is equal to three or four Yancessionists in the winter carries on his kees, and said that he himself was good trade on Yankee capital, and in summer at anytime for two. is obliged to go to Yankee watering places for his vacation, spending pennies in his meagre plantation fare where nobody is looking on, but throwing away pounds in for a pair of gloves, I will soon prove to Yankee land in the bar-rooms, the gambling houses and places of evil repute; there is one Northerner, at least, who whenever he can dazzle the unsuspecting will make as short work of him physically with his bank notes. The game of Brag as he has done intellectually. is not always a game of cards. Is there any game about here, asked the Young lenger, but Mr. Train's proposition was Englishman with bag and gun when landing on the banks of the Mississippi? Yes, plenty, lisped the negro. What? Oh, principally Poker! That is not a Yankee game or Yankee story. The South depends upon the Yankee for food and raiment, for medicines, its necessities and its in a fast neighborhood.

luxuries. The Yankee supplies the Se- "I have!" shouted a six year old at luxuries. The Yankee supplies the Secessionists with Bibles-though seldom the foot of the class. called for-and printing paper, and ice, and coffins. The Secession mother sends erably amused at his earnestness. to Yankee land for a Yankee schoolmistress to teach her children. And the Se- gleefully. cession father sends his sons to Yankee West Points, Yankee naval schools, and

Englishman or may be translated as, the true type of such a gentleman. How can the honorable speaker quote Latin, when none of us understand it? Said the classic Sir James Napier, after a warm argument regarding Cronstadt-"In medio tutissimus ibis." Sir Charles, under great excitement responded. "You are another!" "Another what?" "Just what you called me." But even Latin won't do to make out a case for Secession. He says, advocate night Sessions in addition. In as a rule, the attacked party always deserves the most sympathy-intimating, in the face of what is not true, that the North attacked the South, when we all know that Beauregard fired first shot at Anderson-On that principle he would of been with the Russians in the Crimean War, against his own countrymen-or, with better analogy, when discovering a man maltreating a woman, or committing a burgarly, he would side with the desperate thief rather than the policeman whose duty it was arrest him. He speaks again of Carolinian chivalry! I am tired of that now. Who ever heard of it until Brooks brutally crept behind the back of Senator Sumner with bludgeon in hand, with the intention of assassinating him in the Senate Chamber, while his confederate Keitt stood by with loaded revolver to see fair play? The chivalry are no longer in Congress, and the world can no longer witness there a repetition of such disgraceful secession blackguardism! Southern chivalry! Look at our armies within six miles of the chivalrie Charleston! Thank God, I am a Puritan and no Cavalier - A sine die adjournment, under the circum- Freedom, is hailed as her champion and and a number of flat boats were anchored are composed of barristers, authors known I am a Roandhead and no Pretender, I stances, would include an extra, or called defender. The vivid portraiture of the side by side thus forming a sort of ponand unknown to fame, and many of the belong to the Cromweilian army, and Session, and extra per diem and mileage. battle and the camp—the burning words toon bridge upon which we crossed. We pride myself on being a Yankee! The A pro tem adjournment would limit the of patriotic exhortation—the addresses of passed Bowling Green about noon and honorable secessionist accuses the North pay to the seven hundred dollars for each devotion to the Banner of Liberty and the after marching 22 miles, bivouacked in of frauds, and says from the first until the member, and the one mileage. What cause of the People-all depicted in the an open field, one mile south of Franklin. last President there has been nothing but robbery and corruption. Now, as I have before proved that the South has control- are offered on sine, and no takers. led the Government for the last seventy years, and was the treasurer of the nation, I am not surprised at his statement. The right hon, secessionists who immediately preceded me disputed my statement that the South robbed the North of fifty millions sterling private debts, and fifty millions sterling private property, and said that when the Secesionists Commissioners went to Washington they offered to pay pay! why, gentlemen, an anecdote will doms round about if he would join his Secession party, when every estate he had was mortgaged, and the poor devil had

> Now, Mr. Chairman, if I have a weak point that is strong, that is the point, and if you will suspend the rules and send out you by facts-while he uses words-that osity for permitting the scamps to return

sented themselves to Lord John Russell

The challenged party became the chalnot accepted; and, during the excitement importance only in localities from which created by the novel offer, the question was adjourned until Wednesday.

"Did you ever see an elephant's skin," asked a teacher in an infant school

"Where?" inquired oldspecks, consid-"On the elephant," shouted prodigy,

Yankee colleges. Many of to-days trait- meeting heard a young friend make the partments and in the Legislature, the operating on the exposed portion of the from what they expected it would be, for ors were taught truth, honor, morality and following announcement: "Brethern and well known dramatist and elecutionist, urchin's person with great vehemence, they were made to believe that we would religion at our Yankee Harvard Univer- sisters, I am going to marry a daughter James E. Murdoch of Philadelphia, de- when the young one dug into the paren- plunder and destroy all the property along sity only to return and lie, and swear, and steal, and breed treason. Remember again sir, when you sneer, that Yankee means of the Lord." "Och,'n ye are," said Pat livered, in the Hall of the House of Reptack of the Lord." "Och,'n ye are," said Pat livered, in the Hall of the House of Reptack of the Lord." "Hell blazes! what're ye bitin' me for?" we are the best behaved soldiery that has ten by T. Buchanan Reed, entitled "The "Well, dad, you beginned this ere war?" ever been in their midst. BOANERGES.

Letter from Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, March 27, 1862.

Correspondence of The Alleghanian. The members of both Houses seem to have determined "to throw off their coats" and go to work in carnest. They are now holding two Sessions nearly every day, while some are becoming so restless as to legislation there are two extremes, either of which should be avoided-the one is a too tardy, sluggish action upon questions ful propriety are reserved for the close of If the present Session prove to be a coun- recited in Ebensburg. The surroundings our visit. terpart of those that have preceded it, of the reader would lend an interest to we may look for something in the sensa- the tale, and enhance its inherent beau- and encamped at Camp Rousseau on Bartion line before the adjourument:

The day for final adjournment will be this contest with sine die? Ten to one

The addition of one more member of Congress to the number upon which the | brigter fire of patriotism. apportionment of last session was based, will necessitate a remodeling of the distriets. What change may be made in the present arrangement of counties I can not predict. The Speaker of the House has announced the fellowing committee, to which the subject has been referred:

Messrs, Armstrong, Cessua, Crane, Smith, Chester,) Wimley, Bliss, Vincent, Lichtenwallner, and Moore.

The House Bill for the repeal of the act of last session, commuting the Tonnage tax on the Pennsylvania Railroad, will, in all probability, be so amended in the Senate, as to include all Railroads in the State, thereby imposing a tonnage tax on all of them. The fact is that, apart from the question of the constitutionality of the law of last session; or the debateable one relative to the constitutionality of any law repealing the one of last year, if it was not passed in violation of the fundamental law, or invalidated by its being procured by fraud, very cogent arguments have been adduced against the justice of the re-imposition of the tonnage tax upon this Road, while all others are permitted to "sail along" unmolested. In view of the fact, that a tax will be imposed upon all Railroads, by the General Government, for the purpose of aiding in creating a revenue to meet the wants of the country, it appears to be unfair to make this corconsiderations which induced Mr. Pershing to vote against the Bill repealing the act of last session, and which may is a matter between him and his constitusire, of your correspondent to interfere.

in the Senate. These will be subjects of they emenate. A retrospect of a week's legislation presents nothing further about impressed upon them by their chief .the scene by devoting a few lines to a feetreats ever served up for the gratification | with a fixed determination. of any audience.

An Irishman attending a Quaker prominent gentlemen in the several De- provoking son across his knee, and was people. Our conduct is vastly different Wild Wagoner of the Alleghanies."-The Hall was "crammed and jammed" to overflowing. I have been an occasional sojourner in Harrisburg for many years, but never before did I witness so brilliant an audience.

The title of the Poem so attracted my attention, that I could not resist the desire to hear its recitation by one so celebrated as is Mr. Murdoch. The scenes time, that of the Revolution. The Hero son, feels the preferances given to primodescription of the road, the teamster and fixed at or about the 11th day of April, but my attraction was the "Wild Wagothe House having adopted a resolution, ner." He appears again as the leader of steamboate ferried troops across as fast suggesting the 11th. There has been a troop of horse in the American Armyconsiderable discussion as to whether it fights most valliantly at the battle of division by this means was an operation shall be a sine die or a pro tem adjourn- Brandywine, and in other contests in the entirely too slow. A detachment comment. In the event of it becoming obligreat struggle for freedom. His devotion gatory upon the Legislature to pass laws to liberty is rewarded by the triumph of for the erection of a temporary bridge, for the assessment and collection of the the cause he had espoused. He witnes-National tax, there will, of necessity, be see the ejection of his elder brother from cable. On the 27th, the river having a Session sometime during the summer. the country, while he, the warrior of fallen considerably, the three steamboats chance, think you, will pro tem have in language of one of the first poets of the We crossed the Tennessee line at 9 a. m., age, transported the reader's hearers back on Friday. All the stores and shops and enkindled in each breast a newer and the houses deserted. We encamped at

> The appropriateness of this entertainment does great credit to the taste and design of those through whose instrumentality Mr. Murdoch was induced to visit the Capitol of the State. I would that this Poem could be recited in every county-seat in the Commonwealth; yea, in every village in the land-even in rebeldom itself. While its inspiring words and ardent appeals would nerve the arm of the patriot, they would palsy that of the rebel traitor. But I will not longer make myself amenable to a grave charge. Any attempt on my part to convey to you even the faintest idea of the beauties of "The Wild Wagoner of the Alleghanies," would be evidence of vanity. _You must hear it, to appreciate it; and I believe you can hear it if you desire it. Let me throw out a suggestion. Mr. Murdoch was paid one hundred dollars for reciting the Poem, or rather selected Cantos from it, which occupied him two hours and ten minutes. A like amount would, no doubt induce him to visit the "Mountain Village," at such time as might be agreed upon. If the holding of the annual County Fair were not so distant, it would be the proper occasion. What think Hugo.

Scene for a Painter .- The following from a Knoxville, Tenn., rebel journal, describing a secret meeting of thirty or forty Unionists, called together by a well known patriot, David Fry, admirably illustrates the "idolatrous love" for the Stars and Stripes, and suggests a subject with the friends of the Road. But this worthy of the highest inspiration of our best Historical Painter: "Fry drew forth ents. It is not the right, nor is it the de- a United States flag, and spreading it upon a table in the centre of the room, called The General Appropriation Bill has upon his followers to surround that emnot yet been reported in the Senate; nor | blem of the Union, and take the oath of has the Senate resolutions relative to abol- allegiance. This was late in the night, ishing Slavery in the District of Colum- and after the whole plot had been fully bia been reported in the House. Neither understood, the conspirators surrounded has the tonnage tax been yet brought up the table in groups, and, by direction of the leader, placed their left hands upon interest for next week. Both Houses the folds of the flag, raising aloft their have been engrossed this week in running | right hands, and swearing to support the Constitution of the United States, to sustain the flag there spread before them, and to do that night whatever may be which to write. I must, therefore, change The oath was taken by all except two or three, in solemn carnest, and in silence; ble description of an intellectual enter- the darkness relieved alone by the dim tainment, of which your humble corres- and flickering light of a solitary candle. pondent participated on Wednesday even- The scene was impressive. The occaing, the 13th inst. It was certainly one | sion was full of moment, and every thing of the most delightful and appropriate conspired to fill the hearts of the traitors take

By request of a number of the most | Mar An enraged parent had jarked his most salutary effect upon the minds of the Letter from Kentucky.

CAMP HAMBRIGHT, KY. March 23, 1862. Correspondence of The Alleghanian.

During our stay at Camp Hambright I had the pleasure of visiting the Dripping Cave and the Hundred Dome Cave. We could not penetrate the former to a great distance, on account of the water are laid in our good, old State, and the which flows through it. The stream was much swollen by the recent rains. In of the tale is a scion of an aristocratic the latter we found much to interest us. English family, who, being a younger The long avenues, the spacious rooms, the high domes, the deep chasms, the of public interest-the other a too wild, geniture. He abandons his home, as- formations of lime, gypsum, quartz, &c., hasty and reckless consideration and adop- sumes another name and employs himself and the myriads of dormant bats which tion of public measures. Bills of doubt- as a wagoner. The sublimity of the Poet's hang in large bevies from the ceiling, were all new and interesting scenes to the team cannot be conveyed to you by most of us. After entirely satisfying our the Session, when members become anx- the prosaic pen of so dull a writer as your curiosity, and collecting a number of ious to wind up business and go home. humble servant. This Canto should be specimens we returned highly pleased with

> We left Camp Hambright on the 23d ren River, opposite Bowling Green .--There are several characters introduced, Here we found both bridges destroyed, and the river bank full. Three small as they could, but to transport a whole menced immediately to "take out" timber but this was soon abandoned as impracti-"to the time which tried men's souls," along the way were closed, and many of two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, in a beautiful grove two miles north of Nashville. Our brigade crossed the Cumberland on the 7th and encamped at Camp Andy Johnson, one and a half miles bevond Nashville. Six companies-A and D of the 78th, two of the 79th, two of the Wisconsin First-were detached and placed under the command of Col. John C. Starkweather to serve as Provost Guard in Edgefield. We, the detached companies, are now encamped on a common near the centre of the town. Edgefield has about 2,000 inhabitants and is separated from the city proper by the river. All the bridges at this place, three in number, were destroyed by the rebels, notwithstanding the remonstrances of the citizens on both sides. Floyd consented to leave them the suspension bridge, after tearing up the planks; but his last act on leaving the city, was to cut the main braces and precipitate the whole structure into the river. These bridges are said to have cost in the aggregate not less than

Our troops cross on steamboats. A regular ferry has been established, on which the citizens are permitted to cross. when the boats are not freighted to their full capacity with soldiers or army trains.

We have found secreted several hundred rifles, (common squirrel rifles,) a number of picks, spades, and shovels, 130 barrels of turpentine, and a large lot of bacon. They have all been seized and are now in the hands of the Provost Guard, subject to the order of General

The city is quiet. The panic is fast subsiding. Citizens are quietly returning to their homes. Ladies, who a short time ago entreated the rebel commander that they might not be left to the mercy of the Lincolnites, now promenade the streets as free from molestation or insult, as if surrounded by half a million of the "Chivalry." Stores and shops are re-opened. and some of the streets present quite's business like appearance. Several cargoes of groceries, shipped from St. Louis have found a ready and profitable market at Greenbacks are in demand-$1 of "Lincoln currency" being equivalent to $1.25 in Tennessee bills. A few days ago the brokers gave but 40 per cent. for Tennessee paper. The holders of Confederate Scrip attempted a bit of sharp practice the other day. They put in circulation the report of a great rebel victory at Manassas, in which 30,000 Union prisoners were taken ; but the bait wouldn't

The citizens of this place treat us very kindly. The policy of Gen. Buell has a